

Southern Oregon College Homecoming Is Scheduled

Ashland — Southern Oregon college alumni will be welcomed back to the college Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11 and 12, for the traditional homecoming activities. The theme is "Remember When."

Hearings Scheduled Into Controversial Sale of Timber

Washington — (U.P.) — S. L. Peterson, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, today said a public hearing will be held in Portland on the Crescent Lake timber sale controversy.

A hearing on the proposed sale of 75,000,000 board feet of timber in the Windigo Pass area near the lake was requested by groups from several Oregon communities, including Bend, Klamath Falls, Westfir, Dallas and Tillamook.

L. & H. Lumber company of Sutherlin informally requested the sale of the U. S. Forest Service more than a year ago. The company said it would build a sawmill and chipping operation at Crescent Lake if the sale were effected.

Opposed Plan
However, central Oregon groups opposed the proposal on the grounds that the sawmill planned would place competitors at a disadvantage in bidding on pine timber stands between Crescent Lake and Bend.

Regional Forester J. Herbert Stone, after a hearing in Bend several months ago, turned down the application by the Sutherlin firm, but Forest Service Chief Richard McArdle reversed this decision.

The Bend Chamber of Commerce appealed to the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Portland hearing, a date for which has not yet been set, resulted from the appeal.

Half-time ceremonies will include a short welcoming address to alumni, guests, and students by SOC President Elmo N. Stevenson, and the crowning of a homecoming queen. Princesses selected by the lettermen's club are Winnette Andrews, Palm Desert, Calif.; Gretchen Lingquist, Medford; Gloria Everts, Eugene; Jo Rasmussen, Grants Pass; and Jean Marshall, Forest Grove.

General chairman is Walt Hurst, Glendale.

The rally squad will kick off the events with a serpentine of students leading from the dorm at 6:30 p.m. Friday to a bonfire rally at Puller field.

Saturday Activities
Saturday's activities will begin at 12:30 p.m. with a noise parade through downtown Ashland, featuring floats to be judged by faculty and alumni for prizes in the various divisions. Riley Winchell, Medford, is in charge of the floats.

At 2 p.m. an alumni "buzz session" and registration is scheduled for Susanne Homes Hall. Old grads will be issued name tags admitting them to the football game free.

At 3 p.m. Sigma Epsilon Pi will honor its alumni with a tea at the apartment of their adviser, Miss Plichta.

An address, "New Emphases at SOC," will be given by Dr. Stevenson, which will be followed by the election of officers for the coming year.

After the game, a Homecoming Dance is scheduled in honor of the returning alumni for 10:30 p.m. at Memorial Court.

SLEEPING PERMIT
Boston — (U.P.) — Don't get caught napping on Boston Common unless you've got your sleeping permit. A new regulation requires a written pass from the Park Commissioner before you can sleep on the grass of the Common or other public parks.
