Californians Aren't Laughing At Ducks, Beavers This Week

By SCOTT BAILLE
San Francisco (U.P.)—They used to laugh when Oregon State and Oregon came down to play football but the smart boys definitely are worried this week end and for good reason.

Oregon State, which dropped eight out of nine games last season, meets California at Berkeley and is a seven-point choice to dig deeper into second place in the Pacific Coast Conference. Oregon, bouncing along on a four game winning streak, has been posted a seven-point underdog to Stanford off the Indians' 28-20 upset of Southern California. Coach Chuck Taylor of the Indians refuses to cheer up, for a change, and regards this game as the greatest test of the year for his in-and-outers.

One of the amazing comebacks under Coach Tommy Prothro has been left tackle John Witte. Big John actually is a triple threat man. After he gets out of school he wants to play pro football, get on somebody's wrestling troupe and become an undertaker.

Prothro, who came to the Beavers from UCLA this year and smuggled the secrets of the Bruins' single-wing system out of Los Angeles, rates Witte the best tackle on the coast.

"He compares favorably to Jack Ellena, UCLA's All-American tackle of last year," Prothro declares.

In the meantime, Corvallis, Ore., once more is nuts over football and King Basketball has been set down a peg.

Oregon also is far ahead of expectations and goes into the Stanford game with straight wins over California, Arizona, Idaho and Washington State. Not that these teams are worriers, but things are a lot rosier than Coach Len Casanova had dared to dream.

What happened? All seemed lost after George Shaw, the all-purpose man, left after last season. But Tom Crabtree's savvy at quarterback mixed with the speed of halfbacks Jack Morris and Jim Shanley have replaced Shaw's passing. The Webfoots are making terrific mileage overland.

Washington's reeling Huskies, who were bopped 20-6 by unsung California last week, are slated to take it on the chin again from UCLA in Los Angeles where the Bruins are 28-point favorites. Washington has been held to one touchdown in each of its last five games.

Southern California and College of the Pacific get the day off. Down at the bottom of the by beating third-place Texas Christian (21-0) because then it will have beaten the only teams that can tie for second. But Texas Christian is favored to win by six points.

Sugar Bowl—Only a long-shot chance of the Southeastern conference race being settled. It would happen only if four teams lost—Auburn, Mississippi State, Georgia Tech, and Tennessee. This would give the berth to league-leading Mississippi, which plays an outside game this week.

Last Major Obstacle
Another team shooting for a bowl berth Saturday is West Virginia, a three-point choice over Pittsburgh. The Mountaineers, who already have clinched the Southern conference championship, are hopeful of a Sugar Bowl invitation if they get by Pitt—a team figured as the last major obstacle to a perfect season.

Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 team which already has nailed down the Orange Bowl berth from the Big Seven conference, is a 35-point favorite to chalk up its 27th straight victory Saturday over Iowa State. The victory would give the Sooners the Big Seven crown, provided co-leader Nebraska loses as predicted, to Colorado. Colorado is a six-point favorite.

The week end starts on an inter-sectional note tonight with Detroit a 13-point favorite over Villanova, and Miami, Fla., a heavy favorite over Bucknell.

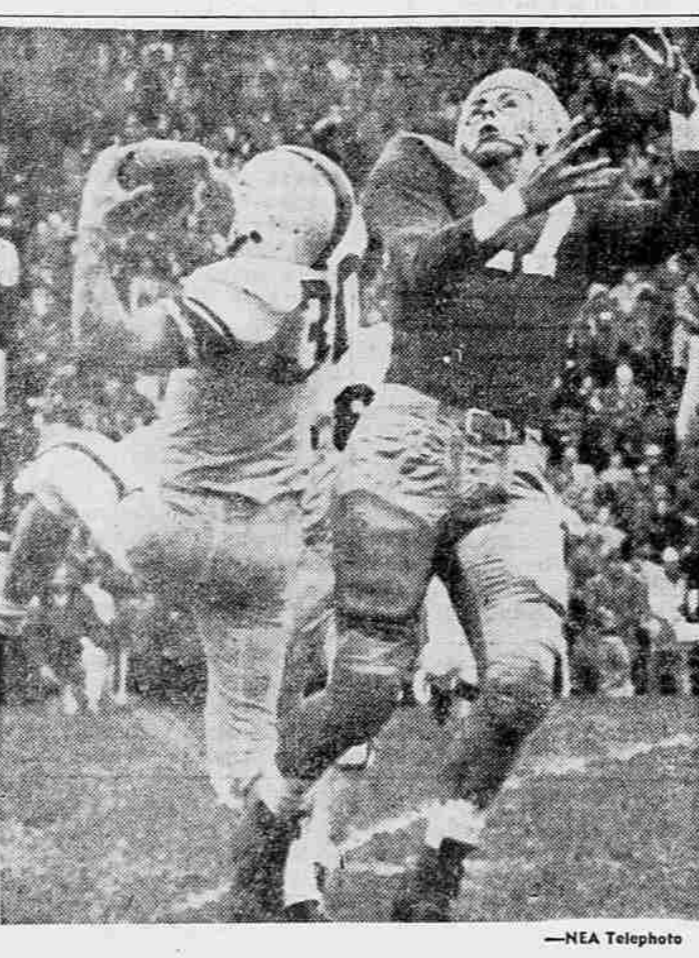

Other leading games tonight include Furman-Florida State, and Omaha-Idaho State.

Notre Dame, the highest-ranked independent team in the nation at No. 5, is a 27-point favorite over North Carolina in a leading inter-sectional tilt Saturday, while similar affairs find Holy Cross six points over Marquette and Mississippi 19 over Houston.

barrel, Washington State 1-6-1 plays sharp San Jose at Pullman, Wash., while Idaho, 0-7, meets distressed Brigham Young at Provo, Utah.

Fresno State and Cal Poly play at San Luis Obispo tonight

SPORTS

BACK BREAKER—Pennsylvania's Stan Chaplin (30) bends over backwards to intercept this pass thrown by Notre Dame's Don Schaefer and intended for Jim Morse (17) who clutches nothing but thin air in the first quarter at Philadelphia. The Irish, however, went on to overpower Penn, 46-14.

Bearcat Seniors End Grid Careers

Salem (U.P.)—Six seniors will close out their Willamette university football careers in the season's final game, against Linfield college Saturday night at McMinnville.

They are Halfback Bobby Zoelch, Portland; Tackle Dave Anderson, Portland; End Jerry Kangas, Clatskanie; Fullback Tom Carr, San Carlos, Calif.; Guard Gordon Change, Hawaii; and Quarterback Wes Malcolm, Cottage Grove.

Another senior, star end Dean Benson, Bend, already has ended his WU grid career because of a shoulder injury suffered two weeks ago.

CANADIENS SELL GAMBLE

Montreal (U.P.)—The Montreal Canadiens sold left winger Dick Gamble to the Quebec Aces of the Quebec Hockey league Thursday after securing waivers from the five other teams in the National Hockey league.

GRIDDER ACCEPTS BID

College Station, Tex. (U.P.)—Hugh Pitts, Texas Christian's center and co-captain, has accepted a bid to play in the Hula bowl football game in Hawaii, Jan. 8. Bids for other post-season games have been received by other Frog seniors but all are tentative pending the outcome of the hot Southwest conference race.

FOOTBALL LEARNS

Los Angeles (U.P.)—Jim Decker, former University of Southern California fullback, learned Thursday how hazardous it is to be a football coach nowadays. Decker coached girls from the north side of sorority row who lost to the south side 12-0. Result: Decker was hanged in effigy from a telephone pole.

SOX BILL DODGERS

Boston (U.P.)—The Boston Red Sox will open a 34-game spring training schedule against the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers in Miami, March 10. Twenty-four of the Sox's games will be played in Florida with the remainder scheduled for the northward trek to Fenway park in Boston.

TAKING OPENING KICKOFF, Frank Riepl of Pennsylvania skoots 108 yards to score against Notre Dame in battle at Philadelphia. Notre Dame wins game, 46-14. (International)

Boat Speed Try Halted by Winds

Las Vegas (U.P.)—Winds of 20 to 30 miles an hour whipped across Lake Mead today forcing British boat race driver Don Campbell to postpone his record-smashing attempt until next Monday.

The speedboat ace had tentatively scheduled another attempt for earlier today to break his own world record in the jet-propelled Bluebird II following four tries on Lake Mead yesterday.

Ed Yost Signs Senator Contract

Washington (U.P.)—Eddie Yost, usually one of the toughest players in the American league to sign, became the Washington Senators first regular to agree to terms today when he accepted a "little deduction" from his $21,500 salary of 1955.

Yost, who hit .248 in 122 games last season, is believed to have accepted a $19,000 figure for 1956. It was the earliest he had come to terms since he joined the club in 1944 at the age of 17.

why Ancient Age can say:

"IF YOU CAN FIND A BETTER BOURBON ... BUY IT!"

All we distill is Kentucky straight bourbon.

We know that bourbon of the finest quality requires choice grains. That's all we use. We know it calls for the greatest skill in distilling. The men who guide the making of Ancient Age are the most experienced in the industry. And it takes lots of time. That's why we wait six full years for careful aging to bring the quality ingredients to their peak of maturity.

And to safeguard the uniform quality of Ancient Age, we distill it at one place only... at the Ancient Age distillery in Frankfort, Kentucky... the heart of the bourbon country.

Nothing has been spared to make Ancient Age the greatest bourbon of them all. We invite you to try it tonight. After one taste, you'll understand why we can make the challenge: "If you can find a better bourbon... buy it!"
