

400 County Residents Join Guidance Clinic

About 400 Jackson county residents have joined and contributed to the Southern Oregon Child Guidance Clinic association in the fall membership campaign. Mrs. Carl Lawson, county chairman, announced this week. She said more residents will be announced as members later.

The 400 does not include more than 300 Medford members. A membership campaign is held in Medford each April.

Mrs. Lawson said the association's goal of furthering the understanding of clinic operations and functions was helped by campaign workers and speakers at various programs throughout the county.

Workers Listed

Campaign workers under the direction of the Rev. Ross Knotts in Ashland included Mrs. Carl Hegler, Mrs. Harvey Woods, Dr. John McAulay, the Rev. Fred Plocher, Dr. and Mrs. Chris Hald, Mrs. Jim Bush, Mrs. Walter Weller, Ben Lombard, Ed Singmaster, Mrs. Herb Cox, and Mrs. Jack Reid.

Mrs. W. H. Young and Mrs. Glen Hale were assisted in Eagle Point by Mrs. Helen Barrow.

ASC Election Set For Nov. 21-Dec. 2 In Jackson County

The annual election, by mail ballot of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation community committees will be held Nov. 21 to Dec. 2.

Ballots containing the names of 10 nominees in each community district will be mailed to all farmers known to the county ASC office. Voters will select five of the 10, three to serve as regular committee members and two as alternates.

All commercial farmers in the county are eligible to vote, and anyone not receiving a ballot can obtain one by calling at the county ASC office at the courthouse or phoning Medford 2-5591.

Dec. 2 Deadline

Ballots must be completed and returned not later than 5 p.m. Dec. 2. Other nominees may be added to the 10 already selected by an election board in each of the seven districts, if a petition signed by at least 10 eligible farmers is submitted to the county ASC office prior to Nov. 18, the date when ballots will be mailed to farmers. Write-in votes are not permissible.

Committee nominees for the seven districts are:

Applegate Community District: Clarence Buck, Charles C. Chittock, A. D. Christensen, James F. Corson, Ed Finley, W.H.R. Nostrand, L. C. Offenbacher, Frank Preston, Melvin Rowden and Fred West.

Sams Valley Community—Burlie Burreson, C. W. Duggan, Hubert Davidson, Jerry Fitzgerald, C. W. McDonough, R. E. Nealon, Earl Peffley, Murrell Quackenbush, Ray W. Ryan, and Albert L. Straus.

UNUSUAL STATE VISIT—Guatemala President and Mrs. Carlos Castillo Armas pose with President and Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower after paying like a 20-minute visit in his suite at Fitzsimons Hospital in Denver. The visitors from Central America gave Ike and Mamie several gifts, including a marimba, native doll, Indian drum and a United States presidential flag, handmade by a group of Guatemalan nuns.

GOLD HILL Dance Slated

Gold Hill—Mrs. A. A. Walker, fund raising chairman, has announced that a Thanksgiving eve dance has been planned at the Gold Hill Grange hall. The proceeds will be turned over to the trustees recently appointed by the county court for development of Rock Point cemetery.

The community-wide ticket sale will be made in the near future. Everyone will be asked to purchase tickets and have a part in the upkeep and restoration so the cemetery may become an asset and pride of the community for all. Weather permitting, a cemetery work day will be held Saturday, Nov. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Walker and family have moved into the Beck place on Blackwell hill.

Walla Walla Merchant Gun Accident Victim

Walla Walla — (U.P.) — Sam Brown, 56, a feed and sporting goods store operator here, was accidentally shot and killed Thursday while he and a companion were test-firing a rifle, police reported.

Brown and Army Sgt. Henry D. Gilmore of Camp Hanford, were sighting-in a rifle at the gunnery range at the airbase north of here. Gilmore told police Brown was checking the hits in a target as Gilmore fired the new telescopic-sight rifle.

On the last shot, Brown stayed near the target, presumably out of range, Gilmore said. Brown's body was found behind the target, a bullet through his heart. The pair had planned to go hunting.

An inquest was scheduled for Monday, police said.

Salem—(U.P.)—Frank M. Parcher, emergency welfare officer for the Oregon civil defense agency, has accepted a position with the welfare office of the federal civil defense administration.

Navy Pilot Killed In Mid-Air Collision

Tracy, Calif.—(U.P.)—One Navy pilot was killed and another parachuted to safety when their jet fighters collided at 20,000 feet and crashed near here Thursday.

The California Highway Patrol identified the dead pilot as Lt. (JG) Glenn Crawford. His body was found in the wreckage of his plane which was torn by explosion as it smashed into the edge of an alfalfa field.

The surviving flyer, Lt. (JG) Ross H. Person, 26, of Alameda, Calif., parachuted to safety. His plane crashed near the Standard Oil pumping plant on the southwest side of town.

A Navy spokesman at Alameda Naval Air Station said the two F9F6 Cougar jets collided a few miles southwest of town while on a routine training mission.

High School News Notes

By NELLIE RAWLINGS

Parents relived their school days Nov. 10 as they took a turn at their sons' and daughters' schedules for a night. The choir and orchestra provided musical entertainment. The orchestra started with "Bugler's Holiday," featuring the cornet trio consisting of Bob Ayres, Dick Arnold and Dave Frohnmayer. Next, the choir came out with a lively rendition of "Dry Bones." In closing the combined group played and sang "Tribute to Romberg."

The Marshfield student body extended an invitation to Medford to attend the Sock Hop after the Friday night game.

RRNF Sales Total 57,000,000 Feet

Timber sold in the Rogue River National forest during the first three months of the fiscal year, July 1 to Sept. 30, totaled 57,000,000 board feet valued at $1,495,987.

Timber cut during the same period of time totaled 49,000,000 board feet valued at $585,803.

The sharp increase in the value of timber sold has been attributed to intense competition for the purchase of timber, according to regional forester J. Herbert Stone.

Sales in the entire Northwest region jumped to 1,050,000,000 board feet, an increase of 281,000,000 board feet over last fiscal year's first quarter sales.

Bus-Auto Crash Kills One, Hurts Six

Benson, Ariz.—(U.P.)—One woman was killed Thursday night when a bus carrying 19 members and two coaches of the Wickenburg, Ariz., high school football team collided with a car 11 miles west of here.

The Arizona Highway Patrol identified the dead woman as Patsy Weining, about 17 years old, an occupant of the car. She was reported en route from Houston, Tex., to join her husband, Fred, at Monterey, Calif.

Six members of the football team, en route here for a game with Benson, were hurt, but none were injured seriously. The bus was driven by Coach Ralph Moran, who said he swerved to avoid the car but was unable to do so. The driver of the car was identified as Cpl. Arthur D. Sloan, 22, of Camp Pendleton, Calif., in critical condition at Benson Hospital.

Student Leader Sets Visit at SOC Campus

Ashland — Stan Glass, president of the National Associated Students, and graduate of the University of Illinois, will be on the Southern Oregon college campus Monday, Nov. 14.

Glass has recently returned from a European trip and is now touring the United States visiting campuses of colleges and universities with the goal of assisting student governments and student leaders.

President Glass will arrive by plane from San Francisco Monday morning and will be met by student leaders and escorted to the SOC campus where a luncheon will be held in his honor at Susanne Homes hall.

To get students in the mood, red and black hats with the familiar words (as of the past week) "Beat Marshfield" printed on them sold for 5 cents apiece.

Medford High's roof moved a few inches off its roots Friday afternoon as the spirited Pen Team led the serpentine across the field to the stadium for an exciting Pep Assembly.

Loyal students crawled out of bed early on their day of vacation to give the team a big send-off as they left for the coast.

Driving classes are in session again as many non-drivers learn the art of operating a car. Students take this driving course during their study hall period.

I.R.L. will be host for the Southern Oregon Convention of I.R.L. clubs.

The club president, Marilyn Olson, has appointed the following committees: chairmen: Sandra Laing, invitations: Kay Christian, registrations: Deanna Campbell, programs: Jane Bash, decorations: Mira Frohnmayer, luncheon: Nancy McKeown, speakers: Bill Isaacs, refreshments: and John Van Dyke, program.

The topic for this year's convention will be African Nationalism. This topic will be subdivided and discussed by delegates from participating schools.

Regular varsity basketball practice started last week. Many junior and senior boys turned out for the opening practices. The MHS basketball team has made a good record for itself, with first place twice and second place four times in conference plays during the last six years.

A total of 372 cars make up Medford High's automobile population. Of this group, there are 127 daily and 145 occasional drivers.

Three Grocery Stores Held Up at Portland

Portland—(U.P.)—Three grocery stores were held up here Thursday night within a period of two hours, police reported.

Officers said two of the robberies occurred at Safeway stores with the bandit using the same technique. Each time the man dropped a number of bills as he left, apparently hoping to stop anyone who followed him. It wasn't revealed how much was taken, but at one store the bandit dropped more than $100.

Two men held up the Conley grocery at 6643 Southeast Harold st. It was the third holdup of the store this year. Owner Arthur Conley estimated loss at $14.50.

You buy a refrigerator only two or three times in your lifetime.

Yet you don't hesitate to buy one without getting so much as a look at the intricate "works" that makes it run.

How do you dare make such an important purchase without having an expert check it over for you? What makes you so sure you're getting your money's worth when you say, "I'll take that one?"

The answer's obvious. You look for the brand name on the refrigerator—your "guarantee." You've learned to follow this first rule of safe and sound buying:

A good brand is your best guarantee
No matter what kind of product you want to buy, you know a good brand won't let you down. You know the maker stands back of it—guarantees it. And so, when you buy a good brand you know you're right.

Read this newspaper to find out which are the good brands (and the stores that sell them.) The more good brands you know, the surer you are about all your shopping.
