Smith-Anderson Wedding Held in Methodist Church

Miss Geraldine Anderson became the bride of Clifford Dale Smith in a double ring ceremony read November 5 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The rites were held at the First Methodist church. Officiating was Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb assisted by Charles P. Anderson, an uncle of the bride from the First Methodist church at Marquam, Ore.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Anderson, route 1, box 465, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale F. Smith, live at Gold Hill.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The gown was designed with a Queen Anne collar and her veil was held with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums with a white orchid.

Miss Carole Anderson, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Her gown was of lavender taffeta in ballerina length and she carried a bouquet of pansy purple chrysanthemums.

Bridesmatron was Mrs. Fred Hogue, who wore a lavender taffeta gown and carried pansy purple chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Miss Gayle Childress, whose gown and flowers matched that of Mrs. Hogue; Miss Pat Carlson and Miss Karen Johnson, whose gowns were of pansy purple taffeta. Their matching bouquets were of lavender colored flowers.

Marleene Wright, a cousin of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. Her gown was of pansy purple taffeta and her flowers were lavender chrysanthemums.

Connie Hanscom, Central Point, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her organy floor length gown was lavender with white embroidered flowers.

Jimmy Anderson, a brother of the bride, carried the rings.

Kenneth Bailey, Gold Hill, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Seating the guests were Don Goyette, Central Point, Fred Hogue, Bobby Lance and Dick Davis, also of Central Point.

The candle lighters were Beverly and Sharon Wright, cousins of the bridegroom. Their gowns were of lavender taffeta and they wore wristlets of pansy purple chrysanthemums.

White and lavender chrysanthemums were used for decorations and also were used to mark the pews. Mrs. Charles P. Anderson, an aunt of the bride, sang and was accompanied by Mrs. Jerry Sherman at the organ.

About 200 persons were guests at the wedding and about 150 attended the reception held in the dining room of the church. Chrysanthemums also were used to decorate the reception rooms.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a champagne colored brocaded dress of tunic design with ice blue accessories. Mrs. Smith wore a blue-grey dressmaker suit with red acces-

Ceremony In Medford Weds Couple

Miss Janet Marie Wisely became the bride of Gilbert Forrest Liddell in a ceremony held Sunday, November 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Dike, 728 West Jackson street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wisely, 724 West Jackson street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. A. Gamsby, San Francisco, and Forrest B. Liddell, 712 South Newtown street.

Dr. Raymond Balcomb of First Methodist church read the marriage ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon. Forty guests attended.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a two-piece navy blue knit suit with white angora trim, white accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums. She was attended by a sister, Mrs. J. L. Acker, who wore a suit of avocado green with white accessories and her flowers were gold colored chrysanthemums.

David Wisely, brother of the bride, was best man for Mr. Liddell and Jim Peart was usher.

Mrs. Wisely wore a dark lavender pleated dress with accessories of lighter lavender and a corsage of white chrysanthemums. Mrs. William E. Cohee, the bridegroom's sister, wore a black suit with corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

The reception which followed was given by the Wiselys in the Dike home, which had been decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Cohee poured and Mrs. Robert Pfaff cut the wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Liddell are traveling in California for their wedding trip and will live in San Diego where the bridegroom is stationed with the United States Navy. He attended Medford schools and was graduated from Medford High school before entering the Navy.

The bride, who also attended Medford schools and was graduated from Medford High school, has been a mail clerk for The California-Oregon Power company.

series. Both had corsages of white carnations.

The couple made a wedding trip to southern California and Nevada and returned November 9 to live for the present at 423 1/2 Berrydale ave.

The bride and her family have lived in this vicinity for about 12 years and the bridegroom and his family have lived their entire lives at Gold Hill.

The bride is a senior student at Crater High school and the bridegroom also attended Crater High school. He is employed as a log truck driver by Ike Orr.

Beulah Harkey, William Garrett Wedded Recently

Among recent weddings was that of Miss Beulah Mae Harkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Harkey, Ashland, to William David Garrett, Rogue River.

The ceremony took place October 29 at the home of the bridegroom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barrow in Grants Pass, with the Rev. M. Homer Thompson of the Ashland Assembly of God church officiating.

The bride's white satin wedding gown was fashioned ballerina length and worn with white nylon gloves and silver ballerina slippers. Her veil was shoulder length and she carried white gardenias. The bride was given in marriage by both her father and mother.

Miss Della Hughes, maid-of-honor, wore a pink satin ballerina length gown with pink hat and gardenia corsage.

Elmer Garrett, Grants Pass, was best man for his cousin, Carol Barrows and Nina Harkey, cousin and sister of the bride and bridegroom, lighted the candles.

Pink and white asters and ferns decorated the Barrow home for the service.

Mrs. M. Homer Thompson sang, accompanied by Miss Dortha Mills.

The reception for about 80 guests was given by Mrs. Barrows at her home.

Both the bride and bridegroom have lived in southern Oregon all their lives. The bride attended school in Ashland and the bridegroom, who attended school in Grants Pass, is a salesman for Norfield shoe store in Medford.

The newlyweds are living at 503 1/4 South Oakdale avenue in Medford.

Three Concerts Announced By Philharmonic Society

The Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon has planned three concerts for the 1955-56 season. They will be held at Medford Senior High school auditorium on November 27, December 29 and March 25, all Sunday afternoons, according to Richard D. Werner, director. Program time will be 3 o'clock.

Sunday afternoons were chosen as a convenient time for a greater number of people and in the event of inclement weather, such as fog, afternoon programs enable members of the orchestra from out of town and the audience to return home at an earlier hour.

The programs will consist of standard symphonic works in the orchestral repertoire and some of the lighter compositions of the great masters. Mr. Werner states. Soloists will be featured at each concert.

John Drysdale is personnel director of the society. Tod Tibbitt is business manager and

Central Point Pair Plan Open House

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Glass, 322 North Third street, Central Point, will hold open house Sunday, November 20 from 2 to 5 p.m., in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to call on them.

Mrs. Glass has lived in this vicinity since she was 11 years old and Mr. Glass has lived here for many years.

Mrs. Eunice Jones, Central Point, a daughter, will be hostess for the event.

Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thorn-dike and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Nye were hosts for a dinner party last Friday evening. Guests were invited to the Nye home on West Tenth street.

Mrs. Tom Popham is president of the Philharmonic Society guild. The guild will assist with the sale of tickets, and Mrs. Popham announces that season tickets will be $3 for adults and $1.50 for students. Anyone desiring tickets may call Mrs. Popham at 2-5330 or buy them at Purucker's Music store or the Music Mart.
