

District Officer Visits Auxiliary; Observance Held

Rogue River — Mrs. Thomas Lafferty, president of District No. 7, was an official visitor at a meeting of Rogue River VFW Auxiliary November 4. Other visitors were Mrs. Ivan Lusk, president, and Mrs. Richard Schulz, of the Medford Auxiliary.

The auxiliary sent a contribution to the national fund for the establishment of an American Museum of Immigration at the foot of the statue of liberty.

Hostesses for the meeting, Mrs. Orvis and Mrs. Howard Baker, served refreshments. A social night is planned November 18 with a potluck dinner set for 6:30.

Veterans' day was observed by post and auxiliary members in a brief ceremony preceding a game on the school football field. Members of the teams and students also participated. Commander Leyen and Superintendent John Harr arranged the program.

Open House was held for all veterans and their families of Rogue River, and refreshments were served.

Sorority Chapter Has First Session. Members of Epsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma will meet Saturday, November 19 at 4:30 p.m., at the Medford hotel for a business meeting and initiation ceremonies.

Banquet Ends Year for Women Golfers At Rogue Valley Club; Election Held

Women's Golf association of Rogue Valley Country club concluded the season Tuesday evening with a gala banquet held in the main dining room of the club house.

After the social hour and dinner a short business meeting was held. The candidates for officers presented by the nominating committee were unanimously elected and Mrs. Warren Lesseg, the retiring president, presented her gavel to Mrs. Ray Frisbie.

Prizes were presented for the fall handicap tournament and club championship tournament and the last month's play. Trophies will be presented to women golfers at the third annual presentation night buffet dinner to be held at the club Friday evening, November 25.

Both men and women golfers will receive their trophies for the year at this event.

The retiring board presented a clock to the group for the ladies' locker room and a gift was presented to Mrs. Lesseg, the past president.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by association members. Mrs. Sam Colton and Mrs. L. C. Burt presented a pantomime sketch. Mrs. Fred Conrad sang and a group song was presented by Mrs. W. S. Davies, Mrs. Ed Milne, Mrs. Ray Sorenson, Mrs. Reese Alexander and Mrs. Ted Groomes.

The decorations were the work of Mrs. Royal Bebb and her committee.

Sojourners Give Dinner, Dance In Ashland Club

Over 900 members and their guests attended a dinner and dance given by the Medford Sojourners club November 10 at the Ashland Elks club. A cocktail hour preceded the dinner and dancing followed with music furnished by John Lusk and his orchestra.

Veterans' day was the theme used for decorations and flags were used as centerpieces. Bouquets of white pom pom chrysanthemums and candles decorated the dinner tables.

Hostesses were Mrs. George Lovenborg, Mrs. Lawrence McConnell, Mrs. Meredith Parsons, Mrs. Earl Crisman, Mrs. Thomas William, Mrs. William Riley and the club president, Mrs. John Mansfield.

The next meeting of the Sojourners will be November 17 at 1 p.m., in the Medford hotel. Newcomers are invited to attend and to become members.

League Director Guest in Medford; Meeting Planned

Mrs. Charles E. Ford, Eugene, an elected director of the Oregon League of Women Voters, spent Tuesday in the area conferring with local league officials. She was a guest of Mrs. Fred Carr, 16 Florence avenue.

The state chairman of continuing responsibilities, Mrs. Ford discussed the league's coming program with board members Tuesday night at a meeting at the home of Mrs. John Day.

Mrs. Carr will also be hostess Wednesday at 9:45 a.m. to the morning study group of the league. Mrs. Irving Thomas will lead the discussion on "Security Hearings."
