Plans Announced For Kindergarten

Rogue River—A group of mothers from Evans Valley and Rogue River met last Monday with Mrs. LeRoy Buck and organized a kindergarten for children aged 4 to 6 years. It will be known as the Rogue River Co-operative Kindergarten and will be conducted in the Fellowship hall back of Hope Presbyterian church. School hours will be 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday. Mrs. Buck will be the teacher. Any one desiring to enroll a child may contact her at Route 1, Box 240, Rogue River, or by telephone, 2-3590. The present enrollment is 17 and up to 24 children can be accommodated under the present arrangements.

Since this is a new venture there is a lack of working material such as indoor or outdoor toys, furniture, books, records and puzzles. Mrs. Buck states. Persons having any of these articles to donate are asked to contact Mrs. Buck. Another meeting is planned for November 14, and anyone interested in this project will be welcome to attend.

Elk-Trail PTA Adopts Budget At Last Session

Elk-Trail—Several matters of interest to Elk-Trail Parent Teachers association were transacted during a meeting November 4 in the school cafeteria.

The budget for next year was presented by Mrs. Oscar Hanson and accepted. Mrs. Leroy Draper reported on a well baby clinic held at the school. Seventh and eighth grade students have started a Christmas card sale to raise money for uniforms for the basketball team. Parents are asked to cooperate by purchasing cards.

The afternoon program was composed of songs, skits and poems presented by the second grade students under direction of their teacher, Mrs. Alice Greenley.

Refreshments were served by mothers of the fifth and sixth grade and prior to the meeting children in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades introduced and entertained their mothers in their classrooms.

Mrs. Lee Merriman's third grade students presented "Cinderella," and fourth, fifth and sixth grades gave historical accounts of the 15th and 16th century explorers. Mrs. James Sawyer instructs fourth grade and Mrs. Arthur Moore is the teacher for fifth and sixth grades.

Mrs. Arthur Hume, president, presided for the meeting and Mrs. Albert Johnson offered the invocation. New members were introduced by Mrs. William Wilson, hospitality chairman.

Dental Assistants Postpone Session; Delegates Report

The November meeting of Southern Oregon Dental Assistants society planned for Thanksgiving week will be postponed, the date, place and program to be announced to members by mail, officers said last week.

At a recent meeting of the society held at Camp White employees club, reports of a national convention were given by Mrs. Sybil Prescott, Grants Pass, state president. Mrs. Irene Culy, alternate delegate, spoke regarding the entertainment at the convention which included tours, luncheons, teas and a banquet that honored the national president, Mrs. Ruth Doring.

Mrs. Marion Lusk gave a report on table clinics some of which were put on by members of the local society. Mrs. Sybil Prescott, Mrs. Frances Dempster and Mrs. Lucille Wilson presented a clinic entitled, "Miss Proper and Miss Improper." Mrs. Culy and Mrs. Frances Rutter, the latter president of the local group, presented the clinic, "Have You Tried This?"

Mothers to Hear Convention Report

Mrs. Rex Note, department president of the Blue Star Mothers of America, will give a report of the 14th annual national convention of the group held recently in Detroit, Mich., during a meeting of the local chapter Thursday, November 17. The session will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the Carpenters union local hall, 123 West Main street.

Mrs. Carl B. Leonard, Detroit, was elected national president during the convention succeeding Mrs. Irwin Hoffman of Columbus, O.

Among business discussed was the fact that the mothers plan to petition congress to amend the GI bill of rights to give Indian servicemen, whether on reservation or off, the same benefits other American veterans are entitled to. They endorsed a resolution to that effect.

They also voted to expand the agency fund. The fund aids veterans hospitalized in isolated sections of the country. The broader scope voted will cover more hospitals and give more service to patients.
