New York — (U.P.) — Fraley's Follies and the week end football "winners"—a real testimonial to the "Do It Yourself" clan.

Game of The Week

Michigan over Ohio State — This is one of those anything can happen ball games but Michigan has two items in its favor. One is that it is playing at home. The other, that it has the incentive because victory here takes it to the Rose Bowl. It makes for a two touchdown difference.

The East

Yale over Harvard — Boola Boola.

Pitt over Penn State — And watch 'em next year.

Princeton over Dartmouth—A new club with Flippin.

West Virginia over Syracuse —The big bounce back.

Also: Columbia over Rutgers, Delaware over Bucknell, Lehigh over Layfayette, Albright over Scranton, Boston U. over Temple, Holy Cross over Connecticut, Gettysburg over F&M, and Houston over Villanova.

The Midwest

Notre Dame over Iowa—Traditionally tough or not.

Wisconsin over Minnesota — They had their upset.

Purdue over Indiana — One of those things.

Illinois over Northwestern — A gallop.

Also: Michigan State over Marquette, Oklahoma over Nebraska, Missouri over Kansas, Colorado over Iowa State and Kansas State over Oklahoma Aggies.

The West

UCLA over Southern Cal — With Michigan next.

Oregon over Oregon State — A squeaker.

Washington over Washington State —Not a squeaker.

Stanford over California —Ho, hum.

Also: Arizona over New Mexico, Colorado Aggies over Brigham Young, Denver over Wyoming and Idaho over Montana.

The South

Miami over Alabama— Remember the good old days?

Maryland over George Washington — Orange juice.

Tennessee over Kentucky — White lightning over bourbon.

Auburn over Clemson — Not too easy.

Also: Duke over Wake Forest, North Carolina over Virginia, Vanderbilt over Florida and North Carolina State over William and Mary.

The Southwest

Arkansas over LSU— With the right bounce.

Baylor over SMU— Can go either way.

TCU over Rice — Bowling along.

Texas Tech over COP—Tough trip makes a difference.

Detroit over Tulsa— Waddaya mean, why?

Pittsburgh, Tech In Forefront as Sugar Bowl Foes

New Orleans — (U.P.) — Pittsburgh and Georgia Tech today moved to the forefront as the teams most likely to meet in the Sugar Bowl football classic here Jan. 1.

But both selections hinged on a number of "ifs."

Sugar Bowl officials, who saw Pittsburgh spill West Virginia from the bowl road last Saturday, came away with glowing praise for the Panthers, a team that blossomed this year after several mediocre seasons.

Although beaten by Oklahoma, Navy and Miami this season, Pittsburgh seems to be climbing back towards the pinnacle of the 1937 team that spilled Washington in the Rose Bowl.

The big "if" for Sugar Bowlers will be the Panthers' performance this Saturday against Penn State. A Sugar Bowl bid for Pitt could well ride on the outcome.

Georgia Tech of the Southeastern Conference seems headed for its third appearance in the Sugar Bowl. Mississippi could take the SEC crown, but the Rebels, beaten here last year by Navy, 21-0, appear to be eyeing the Cotton Bowl with favor, especially if Texas Christian is the host team.

However, Tech, which has lost to Auburn and has a tie with Tennessee, could be ousted under the right conditions by surprising Vanderbilt or Tennessee.

Art Luppino Near Second Rushing Toga

New York — (U.P.) — Art Luppino, Arizona's stocky speedster, was on the verge today of becoming the first player in history to win the major college football rushing title for the second year in a row.

A 200-yard performance against Montana Saturday kept Luppino, a 170-pound junior from La Jolla, Calif., 20 yards ahead of Texas Christian's Jim Swink, whose one-man show against Texas produced 235 yards, single game high of the year.

Luppino, who won last year's rushing title with a total of 1,359 yards, is only 78 yards from bettering the greatest total ever compiled by a player over two seasons, and only 25 yards from the highest figure ever set in two consecutive years. Rudy Mobley of Hardin-Simmons gained 2,543 yards in rushing in 1942 and 1946, and Howard Waugh of Tulsa gained 2,490 in back-to-back performances during 1951 and 1952.

Cassaday Third

Howard (Hopalong) Cassaday of Ohio State moved into third place with 812 yards gained rushing and was followed by Bob James of Auburn with 728 yards and Len Moore of Penn State with 687.

Columbia's Claude Benham returned to the passing lead he held six weeks ago by competing 17 out of 35 aerials against Navy. Benham now has completed 87 passes in 180 attempts. Len Dawson of Purdue ranks second with 78 out of 139 and George Welsh of Navy third with 76 out of 122.

Welsh, the Middies' All-America quarterback candidate, heads the total offense department for the second straight week with 1,163 yards gained in eight games. Luppino is runnerup with 1,106 yards and Swink third with 1,086 yards. Jerry Riechow of Iowa, who has gained a total of 1,109 yards and Benham, with 977 yards, round out the top five.

GAL BETTERS RECORD

Moscow—(U.P.)—Galina Zybina of Russia bettered her own world shot put record Tuesday with a toss of 54 feet, eight inches.

Norton Smith Elected President Of County Izaak Walton Chapter

Norton Smith was named president of the Jackson County chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America at a chapter session Monday night at the Jackson hotel.

Smith, sales manager for Smith-Dynge Lumber company, is first lieutenant in the Air Force reserve and is a graduate of University of Oregon. The new president, an ardent fisherman, succeeds Col. Paul Weiland. He has served as secretary during the past year.

The chapter also named Tom Rickard, secretary; Bob Webber, treasurer; Weiland, state director; Ken Wonderley, vice-president for soil; John Gribble, vice president for woods; Dale Flowers, vice president for waters, and Rickard, vice president for wildlife. Frank Applin, Duke Guile, Bill Thorndike, Weiland and Rickard were elected to the board of directors.

Chairmen Named

Committee chairmen chosen were Applin, resolutions; Pete Bowman, nominations; Guile, membership; John Connolly, legislation; Tom McLeod, public relations and publicity; and Thorndike, conservation education.

Rickard is Crown mills' southern Oregon representative. Treasurer of the Rogue Valley Retriever club, he spends much of his spare time training dogs, fishing and hunting. He served as Walton chapter treasurer a year ago. Webber, an accomplished fly fisherman, is a lumber buyer and wholesaler for Robert P. Templeton Lumber company. He was chapter secretary a year ago.

Louis L. Simpson, Southern Oregon Tree Farm Association forester, practices of tree harvesting, with special emphasis on Jackson and Josephine county.

The chapter will send Smith and Weiland to the state convention November 25, 26 and 27 at Bend.

Charlie Caldwell Mentor of Week

Princeton, N. J. —(U.P.)— He was sure he could make it as a big league ball player that day in 1925 when he walked into the dugout of the New York Yankees.

But to his great disillusionment, the veteran players, even Babe Ruth, laughed at him. In those days, he said, they didn't think much of college players. So he gave up the idea of being a ball player. Baseball's loss was football's gain for he has brought his Alma Mater some of its greatest teams.

He's the United Press Coach of the Week, cheerful Charlie Caldwell of Princeton's Tigers who scored one of Saturday's most resounding upsets, 13-0 over Yale in one of those long-standing and bitter traditional battles.

McLoughlin Grid Banquet Friday

McLaughlin junior high eighth and ninth grade football teams will banquet at 6:30 p.m. Friday, November 18 in the school cafeteria.

The dinner will be a potluck affair with Mrs. Genive Gray, head cook at the school, in charge of the serving.

Movies of the team were taken at every game this year and these will be shown at the dinner. McLoughlin coaches at the dinner will be Mel Boldenow, Bill Shepherd and Bob Williams. Special guests will include Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford schools; Lee Ragsdale, supervisor of physical education in the school system, and Fred Spiegelberg, Medford high head football coach.

Seven Washington Hunters Rescued

Dayton, Wash. — (U.P.) — The Washington State Game department and the U.S. Forest Service yesterday combined to save eight western Washington hunters who had been stranded at Table Rock, a 7,000-foot peak 36 miles south of Dayton.

The rescued hunters were Sam Carpenter, E. G. Shields, Douglas Childs, Larry Senhard, Clyde B. Sallie, all of Anacortes, and W. W. Gaut, L. E. Barnes, and K. G. Smith, all of Vancouver.

The hunting party was camped at Table Rock with little food and insufficient firewood to combat the minus 10-degree weather.

The rescue party under direction of State Game Protector Fred Wiltse of Dayton and Ben A. Little of Walla Walla started early Monday for Goodman Springs with heavy road equipment and cleared the Skyline road for 12 miles. It then proceeded the rest of the way on snow shoes.

Game officials said they were on the alert for other marooned hunting parties.

Cas Taken To Hospital

Eugene—(U.P.)—Len Casanova, football coach at University of Oregon, was held overnight at Sacred Heart hospital for observation for appendicitis.

Hospital physicians said results of tests should be known today to help determine whether or not surgery would be necessary.

Casanova, whose Oregon Ducks meet Oregon State here Saturday in a traditional seasons-end rivalry, was stricken yesterday morning at his home.

Assistant coach Jack Roche took command of the Webfoot football squad in Casanova's absence.

Chuck Spieser Choice in Bout

Chicago — (U.P.) —Light heavyweight Chuck Spieser, even though he has had only 19 pro tests, was a five to two favorite today to beat veteran Paddy Young in the Chicago stadium tonight and probably improve his ninth place ranking among the 175 pounders.

It will be Young's fourth start as a light heavyweight after 60 bouts as a middleweight, and only his fourth fight in 1955. Young decisioned Tony Johnson and Jesse Turner in 175 pound scraps before he lost to Willie Pastrano.

Spieser, too, was beaten by Pastrano, but since then scored a fifth round knockout over Willie Troy to become one of the top ten in the NBA ratings. He was favored also because he was far more impressive against Pastrano even in defeat, than was Young.

PCC Rose Bowl Entrant To Be Named Monday

Los Angeles —(U.P.)— Formal announcement of the Pacific Coast conference representative to the 1956 Rose Bowl game can be expected Monday, PCC Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt said today.

Schmidt said the nine member institutions will vote for the PCC representative Monday.

The two teams highest in contention for the PCC bid are UCLA and Oregon State. The outcome of their games this Saturday can have a strong bearing on which may be picked.

The PCC season will be completed Saturday. The University of Southern California plays a post-season game on Nov. 26 against Notre Dame.

GAVILAN TO FRANCE

New York — (U.P.) — Former welterweight champion Kid Gavilan will invade France early next year and is being considered for a fight in Paris, Jan. 21, Lew Borston of the International Boxing Club stated Tuesday upon his return from Europe. "Gavilan will meet the winner of a bout between Clause Milazzo and another French middleweight," Burston said.

HALL OF FAME

Chicago —(U.P.)— The late Leo Diegel, who won the PGA championship in 1928 and 1929, today was elected to the "Golf Hall of Fame." Diegel, who died in 1951, also won the Canadian Open four times and was a four-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup team.
