Corvallis — (U.P.) — Ron Siegrist, co-captain and quarterback of Oregon State's title-aspiring football team, hoped today to be able to play against Oregon at Eugene Saturday despite a shotgun wound in the leg.

Siegrist was accidentally wounded while hunting with two friends and was standing by a car when the accidental blast was fired. The shot went through a car door before striking Siegrist, who was wearing thick rubber boots.

Coach Tommy Prothro said whether Siegrist plays depends upon response to treatment today and tomorrow.

Reports indicated that Siegrist was duck hunting with two friends and was standing by a car when the accidental blast was fired. The shot went through a car door before striking Siegrist, who was wearing thick rubber boots.

Oregon State could win the PCC title this weekend by beating Oregon should UCLA lose to Southern Cal, since the Beavers have played one more conference game. But UCLA likely would get the Rose Bowl nod because of its 38-0 trouncing of the Beavers earlier.

PCL Directors Delay Action on Claire Goodwin

Sacramento, Calif. — (U.P.) — Directors of the Pacific Coast league have agreed to take no action on the resignation of Claire Goodwin as league president until Nov. 27.

On that date, the PCL will meet in Columbus, O. along with the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

Fred David, president of the Sacramento Solons, and a PCL director, said the decision to defer action on Goodwin was unanimous on the part of all the directors.

He said there was still a possibility that the directors might ask Goodwin to stay on.

"If we were going to ask him for his resignation, we would have done it at our meeting in Vancouver," he said.

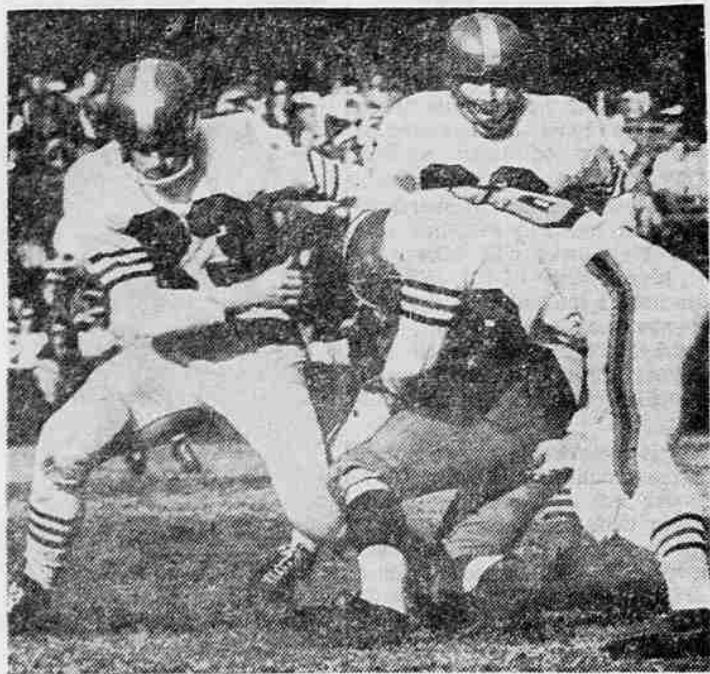

David added, however, that from his conversations with other league directors it appeared that Chicago attorney Leslie O'Connor was the top candidate for the job. He said he talked by telephone yesterday with O'Connor, who said he would "consider" the job if the league asked him to take it.

David also indicated there was some sentiment favoring Jerry Donovan, league secretary, for the post.

SOC Smoker Card Headed By Crippen

Ashland — Steve Crippen, popular PAL Club amateur boxer from Medford, will be featured in the main event of the annual Lettermen's club smoker, at Memorial Court, Southern Oregon college, November 18, at 8 p.m. Crippen will take on Merle Deets, ex-army fighter from Ashland in the final bout.

The SOC Lettermen have scheduled 10 events on their program, including some of the finest boxers ever to appear in the Rogue Valley. In the semi-final bout, Dick Lopez, AAU light-heavyweight champion of the state of Texas, will box Paul Sherier, a member of the SOC boxing team in pre-war days.

In the special feature event, Bill McLean, three-sport letterman at the college, will take on Ron Maurer, another three-sport man who has just returned from the service, where he played football for the Fort Ord Warriors.

Another special event will feature two 200-pound tackles from the SOC football team, Herb Colley, Central Point, and Dick Smith, Reedsport, who should provide fans with a good heavy-weight boxing bout.

Spieser Gets TKO Victory

Chicago — (U.P.) — Light heavy-weight Chuck Spieser had only one target today, a rematch with third ranked Willie Pastrano, after his convincing second round technical knockout of Paddy Young in the Chicago stadium Television fight.

"I don't know where we'll make it," Spieser's manager Hec Knowles, said. "Maybe New Orleans. But we'll fight him anywhere we can get him and see how it comes out."

Spieser lost a 10-round decision to the 20-year-old Pastrano earlier this year, but both the fighter and most of the 1,411 observers rated the Detroit, Mich., scrapper "greatly improved" on his performance against Young.

Down Four Times
Young was lucky and connected with the left hook, in the first round, and the blow didn't seem to phase Spieser. He floored the New Yorker, who suffered his 12th defeat in 64 pro bouts, four times before the battle was ended with a technical knockout finish at 2:45 of the second.

Spieser put Young on the deck with a left hook in the first round and in the second session floored him three times before Referee Frank Gilmer stopped

Portland — (U.P.) — The Portland Traction company yesterday received a three-point "ultimatum" from Public Utilities Commissioner Nate Boody.

The city council last month backed Boody in his refusal to recommend a 10-year franchise renewal for the firm.

Boody set up three courses for continuing a mass transit system here. One would call for the Portland Transit company, which owns the traction company, to reorganize to give local control to the traction company. Another would be for the transit company to set a price at which it will sell the traction company to local ownership.

Or, Boody said, he would give the go-ahead to undisclosed investors who he said were ready and able to start a new mass transit system.

He said such a program has been overdue for nearly 20 years.

He pointed out that the 1929 depression, World War II and the Korean conflict strained the nation's resources and halted development of national parks.
