Direct Talks Urged For German Unity

Bonn, Germany—UP—A West German Socialist leader today demanded direct negotiations with Communist East Germany to promote reunification of the divided nation.

Carlo Schmid, Socialist foreign policy expert, accompanied Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Moscow in September. As foreign affairs spokesman for West Germany's second largest party, his statement emphasized the widening gap among the parties here following the failure of the Geneva foreign ministers conference.

Even the Paris agreements linking the Federal Republic to Western defense must be reconsidered if reunification is to be achieved, the Socialist deputy said in a radio speech.
