She left her home on August 17, and comes to Medford after visiting Nydia temple, Portland. The order's supreme monarch took her first supreme office, that of Badoura, at the session held in Portland in 1952. She has two grown sons, one a missionary in Africa and the other a minister in Boston.

After the ceremonial on Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Reter and Mrs. Rocho will be Thanksgiving dinner guests of the Reter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker. On Thanksgiving morning, Mrs. Reter Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, and Mrs. Rocho will drive to San Francisco.

Talent Schools To Give Concert

Talent—The annual fall concert of Talent schools will be presented by the school band Monday, November 21 at 8 p.m., in the gymnasium. Ralph Carroll, band director, will present the students.

An effort has been made to appeal to everyone's preferences in music and the program will include marches, overtures, a tone poem, a selection by a modern contemporary composer, a rhapsody and a blues selection. No charge will be made for the program and everyone who enjoys music is invited. Donations will be accepted for the band fund, however.

Humorist Booked For Knife-Fork

Bob Ringer, Hollywood humorist, will be the next speaker before the Rogue Valley Knife and Fork club at Rogue Valley Country club. He is to be here Monday, December 5 and reservations from members will be accepted no later than Dec. 3.

The reservations with checks should be mailed to the club secretary, Mrs. O. A. Eden, 211 Genessee street.

Mr. Ringer is author of "The Key to Adventurous Living," and is said to be a humorist of growing popularity. Press releases point out that he provides clean wholesome entertainment, and believes the busy businessman and housewife can do a better job and live longer by making fun a part of their daily life.

Civic Music Schedule Announced

The 1955-56 Jackson County Civic Music association schedule was announced last week. Membership cards and concert schedules are being mailed according to Seth M. Bullis, chairman. Because of conflicting dates in making arrangements for the artists to appear here, some changes have been made.

The first concert will be Friday, December 2 when the noted baritone, Thomas L. Thomas, will sing.

The Zurich Little Symphony orchestra will play Friday, January 2, the American Piano Trio will appear; Thursday, February 23, the Winged Victory chorus will sing here and March 13, Maurice Wilk, violinist will appear in concert.

Violinist To Play for Concert Here

Richard D. Werner, Medford violinist, will be soloist for the first concert of the 1955-56 season of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon. The concert is set for Sunday, November 27, at Medford Senior High school auditorium. It will begin at 3 p.m.

Mr. Werner will play Beethoven's "Romance in G" with John Drysdale of the orchestra replacing him as conductor for that number. He will also play a group of three numbers with Bruno Pellegrini as piano accompanist.

The group will consist of "Romance" by Paganini; a Brahms waltz and "Mazurka Bravura" by Musin.

Final rehearsal for the concert will be held Wednesday, November 23 at 8 p.m. at Washington school.

Three concerts are planned for the season, and both season and single tickets are being sold. These may be secured from Purucker's Piano house, the Music Mart or from members of the Philharmonic Society guild, headed by Mrs. Tom Popham.

The next concert is planned for January 29.

Two Couples Hosts For Large Party

The annual gay round of winter parties has already started in the Rogue valley.

One of the largest of the pre-holiday parties was given last Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell. The event was at the University club between six and eight o'clock, and the two couples invited about 300 guests for cocktails.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vannice, Grants Pass, but inclement weather prevented other out-of-town guests from being present.

Guild Organizes New Unit Here; Name Selected

A new unit of Wesleyan Service guild for First Methodist church, Medford, held its first meeting Tuesday, November 15 at the home of Mrs. Rex Note, 32 Hamilton street. Mrs. A. C. James was hostess and dessert was served at 7:30 p.m. to 11 members and two guests, Mrs. C. R. Adamson, Medford, of the Eugene district of the guild, and Mrs. Alice Berry, Boise, Ida.

Formation of this new unit was necessary because of conflicting meeting dates of other organizations. Several members of Ruth Esther unit transferred to the new guild.

The new unit will be known as "Gladamson" unit, having been named for Mrs. Gladys (C. R.) Adamson, the district secretary.
