

Grand Officers To Visit Bethel

Mrs. Velma Joy Green, Portland, grand guardian for the International Order of Job's Daughters in Oregon, and Roy Colburn, Roseburg, associate grand guardian, will visit Bethel 55 in Medford, Tuesday, November 22. The meeting will be held at the Pythian hall on North Grape street at 7:30 p.m.

Honored Queen Sheila Spence and her corps of officers will initiate a group of six candidates. Parents of the candidates and all persons of proper Masonic affiliation are invited to attend.

Refreshments will follow the meeting.

Mrs. Everett Faber, Central Point, vice-grand guardian for Oregon, and Mr. Faber will go to Roseburg this afternoon to attend a reception which will honor Mr. Colburn. The event is sponsored by Bethel 8, Roseburg, and Bethel 18, Myrtle Point, Mr. Colburn being a past associate guardian of both Bethels.

Last Monday Mrs. Faber was in Portland to attend a banquet which honored Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Seher, Milwaukie, Wis. Mrs. Seher is supreme guardian of Job's Daughters, and Mr. Seher is chairman of the supreme jurisprudence committee.

Earlier in the month Mrs. Faber was in Sacramento for the 31st annual grand guardian council meeting for California. There are 288 Bethels in California.

Rogue River Club To Hold Bazaar

Rogue River—Members of the Rogue River Garden club plan to make Christmas cheer boxes for shut-ins in addition to giving a complete dinner for Christmas to a worthy family. Plans for these and a Christmas bazaar were made during a meeting November 15 at the home of Mrs. F. M. Shontz.

Mrs. Marie Terpening and Mrs. Willard Tenney were co-hostesses.

Guests were Mrs. A. A. Dixon, Mrs. Kenneth Laurence, Mrs. Ralph York and Mrs. Russell Munsell. Eighteen members were at the meeting.

Mrs. H. D. Weed won a prize and roll call was answered by giving garden tips.

Table, mantle and tree decorations were brought to the meeting for the bazaar which will be held December 10 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall in Rogue River from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. A silver tea will be held in connection.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party with exchange of gifts Tuesday, December 20 at the home of Mrs. Carl Christensen, Highway 99 South.

Service Weds Miss Hapes, Frank Lee

Asland — Miss Karen Lea Hapes and Frank Jay Lee were wedded Saturday, November 5, the birthday anniversary of the bridegroom. The 8 o'clock evening ceremony was performed by candlelight at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Plankenhorn, in Valleyview.

Eldon Holmes, Central Point, another uncle, read the rites. About 35 guests attended.

Miss Kay Holmes, Central Point, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Terry D. Lee, a brother of the bridegroom, came from Tribune, Kan., to serve as best man.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hapes, live at Garden City, Kan., where the bride attended high school and the bridegroom attended Junior college there. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy L. Lee, Tribune.

The bride's gown was of white velvet in street length and her fingertip veil was of net. She carried a bouquet of white and pink chrysanthemums. Mr. Plankenhorn gave her in marriage.

Miss Holmes wore a light green satin dress, also street length, and her bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums. She wore matching flowers in her hair.

The bouquets and corsages used at the wedding were made by Mrs. Charles Cushman of Trail, and the rooms of the Plankenhorn home were decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums.

During the reception, also held at the home, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Plankenhorn, received the guests, and Mrs. Eldon Holmes cut the wedding cake. Miss Sheila Dione served punch and Mrs. William Moore poured coffee.

The couple drove to Auburn, Calif., for their wedding trip.

They are living in Valleyview. The bride is a secretary at Bear Creek orchards and the bridegroom is employed at the Talent sawmill.

Soprano to Sing Recital Numbers

Singing an aria from "Lakme," Miss Nancy Conroy, soprano, and Miss Carol Conway, mezzo-soprano, will appear in duet at a St. Cecilia's day recital at Marylhurst college this evening. Miss Conroy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McKinley, 1102 W. Ninth street, and a sophomore at college. Miss Conway is a senior from Portland.

Besides the operatic number, Miss Conroy will sing a group of three songs with the 40-voice college chorus of which she is a member. The group has chosen a motet by Ravanello, the Brahms "Ave Maria," and a Negro exaltation, "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands."

Medford Zonta Club Holds Annual Anniversary Dinner

The 36th anniversary of the founding of Zonta international and the 19th anniversary of Medford Zonta club were observed by a dinner at the Medford hotel Tuesday night.

Miss Josephine Kirtley, chairman of the international relations committee, was toastmistress for the evening. The Zonta blessing led by Mrs. Oletha Olson and Zonta song by all members opened the celebration.

Mrs. Hazel Platz gave the Zonta International history, telling of the formation of the first clubs for executive and professional women. She said there are now 312 clubs in 13 countries some of which are Chile, Denmark, France, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, England and The Philippines.

Mrs. Eileen Meek accompanied by Mrs. Lorraine Evensen sang three vocal solos. A large birthday cake decorated in the club's colors of mahogany and gold was presented to the group by the president, Mrs. Effie Kurtz.

Mrs. George Flanagan, guest speaker, illustrated her talk "Today's Germany" with colored slides which she and her family had taken on her recent trip to Europe. The speaker opened her talk by explaining that her friendship with 49 German families which originally began through Care packages in 1949 resulted in a trip to Europe in 1955 to visit 21 out of the original number.

Mrs. Flanagan was glad to report that marked improvement was made during the interval of her first correspondence with the families until she visited them. Her colored slides showed the members of the families as she told a little of their family history. The concluding slides were of several other European countries visited at that time.
