TURKEY TURNS TABLES—Troy Prichard, 3½, better follow 4½-year-old sister Tracy's tracks as she takes off from pursuing gobbler. A moment later Mr. Turkey nipped Troy to really make him hop. It all happened at the annual Sands Hotel Turkey Trot in Las Vegas, Nev. About 50 youngsters chased turkeys with capturers getting to keep birds they snared. This one did an about face and did a little chasing on his own.

Bodies of 14 Nevada Air Crash Victims Removed

Las Vegas, Nev. — (U.P.) — A mounted posse today returned the bodies of 14 persons killed in the crash of an Air Force C54 transport plane atop towering Mt. Charleston to nearby Ellis Air Force Base.

The bodies were brought down from the snow-capped mountain by a sheriff's posse of 17 men on horseback. The posse said four of the bodies were found burned inside the plane and the remainder had been thrown in front of the plane by the impact of the crash.

All Aboard Perish

Three rescue parties reached the wreckage of the plane Sunday and verified that all 14 of the military and civilian personnel aboard had perished.

The rescue team identified the plane, found near the peak of the two-mile high mountain, as the aircraft which had been missing since Thursday morning on a flight from Burbank, Calif., to the Atomic Energy Commission's atomic test site here.

The plane, which smashed into the mountain Thursday morning, carried five Air Force personnel and nine civilians.

Hatoyama Will Add to Government

Tokyo — (U.P.) — The government resigned today to clear the way for Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama to form a more powerful cabinet that will include the newly created Liberal-Democratic party.

Broadening of the government to bring in some former liberals was expected to stiffen Japan's front against Communist peace blandishments and strengthen the policy of friendship and cooperation with the free world.

Hatoyama picked up the resignations of his cabinet ministers at a morning meeting.

The new cabinet was expected to be completed this afternoon.

When the Liberals decided to merge with the Democrats to form a single conservative party last week they agreed that Hatoyama would continue as prime minister until spring when Liberal leader Taketora Ogata will take over.

A special Diet session Tuesday will be convoked to elect a new prime minister. Hatoyama's election was a foregone conclusion because the Liberal-Democrats hold 299 seats in the 467-member lower house.

Aid To Parochial Schools Flares Anew

Washington — (U.P.) — An old controversy over government aid to parochial schools flared anew today.

The U.S. Catholic hierarchy joined the issue with a 2500-word statement asserting the "full right" of church-operated schools "to be considered and dealt with as components of the American educational system."

The strongly-worded statement was isued by 208 Catholic cardinals, archbishops and bishops at the conclusion of their annual three-day meeting here Saturday.

The prelates did not ask for direct support of parochial schools with tax funds. But they said students attending "private and church related schools" have a clear right "to benefit from those measures, grants or aids which are manifestly designed for the health, safety and welfare of American youth, irrespective of the school attended."
