Hollywood—(UP)—Eva Marie Saint won acclaim and a gold Oscar for roles that matched her last name, but she's switched to sophisticated comedy—by putting up her long hair.

The slender actress collected an Academy Award for "On the Waterfront" and more plaudits for "Our Town" on television with her blonde mop brushing her shoulders.

Instead of doing tearful love scenes, the Oscar-winner is bouncing through a Bob Hope comedy—with a grown-up hair-do to match.

"The studio suggested I put up my hair," Eva admitted today over lunch in the studio commissary. "It helps me with the character. That kind of little thing gives you a feeling. More sophisticated."

"Little things matter. Because of my name, as a child I was made in New York."

always getting parts of angels in Christmas plays."

Producers Norman Panama and Melvin Frank were inspired for this surprise casting of the year when they watched Eva Marie accept her Oscar on TV last year.

"I had become very bored with playing 'Eve,' she said. 'After 'Waterfront' the only scripts were that type."

At first, set workers say, Eva Marie was "floored" by the usual mob of visitors to a Hope set.

But Hayden recently signed a seven-year directing contract with MGM, and the couple are scouting for a house here so they can settle among the orange trees and smog.

The actress with the little girl hair-do is being deluged with top scripts by every studio, and movie-makers guarantee she's "The Grace Kelly of 1955"—long hair or short.

"I keep my hair long because if I cut it I think my husband would divorce me," she smiled.

Edward Spoo, a sawmill owner at Mitchell, was burned fatally in the blaze.

Funeral services will be held today in Redmond.

The National Tuberculosis Association, supported by the Christmas Seal Sale, was the first organization in which doctors and laymen banded together to fight a specific disease.
