Vale, Dallas Meet For A-2 Champion

Portland—(U.P.)—Vale will defend its Class A-2 high school football championship on its home grounds Saturday.

Site of the title game pitting Vale's Vikings against the Dallas Dragons was announced today by the Oregon School Activities association.

Vale won the championship last year on its home field. But, the Vikings had to travel to Junction City last week end to play a semi-finals game, while Dallas stayed home to defeat Tillamook.

Site of the Class B 11-man title game between Malin and Siletz has not been selected.

Taylor Picks MS To Win Rose Bowl

San Francisco—(U.P.)—Coach Chuck Taylor, whose Stanford Indians had the distinction of losing to both Rose Bowl opponents this season, rates Michigan State over UCLA for their clash at Pasadena.

"Michigan State was a little stronger than UCLA," Taylor said at Monday's final meeting of the year of the Northern California Football Writers Association. "They seemed faster all around although there isn't a better football player than tailback Sam Brown of UCLA."

The Spartans and Bruins belted Stanford on successive weekends in which the Indians' morale was given its sternest test. Michigan caught them in East Lansing, 38-14 and UCLA followed with a 21-13 triumph.

"Michigan state has more power on offense and UCLA is better on defense," is the way Taylor summed things up.

HOCKEY

New York — (U.P.) — Right wing elio Toppazzini of the Providence Reds retained his lead in the American Hockey league scoring race today for the fourth straight week.

Toppazzini took over the lead on Nov. 1 and leads the league this week with 33 points on 16 goals and 17 assists. He also leads in goal scoring.

Ken Wharram of Buffalo broke into the top three when he took over second place with eight goals and 22 assists for 30. Paul Larivree of Providence dropped into third with 29 points on nine goals and 20 assists.

Camille Henry, the third of the Reds high scoring forward unit, is in fourth with 27 points on 15 goals and 12 assists while Willie Marshall of Pittsburgh was fifth with 25.

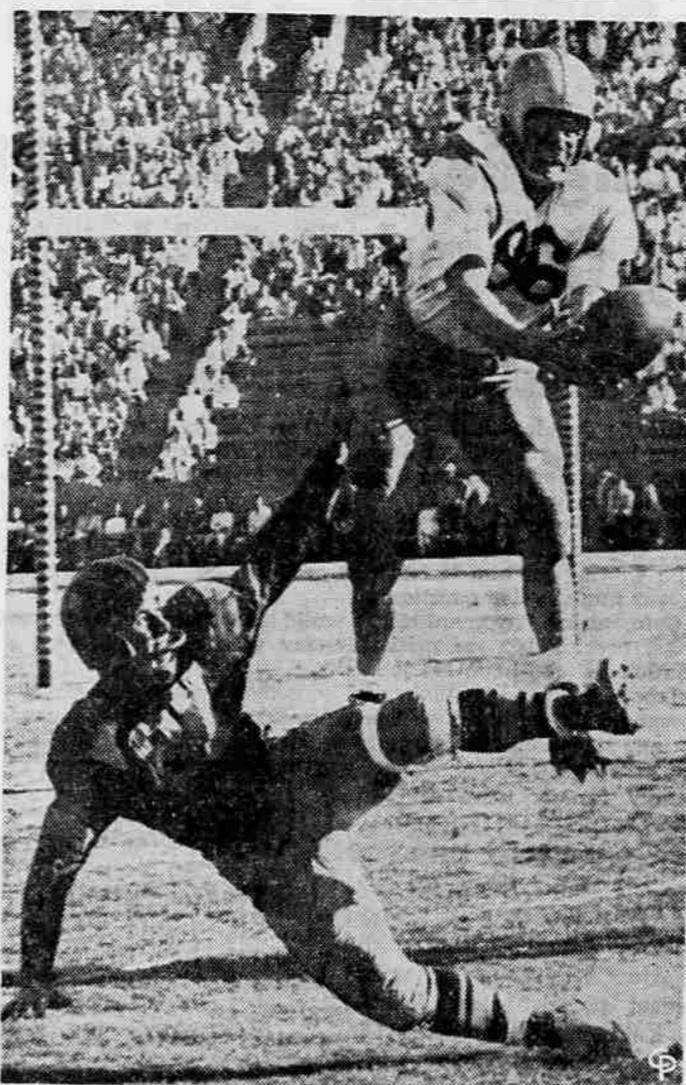

Montreal — (U.P.) — Montreal's talented Jean Beliveau picked up but only two points during the past week but held on to the National Hockey league scoring lead with 24 points.

However, the biggest move was made by Detroit's Gordie Howe, four-time winner of the scoring derby, who scored five points to jump from the sixth spot to third with 20 points. The Red Wing star had 10 goals and 10 assists.

Maurice Richard of the Canadiens added three goals and upped his total to 19, while New York's Dave Creighton, an early season leader with Beliveau, dropped from third to fifth with 18 points.

Sugar Bowl Elects Pitt

New Orleans — (U.P.) — Pittsburgh, featuring its best team since its "golden era" of football in the 1930s, was selected today to make its first appearance in the Sugar Bowl here Jan. 2.

Although thrice beaten this season by formidable foes, the Panthers received the nod from the Sugar Bowl for their convincing late season drive, which included victories over West Virginia and Penn State.

The Sugar Bowl said Pitt's opponent in the New Orleans classic, which will come from the Southeastern Conference, will be announced after Saturday's games. Four SEC teams were listed in the running—Auburn, Georgia Tech, Mississippi and Vanderbilt.

Pittsburgh became a top Sugar Bowl contender after its smashing 26-7 victory over West Virginia but came away singing the praises of the Panthers after they snapped the Mountaineers' 11-game winning streak.

All-Opponent Players Will Fly To UCLA Prom

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — UCLA, Pacific Coast Conference football champions for the third straight year, says it will honor its coast all-opponent team by flying the 11 players here for the UCLA Junior Prom.

The UCLA action, announced yesterday, was believed to be the first time a school has honored an all-opponent team with an expense-paid visit to its campus. The players honored by UCLA will be flown here for the prom Dec. 9.
