

Brazilian Troops Alerted for Threat of New Governmental Crisis

Navy Plans Irk Lake County Group

Lakeview, Ore. —(U.P.)—Navy County Stockgrowers Association plans to turn 2,500,000 acres of northwestern Nevada into a target area today drew the organized opposition of the Lakeview Stockgrowers Association.

The stockmen said they would join the Nevada-California Landowners Association in opposing the Navy's application. They said the proposed target area furnishes summer range for approximately 33,000 cattle and 36,000 sheep. Naval use of the vast tract would mean the loss of summer range for about 20 ranch operators, they said.

Lakeview Attorney Forrest Cooper, counsel for the Nevada-California group, said "if the Navy gets this first bite, it will be but the first of several which will eventually carry it north to Hart mountain and into Catlow valley."

Modoc and Lassen counties in California and Humboldt, Pershing and Washoe counties in Nevada are also protesting, according to Cooper.

Congress Blocks Plan By Ousted President To Return To Office

Rio de Janeiro —(U.P.)—The Brazilian Congress today blocked efforts by ailing President Joao Cafe Filho to resume office and troops were alerted for any emergency in Brazil's second major crisis in two weeks.

Cafe was under virtual house arrest in his swank apartment in the Copacabana sector of Rio de Janeiro. Troops surrounded his house waiting for him to leave so he could be "invited" to go to the war ministry for questioning.

Cafe, under treatment for a mild heart attack for several weeks, precipitated the crisis Monday when he announced his intention to take back his job.

Troops bolstered by tanks and guns took up strategic positions throughout the capital. Two heavy cruisers moved into Guanabara Bay and anchored just offshore without explanation. The Navy is regarded as pro-Cafe.

Army leaders were said to have vetoed Cafe's return to power because they feel he is too close to the Navy, the Air Force and the National Democratic Union party groups which the Army believes are trying to prevent president-elect Juscelino Kubitschek from being inaugurated Jan. 31.

The Brazilian crisis two weeks ago stemmed from the same thing. The army ousted Acting President Carlos Luz — a friend of Cafe's — and replaced him with Nereu Ramos, president of the Senate. Ramos was confirmed by Congress and the Army said it was acting to prevent a coup against Kubitschek.

Streets Nearly Deserted
The streets were almost deserted. Troops controlled city traffic and forced all vehicles except small buses off all main thoroughfares. Censorship was reimposed as it had been during the previous crisis. Troops dug trenches and piled up sandbag fortifications.

The Social Democratic party which supported Kubitschek in the Oct. 3 elections teamed with other parties to introduce a motion to prevent Cafe from assuming the presidency. The National Democratic Union fought the motion, claiming its approval "would open the way to military dictatorship in Brazil."

Tongay Wants Lung Treatment

Los Angeles —(U.P.)—Russell Tongay, who "blackout" and walked away from a prison guard in New Orleans 10 days ago, said he's willing to return to prison but first wants "proper treatment" for a condition he believes is lung cancer.

The swimming instructor escaped from a prison guard while serving sentence for the high-divide death of his four-year-old "Aquatot" daughter. At the time he was being transported from Florida to New Orleans to get a lung examination at government expense.

Tongay turned up here yesterday at a local hospital. The 38-year-old fugitive surrendered himself after admittance. Police said he would be transferred to the prison ward at General Hospital but would continue to be treated and get diagnosis.

The Florida Cabinet in Tallahassee voted today to have Tongay returned to Florida "as quickly as the law allows."

The husky former coast guardsman had been sentenced to a 10-year prison term for manslaughter in the death of his daughter, Kathy, who died of injuries after a 33-foot exhibition dive.

Cost of Living Held Steady Last Month

Washington —(U.P.)—The cost of living held steady last month. Price increases for new cars and houses offset a drop in food prices, the Bureau of Labor statistics reported today.

The bureau also reported that take-home pay of factory workers rose to a new record level in October. This meant a boost in purchasing power of factory workers since the cost of living was unchanged.

The bureau's consumer price index in mid-October stood at 114.9 per cent of average 1947-49 prices. That was the same as in mid-September.

The bureau reported substantial price cuts for meats, poultry and fresh fruits and vegetables in 39 out of 46 cities surveyed for the index. Average prices for meat, poultry and fish were the lowest since April, 1950.

First commercial sign of record was believed to be that erected on a New York city theatre in 1894.

You buy a refrigerator only two or three times in your lifetime.

Yet you don't hesitate to buy one without getting so much as a look at the intricate "works" that makes it run.

How do you dare make such an important purchase without having an expert check it over for you? What makes you so sure you're getting your money's worth when you say, "I'll take that one?"

The answer's obvious. You look for the brand name on the refrigerator—your "guarantee." You've learned to follow this first rule of safe and sound buying:

A good brand is your best guarantee. No matter what kind of product you want to buy, you know a good brand won't let you down. You know the maker stands back of it—guarantees it. And so, when you buy a good brand you know you're right.

Read this newspaper to find out which are the good brands (and the stores that sell them.) The more good brands you know, the surer you are about all your shopping.
