Oregon Grid Club Leader In Rushing

Los Angeles — Stanford and Washington were the top teams in offense and defense, respectively, during the 1955 Pacific Coast Conference football race, figures from the PCC Commissioner's office disclosed today. With all teams having completed their regular schedules except one, Southern California (which meets Notre Dame Saturday in Los Angeles), Stanford boasts a 356.4 yard total offense average to 356.4 for second ranked Oregon. Washington has a 212.2 yard total defense average to 214.2 for UCLA. Ducks Average 252.7

Oregon is the rushing leader with 252.7 yards per game to 206.6 for Southern California. Stanford has gained 161.5 yards a game passing to 109 for Idaho. UCLA has the best rushing defense mark, 145.8, to lead that department for the fourth successive year. Stanford averaged 147.3. Washington allowed 60.4 yards a game passing. UCLA was second, 68.4.

Southern California and Oregon rank one-two in kick returns. The Trojans averaged 15.9 yards and the Ducks 12.1 on punt runbacks and 27 and 21.2, respectively on kickoff returns. Oregon State has a 38.6 yard team punting average to 38.2 for UCLA.

Oregon has the most interceptions, 17, followed by Oregon State, 15.

TV Matters Put High on PCC Agenda

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The Pacific Coast Conference indicated today it will make further attempts to obtain a more representative regional football television broadcasting schedule at its winter meeting in San Francisco Dec. 4-8.

PCC Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt's agenda for the meeting, released yesterday, put a report of the television and radio committee near the top. The conference reportedly is not satisfied with the present television setup, which is partly regional and partly national.

The PCC probably will press again for a regional type of television broadcasting, outvoted previously by the NCAA. In addition, the conference is expected to recommend to the NCAA that 18 full days of football practice prior to the first game be allowed. The coast frequently has been caught with only 10 days of practice prior to the first game because coast schedules start earlier than some eastern schedules.

The winter meeting also will consider living costs of athletes, reports of its athletic code enforcement board, review of rules on eligibility, booster clubs, basketball scouting, complimentary tickets for athletes and the dates of various meetings for 1956.

FIGHTS

By UNITED PRESS
Miami Beach, Fla. — Al Andrews, 163, Superior, Wis., outpointed Jimmy Martinez, 160 1/2, Phoenix, Ariz. (10).

Hollywood, Calif. — (U.P.) — Cisco Andrade, 131, Compton, Calif., knocked out Kenny Davis, 131, Los Angeles. (7).

BACKS SHOULD PLAY
New York — (U.P.) — Coach Jim Lee Howell said today he expects halfbacks Alex Webster and Jim Patton to see action for the New York Giants against the Cleveland Browns next Sunday although both have ankle injuries.

Tennessee over Vanderbilt—Looking for the big bounce.

West Virginia over North Carolina State—Non-skid platter. LSU over Tulane—Just one of those things.

Clemson over Furman—Trying to match Army's 81-0 win. South Carolina over Virginia—Which would be an upset of sorts.

Turkey Hash With Steak
TCU over SMU—The Christians are going to feed on the erstwhile Lions. TCU is heading for the Cotton Bowl and knows it has to be up for a threatening SMU team. The Mustangs haven't been winning the big ones but they'll be no push over.

Baylor over Rice—An even ball game. To coin a phrase, it depends on how the ball bounces.

Texas Tech over Hardin-Simmons — Raiding the ice box for a snack.

Turkey Hash With Pork Chops
Colorado over Colorado Aggies—Tough dish to handle.

New Mexico over Brigham Young — The blueplate special. Turkey Hash and Mulligan Stew
Notre Dame over Southern California — This could be the one which saves a Trojan but it figures in vain. The Fighting Irish should take that golden shilleagh and wrap it right around the opposition's neck. Pass the bicarbonate please.

Georgia Tech over Georgia—From here means little but what there is calls for an engineering triumph.

Miami over Florida—Gator steaks, with gravy.

Auburn over Alabama—Plain and fancy.

Brown, Brodie Nab Top Rushing, Passing Honors in Coast Circuit

Los Angeles—Impressive performances in their final games of the year gave Sam Brown, UCLA, and John Brodie, Stanford, top rushing and passing honors in the Pacific Coast Conference by a big margin, according to figures released today by the PCC Commissioner's office.

Brown finished the year with 829 yards rushing while Brodie captured the passing title with 76 completions for 1034 yards. Brodie ranked first in total offense with 1054 yards to 1011 for Brown. Jon Arnett of Southern California, which still has one game to play, had 764.

Brown's lead over his nearest rival, Jim Shanley, Oregon sophomore, was 118 yards. Shanley had 711 yards and the best average per play, 7.1. Brodie's nearest passing rival was Bob Iverson, Washington State, who had 49 completions. Arnett has the scoring race all to himself with 85 points while Brown finished with 69 and Jack Morris, Oregon, had 68.

Stanford swept the pass reception department, ranking 1-2-3. John Stewart had 23 completions for 296 yards and one touchdown while teammates Paul Camera and Gary Van Galder had 22 and 19, respectively. Sam Wesley, Oregon State, led in interceptions with seven to six for Dick James, Oregon.

Arnett captured both kick return columns. He returned punts for 282 yards and a 17.6 yard average with Brown second, 145 yards. Arnett had 355 yards and a 27.3 yard average on kickoff returns while Morris had 347 yards.

Ray Westfall, Oregon State, compiled the best punting average, 41.8, followed by Ronnie Knox, UCLA, 40.5.

Hugh Daugherty Coach of Week

By CLAIR M. HEKHUIS
East Lansing, Mich. — (U.P.) — He took his lumps with a grin last year when the Rose Bowl champions he inherited lost game after game.

He beat his critics to the punch by saying, "we proved we could lose gracefully, but I guess we overdid it." It was his first season as head coach. He had taken over a football dynasty, only to see it crumble in his hands. When the dust settled, he picked up the useable pieces, added some promising but untested material and built his own football powerhouse. He's the United Press Coach of the Week, Hugh (Duffy) Daugherty of Michigan State, whose team ended its 1955 season last Saturday with an 8-1 record and a summons to the Rose Bowl, beating Marquette 33-0. It was one of the finest comebacks ever staged in college football. Daugherty gives the credit to his coaching staff and his players. "The coaches were a year older and a year wiser," he said. "As for the players, the seniors worked like eager sophomores, and sophomores came through like veterans."

Yale Places 3 Gridders On All-Star

Boston — (U.P.) — Yale placed three men and Dartmouth two on the 1955 United Press All New England football team selected by the coaches in the area.

Yale won places with halfback Dennis McGill, a junior from North Bergen, N. J.; Capt. Phil Tarasovic, a tackle from Bridgeport, Conn., and Captain-elect John Owschick, a center from Greenfield, Mass.

Dartmouth's great passing combination — Quarterback Bill Beagle from Danville, Pa., and End Monte Pascoe from Denver, Colo.—also was honored. The coaches were almost unanimous in selecting Fullback Charles Sticka from undefeated Trinity College for area honors. Gibbons Named Undeclared Rhode Island won a spot on the eleven with Tackle Charles Gibbons of Newport, R.I. The guard positions went to Capt. Jim Bunopane from Malden, Mass., a standout at Holy Cross, and to Capt. Bill Meigs of Harvard, a product of Syracuse, N.Y.

John Bedice, Boston University senior from West Haven, Conn., was named to the other end position and Ed De Silva, a key gainer on the Boston College eleven, was named to the other halfback spot. De Silva, a senior, comes from West Warwick, R.I.

All-Atlantic Dominated By Maryland

By RICHARD W. HATCH
Raleigh, N.C. — (U.P.) — Undeclared Maryland dominates the 1955 United Press All-Atlantic Coast conference football team announced today with six schools represented on the first team.

Only Virginia and South Carolina failed to place on the first team. The Orange bowl-bound Terrapins placed halfback Ed Verreb, center Bob Pelligrini, end Bill Walker and tackle Mike Santusky.

Duke placed two members in a wrecking crew backfield which boasts husky backfield Bob Pascal, 183 pounds, as its lightest member. Pascal and quarterback Sonny Jurgensen, 202 pounds, represent the versatile Blue Devil backfield.

Also in the backfield is Clemson's hard-driving Joe Wells, a 195-pounder. The rest of the team includes end Will Frye of North Carolina, tackle Bob Bartholomew of Wake Forest, guard Jesse Birchfield of Duke, and guard Al D'Angelo of North Carolina State.

The all-conference team was selected by ballots cast by sports writers and sportscasters from Maryland to South Carolina. More than 330 reservoirs have been built in northeastern Brazil as an anti-drought measure.

Television station KBES will carry the Detroit Lions-Green Bay Packers pro football game at 9 a.m. Thursday and the Texas A and M-Texas college game at 11 a.m.

Oklahoma Leads In Total Offense

New York — (U.P.) — Unbeaten and untied Oklahoma may take along the best total offense and rushing offense records in the nation when it journeys to Miami, Fla., to meet Maryland in the Orange Bowl, Jan. 2.

National Collegiate Athletic bureau figures released today show that the Sooners, who have won 28 straight games, lead in total offense with an average of 398.8 yards a game and in rushing with 327.6.

Denver is second in total offense with 389.7 and West Virginia third with 386. In rushing, Texas Christian ranks second with 291.8 and Army is third with 284.

Navy leads in passing offense, thanks to the skill of George Welsh, with an average of 186.3 yards gained each game. Stanford is second with 161.5 and Denver third with 159.8.

UO, OSC Success May Spike Talk Of Splitting PCC

Portland — (U.P.) — Coaches Len Casanova of Oregon and Tommy Prothro of Oregon State said yesterday that the successful seasons enjoyed by their teams this year would do a lot to spike talk of breaking up the Pacific Coast Conference.

They spoke at a Beaver and Duck club combined luncheon. Casanova said Oregon played its best game of the season in defeating Oregon State 28-0 last Saturday.

Prothro said he believed both Oregon and Oregon State would be even better next season.
