

Schmeltzer-Tosh Rites Conducted; Bride is Student

The marriage of Miss Elaine Schmeltzer and Joe H. Tosh took place in the Medford Church of Christ, Nov. 7. The Rev. Jeff Prossie, Grants Pass Church of Christ, presided for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a student in Crater High school, Central Point, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Schmeltzer, Central Point. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tosh, reside at 1946 Delta Waters road.

The couple took a wedding trip to Fresno, Calif. Mr. Tosh has returned to White Sands proving grounds, Arizona, where he is stationed with the Army. The bride remains with her parents until a later date.

A dress of white nylon net over brocaded white taffeta was worn by the bride, with her bridesmaid's dresses on the same design in pastel colors. Her mother made the bride's dress.

Mrs. Wayne England, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor, and James Tosh, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Flower girl Diana Davis was dressed in a miniature bride's gown. Mrs. Margaret Greene and Miss Sharon Mayfield were bridesmaids, and Michael England, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents held a reception in the Central Point Church of Christ, with about 150 guests in attendance.

Barnwell - Reynolds Rites Held at Sacred Heart

An event of November 12 was the wedding of Miss Luanne Barnwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stone, Central Point, to Roger Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds, Phoenix.

The Rev. Robert J. Tomisser officiated at the double ring ceremony, held at Sacred Heart Catholic church at 2 p.m. White chrysanthemums and fern provided the setting for about 125 guests. Bruno Pellegrini was organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned in white Alencon, French imported lace over satin with chapel train, and her fingertip-length veil was held with a cap of matching lace and seed pearls. The bouquet was white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Delmar Angele, sister of the bride from Red Bluff, Calif., was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of coral net over taffeta and carried white chrysanthemums. Her headress was of matching net and white baby chrysanthemums.

Matrons and bridesmaids included Mrs. Robert Beadnell and Mrs. Bernard Logan, the latter of Los Angeles, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Neil Stone, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Glenna Knorr. They wore matching gowns of peacock blue net over taffeta and carried white chrysanthemums. Their headresses were of matching net and white baby chrysanthemums.

Adele Angele, niece of the bride, was flower girl, wearing white organza trimmed in chintilly lace over blue satin with matching lace cap. She carried a basket of white petals.

Best man was Delmar Angele, Red Bluff, Calif., brother-in-law of the bride. Ray Barnwell, brother of the bride; Dick

Methodist Women Announce Plans for Annual Bazaar

Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met this past week laying plans for the annual bazaar which will open at 10 a.m., December 6, in Wesley hall.

A display of hand painted and hemstitched luncheon cloths in various sizes and colors is being planned by Circle 6 under the leadership of Mrs. James Baumer and Mrs. Leo Balance. The circle has also been making stuffed toys, Christmas stockings and children's felt purses.

There will be a parcel post sale, "Fibber McGee's Closet," potted plants and dish towels in sets and single lots. Fancy Christmas pastry, cakes, pies, breads and canned fruits will be featured in the bakery booth. The Ruth Esther Wesleyan Service
