

Band Given Shrine Trip Permission

Portland — (U.P.) — The Oregon School Activities association Saturday approved movement of Beaverton and Hillsboro high schools into the Valley Coast League and took under advisement other redistricting problems.

The OSAA also decided to hold the Class A and A-2 track meet at Corvallis on May 18-19 and the B title on the same week end at a site to be named.

The group agreed to change the dates for the Class B basketball tournament at Baker to March 8, 9 and 10 to avoid conflict with A and A-2 tournaments.

Protest Disallowed

A protest by Madras claiming unprofessional conduct by Prineville in a football game was disallowed because of insufficient grounds.

Medford and Klamath Falls bands received permission to attend the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco.

Ray Osburn of Elgin was elected board of control president.

Weiland Named Walton League Vice-President

Bend — (U.P.) — An initiative petition which would close all Oregon streams south of the Columbia river to commercial netting of salmon and steelhead had the support of the Oregon Izaak Walton League today.

The league, which closed its annual convention here yesterday, took no action on a similar measure at the last general election.

Rollin E. Bowles of Portland was elected president of the state division for 1956. Wade Hall, Enterprise; Dr. L. A. Calhoun, Tillamook; Henry Knees, Portland, and Paul Weiland, Medford, were named vice-presidents.

A resolution supporting any efforts to improve access routes into state and federal lands was passed as was one supporting any changes in the laws to eliminate siltation in streams caused by mining or dredging.

NY Conference Rules Out Post Season Frays

Portland — (U.P.) — The Northwest Conference at its fall meeting Saturday ruled that member schools can not represent the loop in post-season football games.

However, the ruling does not halt post-season games if the contest is a part of a school's schedule when the season starts and if it meets other NCAA requirements.

The grants-in-aid to athletes funds were cut from 80 to 75 per cent of tuition but this was eased by a ruling which lifted the limit on the number of athletes under the program.

Medford and Klamath union high school bands may go to the Shrine East-West all-star football game at San Francisco on December 31 as result of action of the Oregon School Activities association delegate assembly last week end. The exact nature of the action taken by the OSAA has not yet been reported here but it is known that the bands have permission to go now. They were barred from the trip under a rule existing prior to the session of the delegates.

Jack Morris, ex-Medford high grid great, who has made good as a University of Oregon fullback, got some national publicity out of the recent snow that covered the state. A press service photo of Morris and Jim Shanley, Duck halfback, in grid regalia but wearing skis was sent out. A letter from Gene Thanos, Medford man attending Syracuse university, enclosed the picture clipped from the Syracuse (N.Y.) Herald-Journal.

LOOKS FORWARD TO RETURN

Thanos, who used to provide the Southern Oregon college sports news for the Mail Tribune and after that taught school at Talent and Ruch, writes: "I thought you would enjoy knowing that there are some people (not very many) who happen to know that there is a state of Oregon . . . I thought it (the picture) was interesting to be in a paper this far away from home."

Thanos continues: "Have had many interesting experiences since arriving in the East last June. However, I am looking forward to the day when I will return to Medford and the 'good old' West Coast. One certainly has the pick of athletic contests to attend providing he has the money to pay the admission price. Prices are usually higher for all types of events than at home."

WEST STARS DO OKEH

The Medfordite has seen several professional basketball games and remarks that the boys from out west are doing all right. He reports that Red Rocha is a big favorite in Syracuse and that Bob Peterson and Ken Sears are going great with the Knickerbockers. Bob Houbregs and George Yardley are the big guns for Fort Wayne. Thanos stated.

Thanos said that he saw bouts between Hurricane Jackson and Ez Charles and between Carmen Basilio and Gil Turner. He calls Basilio a "truly great fighter." He also reported sitting through a continual downpour at Michie stadium, at West Point, to see Syracuse upset Army 13 to 0. Commenting on Maryland, which licked Syracuse 34 to 13, Thanos said that the Terrapins have "the best balanced team I have ever had the opportunity to watch . . ." Thanos adds the warning to "watch out for Syracuse next year . . ."

CASANOVA KICKS OFF

The typographical error in our recent Southern Oregon Conference all-star football story which mentioned a line average of 792 pound per man, instead of 192, was quickly brought to our attention. We didn't feel so bad, however, after reading the Portland Oregonian's play-by-play account of the Oregon-Oregon state football game. In the fourth quarter summary it stated: "Coach Len Casanova kicked off into the end zone."

SEEKS BASEBALL JOB

Don McNeil, Jackson County Chamber of Commerce manager, telephoned the other day and mentioned a fellow how has his bid in early — to say the least.

SPORTS

Vale, Malin Capture State Football Championships

Vale football fans — and just about the whole town turned out — were beaming today after their high school team romped easily to its second consecutive Oregon Class 2-A championship. The Vikings swamped Dallas, 45-0, in Vale Saturday night.

Malin high took the Class B football crown over the weekend by downing Siletz 26-12 with the help of a key performance by senior tailback Glen Steyskal.

Passing Potent

The well-backed Vikings lead 30 to 0 at halftime and blasted out three more TD's in the third period. Their passing attack upset Dallas completely and gave Derald Swift, Gene Bates and John Wilcox opportunities to stand out.

In the Malin encounter, tailback Steyskal who was just converted from a fullback last week, scored three touchdowns and passed for another. In sparking the Malin victory he picked up 223 yards rushing and passed for another 72.

PLAYER OF YEAR

Richmond, Va. — (U.P.) — The Southern Conference Sports-writers Assn. has voted Bruce Bosley, West Virginia's tremendous 220-pound tackle, as Southern Conference player of the year. Bosley, a three-time selection in the all-conference team, is the first tackle to win the award since it was set up in 1948. His teammate, quarterback Freddy Wyant, received the honor last year.

Jim Lounsberry Mentor of Year On West Coast

San Francisco — (U.P.) — His team has won 18 straight victories and 26 out of the last 27 games — but he doesn't expect a bowl bid.

His club is the only unbeaten four-year school team on the West Coast this year.

He is the United Press Pacific Coast coach of the year.

So meet Jim Lounsberry, head mentor of little Whitworth college in Spokane, Wash.

At 38 he is the most successful college coach in the West — and for his four years as head coach, probably has the finest record in the country. During that time he has won 28, lost four and tied one.

Whitworth college plays in the Evergreen Conference that includes schools in the Pacific Northwest. With an enrollment of only 850 students, less than half are boys, it is the second smallest in the loop. Six of the schools have from 1,000 to 1,500 students each.

The last two seasons in a row, the Whitworth club has won the conference crown without a defeat. The team has a 9-0 record this year; 8-0 last year and 7-1 the previous season.

MONTE HOLST On State Third Team

GARY RILEY Gains All-State Mention

Billy McNece Favored To Beat Tony Johnson

New York — (U.P.) — Light-weight Billy McNece of Central Islip, N. Y., is favored at 7 1/2 to 5 to beat Tony Johnson of New York tonight in their return TV 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

They fought to a draw at Eastern Parkway Arena on May 9.

Each is a willing "club fighter" who appeared to be moving ahead until he ran into hard luck this year, in which both were comparatively inactive and neither won a fight.

Five Pioneers On Northwest's All-Star Team

Portland — (U.P.) — Five Lewis and Clark and three College of Idaho football players were named today to the 13-man all Northwest Conference team.

Coaches selected just one team and an honorable mention list of 13 players.

Only repeaters on the list were Jim Johnson, quarterback, and Earl Engebretson, fullback, of Lewis Clark. But Engebretson shared fullback honors with Gary Collins of College of Idaho.

Other Pioneers making the first team were Mike Clock, tackle; Dean Soule, guard, and Mel Gillette, freshman halfback. Tackle J. C. Kenney and halfback Ed Lodge completed College of Idaho's berths.

Men from other than the 1955 co-champion squads included end Jerry Fowler and guard Ted Hansen of Whitman; end Vic Backlund, Willamette; guard Vic Fox, Linfield; and center Jerry Adam, Pacific.

Howard Morris, Linfield guard (ex-Crater high), received honorable mention in the All-Northwest Conference poll.

TORNADO TOUGHEST FOR PIRATES

After the Marshfield-Medford high football game two week ends back, Coach Pete Susick of the Coos Bay club reportedly remarked that Medford's Black Tornado was the best club the Pirates had met or "we're going to meet this year." Don't know, definitely what Susick's opinion was after Marshfield beat Gresham 19 to 0 Friday night for the state crown but we have a good idea that the statement of two weeks ago still holds. Medford bowed to the Pirates 20 to 6.

SHEPARD CONSIDERED

Larry Shepard, pitcher and manager of the Medford Dodgers pro baseball club in 1948, is said to be seriously considered for the post of manager of the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League.

Webfoot, Beaver Players Receive Mention in Poll

New York — (U.P.) — No player from the Pacific Northwest was named to the first three United Press All-American football teams announced today.

John Witte, Oregon State tackle received 328 votes and wound up as the ninth best vote getter among tackles in the country.

Others receiving honorable mention included end Phil McHugh of Oregon; halfback Dick James of Oregon and halfback Joe Francis of Oregon State.

Pro Baseball Discussion Set Tonight

Interest being shown indicates a good-sized turnout tonight at a meeting to discuss the possibility of Medford entering a team in the Class B professional Northwest Baseball League.

The meeting will convene at 8 p.m. in the Pioneer room at the Jackson hotel.

Various industrial and business firms of the Medford vicinity have been contacted during the past week and a big share of them have said they will be represented at the meeting. Matters of league and club operation and team finance mostly will be discussed. The meeting tonight may well determine whether Medford will have a club in the pro circuit in 1956.

Two men from Eugene are expected here to provide information both on the league and on the Emerald club of the NWL. They are Don Husband, attorney and a partner in the backing of the Emeralds, and Dick Strite, sports editor of the Eugene Register-Guard. Of particular interest to baseballers here is Eugene's partnership plan for underwriting the Emeralds.

PARK LOOKED OVER

The Salem Senators may not be represented at the meeting. However, General Manager Hugh Luby has sent a copy of the Senators' financial report for 1954 and 1955.

The matter of additional seating at the fairgrounds ball park likely will be discussed tonight. An architect looked over the park late last week and a report of his inspection

George Glick Bonus Choice

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — The Pittsburgh Steelers won the National Football League's bonus pick today and promptly chose Gary Glick, T-former quarterback from Colorado A&M.

Glick, 23, little known outside the Rocky Mountain area, was selected for his all around ability, particularly on defense, according to Coach Walt Kiesling of the Steelers.

DETROIT TAKES CASSADY

San Francisco, which won a toss with Detroit for first regular selection after both tied in the number of games won and lost this year, took Earl Morrall, Michigan State's great back, and Detroit picked Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, Ohio State's All-America back.

The Philadelphia Eagles grabbed All-America center Bob Pellegrini of the University of Maryland and Pittsburgh, in its regular pick, took Art Davis, a back from Mississippi State.

JONES JC CHOSEN

Pasadena, Calif. — (U.P.) — Un-defeated Jones Junior College of Mississippi was officially notified today that it will represent the East in the 10th annual Junior Rose Bowl game Dec. 10. Bowl officials yesterday named Jones Jaycee, Ellisville, Miss., as the East representative for the nation's top junior college class.

is expected tonight.

If Medford goes into the NWL, it will become an eight-team league. Other clubs reportedly are much interested in Medford entry.

On my recent vacation trip in the Northwest, my car was damaged in a collision with a vehicle traveling on the wrong side of the highway at Grant's Pass, Oregon. At my call, Mr. Kennedy of the local Farmers Insurance Group office, arrived at the scene in less than ten minutes.

After being reassured that neither my wife or myself was injured, Mr. Kennedy helped in every way possible. The car was driven to the Cadillac garage, the estimates made and the accident report forms filled out. When advised that the repairs to my car would be delayed until parts could be obtained from Portland, I turned in my damaged car on the purchase of a later model used car.

The accident occurred at 1:15 PM, September 16th and by 5 PM the same day, everything had been settled and I had my car ready for the trip home. Mr. Kennedy helped me secure motel accommodations for the night and the next morning we started back to Compton to get back on my job as Head Well Puller for a major oil company.

I am more than satisfied with the considerate treatment of your representatives and the prompt claim service of the Farmers Insurance Group.
