

Several From Here To Attend Meeting Of Hort Society

Several Medford fruit growers and county agents will be in Corvallis Dec. 1 and 2 for the 70th annual meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural society at Oregon State college. The society which convenes annually to review trends in production and marketing of fruits and vegetables, this year will hear Dr. Irving P. Krick of Denver, one of the nation's top exponents of "weather on order," according to Clifford B. Cordy, county agent for horticulture. His topic will be "Weather, a New Frontier in Technology." More than 50 special sessions concerning all phases of fruit and vegetable production and marketing are scheduled. Eye-Witness Report An eye-witness report on European agriculture will be given by Dr. Edward Vaughan, OSC botanist. Among Medford persons who plan to attend are Cordy, Don Berry, assistant horticultural agent; David Lowry, S. M. Tuttle, Robert Root, Stephen Nye, Robert K. Norris, R. M. James, Gordon Kershaw, Ward Spatz, Paul Culbertson, R. J. Hidgon, Dunbar Carpenter, Bruce Cyphers, Lyle Kinney, Halbert

Police, Sheriff List Burglaries, Thefts

day night, taking cartons of cigarettes, food, a butcher's coat and an electric drill, it was reported to the sheriff's office by the owners, Clayton T. Bartlett and Clifford O. Dukes. A number of other thefts also were reported. Edward Stevens, 3677 South Pacific highway, reported the theft sometime during the week-end of two flare pots and an unknown amount of gasoline from a tractor at Jefferson school, city police said. C. W. Newland, 528 Beatty st., told the sheriff's office that gasoline and a harrow disc were taken from the Roy Smith orchards, Jacksonville. A spare tire, wheel and hydraulic jack were reported stolen from a car owned by Stephen N. Agee, 839 Wabash st., some time last week, according to the sheriff. A cabin in the Forest creek area, owned by Elmer Vorheis, 141 1/2 South Grape st., was entered sometime between July 4 and Nov. 25, it was reported. Vorheis said burglars took an electric blanket, three other blankets, an axe, saw and hammer.
