Only Ambitious Ones Said Anxious To Hear Ike Disclose Plans

Washington — (U.P.) — Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-N.Y.), said today that "only ambitious, potential candidates" for the 1956 GOP presidential nomination are anxious for President Eisenhower to make an early announcement of 1956 plans.

He made this comment after he and other Eisenhower partisans were given fresh cause for optimism that the President may seek reelection despite a heart attack two months ago.

Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National committee visited Mr. Eisenhower at Gettysburg, Pa., Monday and said he felt "very much encouraged" that the President would run again. He made it clear, however, that the Chief Executive did not say or indicate what his second term decision will be.

He added that he does not expect any official announcement from Mr. Eisenhower for several months.

On the Democratic side, Adlai E. Stevenson chided Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams for criticizing Stevenson's call for a "moderate" approach to national issues.

"I should say I hope Governor Williams is not in favor of immoderation," Stevenson told reporters at Jacksonville, Fla., "perhaps he didn't read my speech and I should send him a copy."

Ives was reminded that some Republicans notably Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland, have indicated a relief that Mr. Eisenhower's announcement will probably come by early January. This would give presidential aspirants time to enter state primaries in case Mr. Eisenhower should announce his retirement. Says GOP Willing to Wait "That comes only from ambitious, potential candidates," Ives commented. "Everyone else among Republicans wants him to run again and are willing to wait. We don't want to rush him."

A similar viewpoint was voiced by another staunch Eisenhower backer, Sen. Gordon Allott (R-Colo.), who said he felt the worst situation is such that Mr. Eisenhower has more to contribute than any other potential candidate.

"I feel it would be a mistake to urge a hasty decision just to get an early decision," Allott said.

He added that there would be plenty of time for other possible GOP candidates to test their strength in the later presidential primaries if Mr. Eisenhower should rule himself out.

Deadlines fall about Feb. 1 for candidates to file in New Hampshire, Minnesota and Ohio presidential primaries.

Peron Successor Going To U.S. for Treatment Buenos Aires — (U.P.) — Gen. Eduardo Lonardi, head of the revolution that overthrew dictator Juan D. Peron, was scheduled to leave today for the United States for medical treatment.

Lonardi proclaimed himself "provisional president" on Sept. 20. On Nov. 13, he was ousted by an army coup and replaced by Gen. Pedro E. Aramburu, the present provisional president.
