Elliotts to Show Holy Land Pictures For Phoenix PTA

Phoenix — Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Elliott will show colored pictures made in the Holy Land at a meeting of Phoenix Parent-Teacher association set for tonight at 8 p.m. in the grade school gymnasium. Musical numbers will also be on the program.

A sale of baked foods will follow the meeting, and small children will be cared for in the grade school library.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by mothers of children in the third grade.

A skit entitled "a visit to the little red school house" was presented for the November meeting of the PTA. Mrs. Warren Kelseo was moderator and others taking part were Mrs. Kathryn Stancliffe, as teacher, Mrs. Curtis Stockstill, Mrs. Tom Thompson and Mrs. John Smith, mothers; Mrs. Harland Glasscock, Mrs. Merle Simmonds, Mrs. Clifford Schleigh, Mrs. M. O. Grove, Mrs. Hubert Beer, Mrs. Ralph Hite, Mrs. John Kesler, Mrs. Chester Keene Jr., and Mrs. Robert Lawrence as students.

The locale was a school of 30 years ago with the cast dressed accordingly.

The freshman class won the room count for the meeting.

Mrs. Reuben Richey, membership chairman, announced that Mrs. Gossett's second grade room won the October membership drive and that 287 members have been enrolled. Mrs. Richey urged parents who had not joined to do so, even though the October drive is over.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by Mrs. Vincent Claffin, Mrs. Harold Compton and Mrs. Merle Simmonds, mothers of children in the second grade.

Welsh Numbers On Program for Thomas Concert

Thomas L. Thomas, who will open the concert season for Jackson County Civic Music association with a recital here Friday, December 2, is native of Maesteg, South Wales. Singing comes naturally to a Welshman, it is said, and Mr. Thomas spent the first 11 years of his life in the typically Welsh atmosphere of traditional appreciation of music.

His father, a coal miner, became first flutist of the London Philharmonic orchestra, and the singer's home town boasted its own orchestra, two oratorio societies and several fine church choirs.

The family migrated to America and settled in Scranton, Pa., where young Thomas sang in many performances during his school days.

The baritone's program here tomorrow night will include a group of Welsh folk songs, a number of old Scotch and English airs and compositions by French and Italian composers.

The program also will include "Brindisi" from the opera "Hamlet" by Abroise Thomas, and an aria from Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro."

Grange

Roxy Ann Grange
The Roxy Ann Grange met with a good attendance at the last meeting.

Plans for their annual Thanksgiving were discussed.

The Thanksgiving dinner was a success and there was a big crowd. We were also surprised and glad to have two of our old members arrive back on that day in time to have dinner with the Grange. We wish to welcome back Mr. and Mrs. Bob Warren who have been living down in California.

Our next meeting is Dec. 2 and the lecture program is to be held before the meeting as children from the Lone Pine school will put on the program.

Butte Falls Grange
Social night at the Butte Falls Grange was held Nov. 19 with a pot-luck supper. Twenty members attended.

Mrs. Bruce Pingle was in charge of entertainment afterwards and all enjoyed the games.

The Grange's regular meeting will be held Dec. 5 at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McKeen and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McKeen will be the refreshment committee at that time.

For a dessert that's as exciting as it is easy to make, try Dutch Paradise Pie. It's made with versatile, spicy canned Bartlett pears; is truly a new taste sensation and best of all, from the housewife's viewpoint, it's quick and easy to make. The crust requires no rolling, the filling requires no pre-cooking, yet the final product is pretty as a picture and so delicious everyone will demand second servings.

Thomas L. Thomas, baritone, will give a concert in Medford Friday, December 2, for members of Jackson County Civic Music association at Medford Senior High school auditorium. Concert time is 8 o'clock.

Americans Painting Homes At Record Rate; Do Own Work

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent

New York — (U.P.) — We are painting our homes, inside and out, at a record rate.

Our urge to spruce up the old, as well as to build new homes and apartments, are the major reasons why the paint industry ranks seventh among U. S. industries now. It was in 158th place in 1933.

Next year we are expected to top our own painting record. The government has designated 1956 as National Home Improving Year. We will put more than 150 million gallons of paint inside or outside our walls.

Much of that will be applied by a member of the family. The do-it-yourself movement has infected all income groups and is made constantly more contagious by development of new paints and easier ways to apply it.

One survey of 6,000 families by the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., showed that 80 per cent did their own inside painting and 64 per cent did their own outside painting.

Portland Players Attend Session Of Duplicate Club

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Van Vleet, Portland, were guest players for a session of Medford Duplicate Bridge club Tuesday night. Mrs. Van Vleet is director of the Cavendish Bridge club there and was on her way back to Portland after attending the annual tournament at Coronada, Calif.

The club announced that no meeting would be held December 6, and on December 13 the monthly master point play will be held.

First place winners Tuesday were Mrs. B. L. Sanderson and William B. Kennedy. Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleet tied with Mrs. Dolph Phipps and Miss Isobel Stuart for second and third places.

Californians Here To Visit Relatives

Mrs. Ray Stiger and Mrs. Marguerite Cathey, South Laguna, Calif., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jeffery, 521 Mayette street. Mrs. Stiger and Mrs. Cathey are sisters, and cousins of Mr. Jeffery.

Mrs. Stiger recently returned home after spending three months traveling in several European countries.

which will give off a gas that douses flames when heated.

We have more than twice as many paint colors to choose from as we did before World War II, and everybody is color conscious. Sales of flat white paint have dropped 64 per cent in the same period.

"We also are trying to see that paint is easier to buy," said Douglas C. Arnold, president of the Keystone Paint and Varnish corporation. "Buying paint should not require experience or unusual technical knowledge."

Yet professional painters, who obviously could find their jobs endangered by the development of family painting talent, are pleased at the results of the do-it-yourself painting surge. They say it has started everybody thinking about redecorating, but not inspired everybody to do the work.

One Worry
At present the painting boom has caused only one worry. The next generation may find itself forced into being do-it-yourself painters.

"Nobody is raising his son to be a painter any more," said J. W. Zucker, past president of the National Contractors' association and head of a contracting firm which maintains Rockefeller Center and 18,000 New York city apartments.

"I asked 2,000 contractors at one meeting how many were raising their sons to be painters," Zucker said. "Six raised their hands. Painters are sending their sons to college to be doctors and lawyers. I don't know where we are going to get young men to be apprentices."
