By FRANK JENKINS
 More on the White House conference on education:
 A subcommittee report calls on the federal government to KEEP OUT OF LOCAL school affairs. In part, it says: "The contact of the federal government should be confined to STATE level contacts and not made directly with local school boards."
 The report represents the consensus of the nearly 2,000 delegates, since it came through a series of round-table discussions before being presented to the general session.

I'D LIKE to go a little farther. I'd like to keep the federal government out of our schools at the STATE as well as the local level. Even if it hurts, let's finance our own schools with our own money.

AFTER all, you know, what the federal government GIVES us must first take out of OUR pockets.

And—
 When we send money to Washington it comes back to us BADLY SHRUNKEN.
I'D LIKE to add that what has been said here is my personal opinion.
 Here is another—and quite different—opinion:
 Michigan's Democratic governor—G. Mennen Williams—BLASTS President Eisenhower's education program this morning as "inadequate and a mockery." He calls for a five-year program of federal aid to education with MORE THAN 16 BILLION DOLLARS of federal money to be spent on it.

GOVERNOR Williams—young and handsome and rich, good-naturedly known as "Soapy," because he is related on both sides of the house to two big soap families, the Mennens and the Williams—belongs to the wing of the Democratic party that believes in government-doing-everything-for-everybody. He wants the federal government to run the schools. He wants the federal government to run the power plants.
 He has never said so, but I suspect that if it came to an issue he'd want the federal government to RUN THE DOG-CATCHER'S OFFICE so that if you saw a stray unlicensed dog in your neighborhood you'd have to call up your senator in Washington to get the animal picked up and sent to the pound.

 Senator Humphrey of Minnesota belongs to this federal-government-do-all-wing of the Democratic party. So does Senator Magnuson of Washington. So do Oregon's Senator Morse and Senator Neuberger.
 And many others.

LET'S get another point clear. As individuals, nothing can be said against any of these men. They are all worthy citizens and pleasant persons to meet. Young and glamorous "Soapy" Williams is as agreeable a character as one could hope to encounter. No one can help liking him.
 If he chose to do so, Senator Humphrey could charm the birds off a tree. There is no pleasanter companion than Senator Magnuson. Senator Morse has a brilliant mind and an able tongue. If you're pretty sure that black is black and would like to make a bet on it, you'd better stay away from Senator Morse. If you give him a fair chance, he'll be apt to convince you that black is WHITE. Senator Neuberger can be a charming member of any group one might name.

BUT—
 We're not considering these men as private individuals. We must consider them as leaders who represent an issue. The issue they represent is pretty well dramatized by young "Soapy" Williams' call for a FIVE-YEAR PROGRAM OF FEDERAL AID TO EDUCATION, with more than $16,000,000,000 to be spent in getting the nose of the federal government camel under the education tent.

The idea they represent is that government should be centered in Washington, and not in our statehouses, our courthouses and our city halls. Governor Williams' crack this morning is interesting because it reveals the desire on the part of those who believe as he does to TAKE CONTROL OF EDUCATION TO WASHINGTON.
 So far, we've been reasonably successful in retaining control of education at home.
 Personally, I hope we can KEEP IT THERE.
