Axemen, Tornado Scuffles Highlight Cage Week End

Tussles between the No. 1 and No. 2 schools in Oregon last season will highlight a program of nine games involving seven Jackson county preps this week end.

The top attractions are battles between Medford and Eugene highs on Friday and Saturday night. Both games will be at the senior high gymnasium here. Eugene was Class A state champion for 1955 and Medford was runner-up to the Axemen in the state tournament.

Jacksonville and Eagle Point start off the week end with a conflict at Eagle Point on Thursday. The two quintets come together again Friday at Jacksonville.

Crater high will take to the road, playing at Oakridge on Friday and Saturday. A Friday contest will find Ashland host to Fortuna, Calif. On Saturday, Phoenix will entertain Yreka, Calif., and Prospect will journey to Canyonville. Jaycees Play Medford junior varsity vies tonight, meeting the Rogue River varsity at Rogue River.

Of interest to fans who want some basis to compare teams will be three games outside the county. Fortuna will play at Grants Pass on Saturday night. Brookings will play Illinois Valley at Cave Junction and the two clubs square off at Brookings on Saturday. Klamath Falls will be "at home" to Reno, Nev., for two week end games.

Both the Eugene Axemen and the Black Tornado are without the regulars and the great height that carried them to high honors last year. But each has a number of lettermen and have called up boys from strong junior varsity aggregations. Medford has five lettermen on hand and Eugene has three players back from its state title squad. Eugene is drawing from an unbeaten varsity crew. Medford junior varsity last season had almost that good a record.

Reinking Drills Letterman Ed Reinking has now joined the Tornado for full time drill. He had been hobbled by a fractured ankle in football. He's still limping but has told Coach Frank Roelandt that the ankle doesn't hurt. Dick McLaughlin is still sidelined from regular drill by a pulled leg muscle suffered last week.

Roelandt stated that the Tornado this week is aiming at polishing up its game. 'Conditioning is still getting attention because the crew is not yet in top physical shape. Five quarters of tough scrimmage were played last night and the Tornado practiced also on its pressing game.

The Eugene club is expected to be a hard running club. The Axemen have played two games, beating Benson of Portland 63 to 53 and Albany 49 to 46. Medford will have its first full games against the Axemen, having played only in the jamboree last week end.
