MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THIRTEEN

Restoration of GI Bill Urged by Neuberger

Corvallis—(U.P.)—Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) today urged restoration of the GI bill of rights and said America was in danger of discarding the basic principle of "equality of sacrifice."

Neuberger told students at an Oregon State College meeting that "at a time of unprecedented corporation profits from the manufacture of armaments, the real benefits of the GI bill of rights have been eliminated for the soldiers who must use those armaments."

Criminologist Called In Burton Abbott Case

Oakland, Calif.—(U.P.)—The prosecution called a noted criminologist to the stand today in an attempt to prove through science that Burton W. Abbott kidnaped and murdered Stephanie Bryan.

The criminologist was Dr. Paul L. Kirk of the University of California, who has devoted a quarter of a century to solving crime with his microscope. He is the 53rd—and possibly last—prosecution witness.

District Attorney J. Frank Coakley said the prosecution might rest immediately after Kirk finishes testifying.

Doctor Arrested With Two Children

Yuma, Ariz.—(U.P.)—Dr. Frank Sainburg was arrested yesterday in a Yuma hotel with his four-year-old son and the four-year-old step-daughter he allegedly threatened to kill, police disclosed today.

Sainburg, a Big Spring, Tex., surgeon who disappeared with the two children from his home last Friday, was arrested in a Yuma hotel where he was registered under the name of Jack Carpenter.

The children, Philip Sainburg II, his son by a previous marriage, and Mary Jean Nance, the daughter of his present wife, were unharmed.

Government Camp Votes Sewer Bonds

Government Camp—(U.P.)—Residents here yesterday voted unanimously in favor of a $60,000 bond issue to finance construction of a sewage system that would solve the community's long-standing stream pollution problems.

The Oregon Legislature last session appropriated $60,000 to buy the bonds in case they cannot be bought on the open market.

Government Camp, whose cluster of business buildings is the hub of the Mount Hood recreation area, has an assessed valuation of only $101,680.
