

Installation, Reception For New Pastor Announced

An installation service and reception for the Rev. Richard M. Jones, new pastor of the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way drive at Ridgeway dr., is to be held Sunday, Dec. 11, at 3:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend and to meet Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their daughter, Cheryl.

The Rev. Mr. Jones and family arrived in Medford three weeks ago from Sumner, Wash., where he was pastor of the First Baptist church. Mr. Jones is a graduate of Linfield college, McMinnville, Ore., and Berkeley Baptist Divinity school, Berkeley, Calif.

Leaders Many local and out-of-town ministers and church leaders will participate in the program.

Among them will be, Dean Anderson, moderator of the Eastwood church; Mrs. Ethel Knostad, organist for the First Nazarene church; the Rev. Conrad Rhoads, pastor of the First Baptist church in Riddle; the Rev. Thomas McCamant, pastor of the First Congregational church, and president of the Medford Ministerial association; Mrs. Albert Gandt, talent, soloist; the Rev. LeRoy Fraser, pastor of the First Baptist church, Grants Pass; Dr. Elmer Adams, executive secretary of the Oregon Baptist Convention.

Miss Sara Louise Walker, general missionary for the Oregon Baptist convention, who helped start the church; Len Phillips, Roseburg, representing the Rogue River association of American Baptist churches; Mrs. S. D. Earhart, president of the Rogue River association women; and Dr. Raymond S. Balcomb, pastor of the First Methodist church, Medford.

The planning for the program and the reception is being done by several committees. Mrs. Earhart is chairman of the program committee with Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Donald Tucker, Dean Anderson, and John Younger, members of her committee.

Mrs. Johnson is chairman of the reception committee with Mesdames E. J. Dodson, Earhart, Anderson and Jungen, members of her committee. Mrs. Paul Walker is chairman of the refreshment committee with Mesdames Tucker, Maurice Tuttle, Donald Mathews, and Eugene Brown assisting. M. G. Q. D'Albini is in charge of the decorations.

The Eastwood Baptist church is an American Baptist church, and was organized three years ago. The church building was built about two years ago.

Pastor To Continue Christmas Sermons

"The Everlasting Father," is the third subject in a series of Christmas sermons to be presented Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Medford's First Church of the Nazarene, Holly and First sts., by the Rev. R. W. Hurn, pastor, in a current series from the Prophecy Isaiah 9:6-7.

Mr. Hurn will present the meaning in the names that the prophet gave to the Christ Child. Two more sermons remain in the series to be concluded Sunday evening, Dec. 18.

During the morning worship, Mr. Hurn will speak on the subject, "The Old Book for Modern Needs," and will attempt to answer questions asked in regard to the Bible.

At 6:30 p.m. Sunday, the pastor will speak to the Junior high school fellowship on the subject, "You and Your Church." During the Sunday school hour a similar discussion group will meet in the pastor's study for adults who are interested in church membership.

UBS Observance, Dedication Rites Slated at Phoenix

Phoenix—Phoenix Presbyterian church will observe Universal Bible Sunday on Dec. 11. The minister's sermon topic will be, "The Bible Speaks to You."

Attendance at the morning service is growing rapidly, and interest in the church work is increasing, it is reported.

Another feature of the serving will be the dedication of a new organ. The new organ replaces one in use in the church since the building was erected, and which was given the church by one of the Ashland congregations.

Officers and teachers of the Sunday school met recently and planned the annual Christmas program for Sunday, Dec. 18. Each department of the school will take part.

THE HIGHEST GOAL

in life is not wealth—or success—or popularity—but to know God and to possess eternal life. This experience can be yours by believing in Christ. "Christ... hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God." I Peter 3:18

First Methodists To Give Christmas Pageant Sunday

The First Methodist church school Christmas pageant will be presented Sunday Dec. 11, at 5:30 p.m. in the church. The pageant, under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Sampert, has participants drawn from every department of the church school.

The Children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Sloniger, will provide musical narration. The event is for the entire family, church officials emphasize.

"The Life Worth Living," will be the sermon topic of Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services. The Youth choir, under the direction of Mrs. George Sloniger will sing at 9:30 a.m. and the Chancel choir, under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Adamson will sing at 11 a.m. Mrs. Howard Bush will be soloist.

Miss Sue Donna Doolen and Mrs. Richard Schuchard are the organists.

New members will be received into the church at the second service and will be honored at a coffee hour.

The Junior High MYF will meet at 5:30 p.m., and the Senior High MYF will meet at 6:45 p.m.

The Every-Member canvass which was conducted last Sunday resulted within $800 of the goal of $6,673 which was sought from pledges. Many also made "participation pledges" indicating departments of church activity in which they will take part.

Additional pledges of both kinds may be brought to the church next Sunday. The amount sought from pledges this year is more than double the budget of last year, indicating the expansion in the church's program and the increasing responsibility assumed by the local congregation, the Rev. Thomas McCamant explained.

A safety specialist says 20 days of working time and $40 in hospital expense can be saved by a farm family each year by eliminating accidents on the farm.

Business to be conducted will include election of a deacon for life membership.

A potluck dinner will be served Sunday at noon in the Church of the Brethren dining room and will precede a quarterly council meeting of the church to be conducted at 2 p.m. Ray Pence moderator, will be in charge of the meeting.

Men's Corporate Worship Slated At St. Mark's

Services at St. Mark's Episcopal church at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m., will stress corporate worship for men and boys of the church. All men of the parish are invited to attend either of the services and participate in a diocesan-wide corporate gift to the Very Rev. Dean Carman, recently elected coadjutor bishop of Oregon.

The 11 a.m. service will be conducted by the young people. Greg Milnes will lead the worship; Dan Kellington and Jim Boyd will read the scripture lessons, and Leon McDougall will speak on the theme, "What it means to me to be acolyte."

In the course of the service the following boys, Mike Gifford, Fred Lorish, Bob Rix, Bruce Kellington, Bill McNeel, Booth Deakins and Robert Walker, will be admitted to the Senior Acolyte guild, by the Rev. George Bolster, rector. They will be presented by Mrs. J. A. McDougall, acolyte mother to the group.

The Young People's fellowship will present the film, "Martin Luther" at 8 p.m. in the church. All interested persons are invited. Refreshments will be served in the Parish house following the showing of the film.

Friends Pastor To Begin Series

Beginning a series of Advent messages, Pastor Clayton Crisman will speak on the subject, "The Word Was Made Flesh," at 11 a.m., at the Friends church Sunday. Universal Bible Sunday will be recognized in sermon and song, and those who attend are requested to take their Bibles with them.

Deane Roberts will sing, "Nursery and Junior church will be conducted for children."

At 6:30 p.m., the three Christian Endeavor societies will have pre-Christmas lessons. Praise and worship service will be held at 7:30 p.m. when the pastor will speak. A trumpet-trombone duet will be given by Jack and Jim Hamilton. "Quaker Hour" is broadcast over KMED at 9:30 p.m.
