

Extension Groups To Hold Meetings; Parties Planned

Two Extension units have announced meetings for this week. Medford unit will meet in the Community hall on Priddy st., Wednesday, December 14, at 10:30 a.m. The project, "Main Dish Meals," will be given. Each member is to take an exchange gift and table service for themselves and their guests. Luncheon will be served for a small charge, and child care is provided.

The monthly meeting of Oak Grove unit will be held Tuesday, December 13, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Lyle B. Thurman, 3379 Jacksonville highway. Mrs. Henry Zacharisen will serve as assistant hostess.

The project, "Main Dish Meals" will be given by Mrs. Ross Goodroad and Mrs. D. C. Hendrix, and the food prepared will be incorporated into the luncheon.

The annual Christmas party will follow and each member is to take a gift of 50 cents value or something homemade.

Each member is also to take suggestions for the program planning question box, and also a small toy for the child care box. Mothers desiring care for their children should contact Mrs. S. B. Sandberg, 3-5617, by noon, Monday.

Chapter to Hold Christmas Party

Plans for a Christmas party to be held December 20 were made by members of Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority when they met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jack Cannon, 403 Laurel street.

Mrs. M. N. Hogan has been named sponsor for the new chapter and the director is Mrs. Scott Davis.

A cultural program was presented by Mrs. Cannon. Her topic for the evening was "Introductions and Invitations." Correct forms of introducing persons and the uses of formal and informal invitations were explained.

The Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Hogan, Siskiyou court. Mrs. Walter Smith and Mrs. John Selby directed the entertainment and social committees.

After the meeting an auction was held with food and articles contributed by members being sold. The proceeds will be used for a Christmas basket for a needy family.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses with Mrs. R. L. Palmer assisting. The next meeting will be January 3 at the home of Mrs. Carl J. Christenson, 125 Cottage street.

Yuletide Party Held on Monday

Eagle Point — An annual Christmas party was held Monday evening at a joint meeting of the Eagle Point Lions club and auxiliary. The group met at The Dardenelle dining inn at Gold Hill for dinner and a program was held following the dinner, also at the inn. Twenty-two persons attended.

Householders Given Rules For Fire-Safe Christmas

Boston—(U.P.)—For a fire-safe Christmas, says the National Fire Protection association, you should observe these rules:

THE TREE

Select a tree that hasn't dried out from long storage. Stand it in water or snow outdoors until you're ready to use it indoors. Bring the tree indoors just before Christmas and take it out as soon afterward as possible (Dec. 26 is recommended). Place the tree trunk in water and keep level of water high the entire time the tree is indoors. Check the water level daily for absorption and evaporation.

LIGHTING

Don't use candles on the tree or nearby where there is any chance for an open flame to contact the tree. Use only electric lighting sets that bear the UL (Underwriters' Laboratories) label. Check lighting sets each year before using for frayed wires, loose connections and broken sockets. Be sure the fuse on the electrical circuit you use is not over 15 amperes. Don't plug too many cords into one outlet. Make certain that all tree lighting is turned off before retiring or leaving the house.

DECORATIONS AND WRAPPINGS

Don't let Christmas wrappings accumulate in the home. Use non-combustible material to decorate the home wherever possible. When you must use combustible materials, be sure they are "flame-proofed." Santa Claus whiskers have caused Christmas tragedies; be sure they're "flame-proofed," too.

GIFTS

Don't buy pyroxylin plastic dolls, toys or non-flameproofed cowboy suits, etc. Toys operated by alcohol, kerosene or gasoline are especially dangerous. Look for the Underwriters' Laboratories label when buying electrical toys. This means they have been tested for fire and shock hazards and may be considered safe if properly handled. Don't set up electric trains or spirit-fueled toys under a Christmas tree.

Lodge Charter Draped in Honor Of Late Member

Olive Rebekah lodge members draped their charter in honor of the late Mrs. Atlanta Naffziger when they met last Monday evening. She was a former member.

Those who took part in the ceremony were Mrs. Frank Chapman, noble grand; Mrs. John Brummond, vice grand; Mrs. Clarence H. Jordan, chaplain; Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Marie Small, Mrs. Oliver S. Walden, Mrs. Fred Daugherty, Miss Caroline Leaders and Mrs. Elsie Lewis.

During the business meeting the group received an invitation from the Odd Fellows lodge to hold joint installation ceremonies in January.

Mrs. E. D. Dameron became a new member of the chapter, having transferred from Ashland Rebekahs. She now lives here at 336 Plum street.

Mrs. Clara Franklin reported on a recent bazaar and food sale and Mrs. Small reported for the refreshment committee.

Plans also were made for a Christmas party to be held December 19 when a gift exchange will be held, the gifts to cost not more than 50 cents. Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. W. H. Dyer, Mrs. Lee Amer, Mrs. J. O. Cave, Mrs. Carolyn Russell will make up the committee and Mrs. Franklin will be program chairman.

New Shoe Styles Inspired By Orient; Waists Still Slim

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

United Press Correspondent

New York—(U.P.)—A week in Manhattan:

"Buddha" heels and printed leathers with a Persian pattern are the latest Orient-inspired styles.

The two Far Eastern touches are part of the Delman resort and spring shoe collection previewed here this week. "Buddha" heels are tiers of wood that diminish in size from top to bottom. They are enameled in pastel shades and used on all-white pumps.

The two newest printed leather patterns are black on white and gold on white scroll line designs that give an almost brocade appearance.

Slim waistline still will be important next summer, in spite of the loose-fitting dresses that are fashionable now. Designer Sophie de Saks Fifth Avenue uses elasticized black velvet belts on her next year's cotton cocktail dresses to emphasize small waists.

We'll want to look ultra-feminine, Sophie predicts. And the small waists are as much a part of the feminine look as printed lawn dresses and pale pink shoes we'll have those too by next summer.

Latest Christmas statistic: Approximately 40 million people will have head colds on any given day throughout the holiday season. It is one of the peak cold-catching seasons, especially for Christmas shoppers. People get tired and run down this time of year, H. H. Bannon, research director for the Grover Laboratories, Inc., said to explain the statistic: They spend too much time in crowds and eat too many rich foods.

If you can't avoid the crowds, the tired feeling and the party foods, Bannon suggests you at least take off your coat when you get inside a hot store.

The teen-agers she met in Turkey are as career-minded as her own friends back in Missouri, 16-year-old Judy Fosher said when she returned this week from a three-week European trip she won as first prize in a national doll-making contest.

The Creve Coeur, Mo., girl attended a teen-age tea in Istanbul. "We talked about college and the careers we planned, just like to ck home," Judy said. "I was surprised to find they had so much freedom."

The contest was sponsored by Seventeen magazine and the Save The Children Federation. Judy presented 500 of the dolls personally in four countries.

Add novelty Christmas gifts: Jeweled rings to slip on shoe heels. One Manhattan shoe shop sells a $2 set of the jeweled colored glass rings, called "halo heels."

Bridal Shower Given Thursday For Miss Burns

Hornbrook — Miss Marilyn Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burns, was honored at a bridal shower given by the Women's society of the Hornbrook Community Methodist church Thursday. The event was held during the evening in the reception rooms of the church.

Among the many guests who attended were the bride's mother, Mrs. Burns; her grandmother, Mrs. Zela Elmore, and a sister, Mrs. Herb Stickney.

Miss Burns is bride-elect of Leland Stickney, son of Mrs. Victor Van de Weghe of Hilt, Calif. The wedding is set for December 24.

Gardeners Plan Greenhouse Tour

Roxy Gardeners will meet at the home of Mrs. Floyd Fogelquist, Wednesday, December 14 at 11 a.m.

The group will tour the Chase Greenhouse and gardens on Huston road and return to the Fogelquist home for a potluck luncheon. After the business meeting a gift exchange will be held, with gifts to cost no more than 50 cents.
