

'Pokes Nick Oregon State After Horn

Corvallis—(U.P.)—Wyoming's Cowboy came from behind and fought off a stubborn Oregon State basketball squad here Saturday night to win 52-51 with a free throw made after the final whistle had blown.

Guard Joe Capua sparked the Cowboy attack with 23 points which helped Wyoming overcome an Oregon State lead of 32-25 at halftime.

The contest was knotted five times in the first half before the Cowboys pulled ahead. But in the second frame, the Cowboys narrowed the lead to tie the game 41-41 when Beaver Dave Gamble fouled the hustling Capua.

See Saw Tussle

Capua made a lay-in to put Wyoming out front for the first time since the opening seconds of the ball game. But more rugged one-saw basketball kept the issue in doubt to the end.

Phil Shadin was fouled and tied the contest 51-51 with just over a minute left to play.

But a foul was called on Shadin for pushing Capua as time ran out. Capua made the free throw to win the game.

Snead Cops Miami Open

Miami, Fla.—(U.P.)—Sam Snead earmarked another $2,200 for his backyard lard can today as a result of his record triumph in the Miami Open golf tournament.

The links veteran from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., just seemed destined to win the Miami Open for the sixth time as he beat Tommy Bolt on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff in a finish that left the gallery gasping.

Snead played the last nine holes of the final round in 29 strokes, a new record for the tricky Miami Springs course, to tie Bolt at the finish with a 201 total for 54 holes.

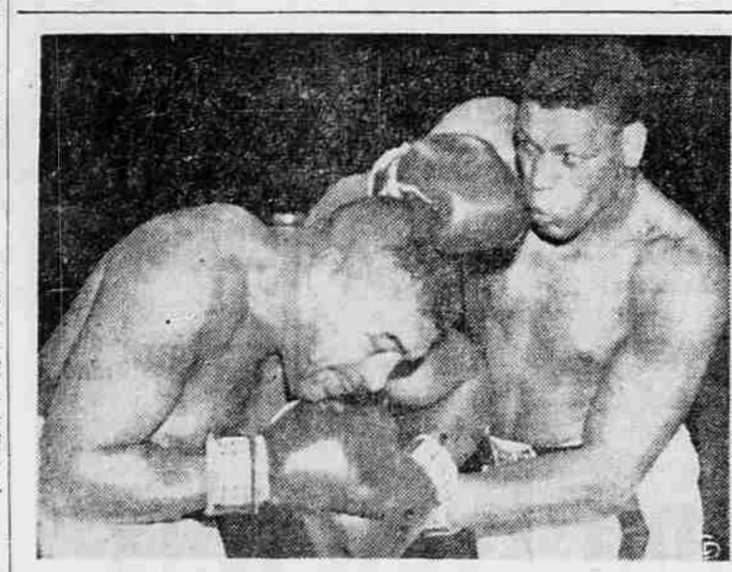

Hit Tree

On the extra hole, he pushed his drive and it hit a tree. The ball was some 200 yards from the green with trees blocking a straight shot. Snead pulled out his two-iron and intentionally sliced his shot around the trees. It stopped on the green 50 feet from the cup.

The recovery shot appeared to unnerve Bolt whose drive had landed far out in the fairway. He banged his approach shot over the green and pitched back his third stroke 20 feet beyond the flag.

Snead hit his long putt 18 inches past the hole and stroked it in for a par-four. Bolt's putt curled by the cup in a two-inch miss and the victory was Snead's.

Dukes, 'Bama Hoop Victors

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

Kentucky and Illinois went down and Duquesne and Alabama went up today as college basketball see-sawed through a surprising week-end and headed into a big week that again will be climaxed by a pair of important tournaments.

The wave of upsets that has marked early-season play reached a crest Saturday night when Kentucky, the nation's No. 2 team, absorbed a 73-61 drubbing from Temple and Illinois, ranked No. 7 nationally, was nipped by Missouri, 74-73.

Duquesne easily downed Pittsburgh, 71-49, in the Steel Bowl finals.

Alabama was held close for only 16 minutes as it trounced Valparaiso, 82-56, in the Birmingham Classic finals.

Wins Steel Bowl

By Contrast, Duquesne shot its cage stock soaring by winning the Steel Bowl tournament at Pittsburgh and Alabama.

Ex-OSC Grad Manager Dies in Portland

Portland—(U.P.)—Carl A. Lodell, graduate manager of athletics at Oregon State College for 14 years before World War II, died here Saturday afternoon of a heart attack.

Lodell also played football at the Corvallis school after World War I.

Survivors include a son, Allen, Seattle.

Schadewitz Shines

La Grande—(U.P.)—Ted Schadewitz led the Eastern Oregon College mountaineers to their second victory over the University of Nevada Wolfpack quintet here Saturday night by a score of 86-81. Nevada's Dan Sullivan with 27 points was the game's star and highest scorer. EOC's Schadewitz was second with 24.

Lafayette, Ind. Coach

Lafayette, Ind.—(U.P.)—Kenneth Jack Mollenkopf, veteran football line coach at Purdue University, today was named new head Boilermaker football coach.

Wildlife Group Reaffirms Stand On Fish Netting

Corvallis—(U.P.)—The Oregon Wildlife Federation wound up its midwinter meeting here yesterday by reaffirming its stand against commercial netting on coastal streams south of the Columbia river.

Howard Hadley, chairman of the Save Oregon Salmon group, told the federation that an initiative petition on the closure was ready for circulation. If enough names can be secured, Hadley said, the bill will appear on the 1956 general election ballot.

Last year, a closure bill was defeated by a narrow margin. But Hadley said the new bill had been completely reworked to remove objectionable parts.

Would Revoke Franchise

In other business, the federation passed a resolution requesting the State Public Utilities commission to revoke a franchise of the Coos River Boom company for splash dams and booming and driving operations on the south fork of the Coos river.

The resolution also asked immediate removal of the present splash dams on grounds they destroyed spawning grounds, fish eggs and young fish.

The federation voted to appoint three members to work with the Izaak Walton league for closer cooperation on conservation measures in the state legislature.

Rollin Bowles, newly elected president of the state Walton league, said his group was in favor of closer cooperation with the federation.

Kefauver Sees Try To Freeze Him Out

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) says some California Democratic party leaders are trying to "freeze me out" of the state's presidential primary in June.

The senator made the charge last night before addressing a dinner of the Jewish National fund. He said, however, despite the "freeze out," "I don't discourage easily."

Kefauver said since arriving in California he has noted strong support in the state for the candidacy of Adlai Stevenson. But he said, he has "the same grass root support that I had before 1952, maybe a little more."

When questioned by reporters concerning whether he will become a candidate for the Democratic nomination, he said his political plans will be announced "shortly," not later than Jan. 15.

"If I run for anything it will be for president—not vice-president," he said.
