

Portland Woman Wins $25,000 as 'Cook of the Year'

New York—(U.P.)—Mrs. Henry Jorgensen, wife of a Portland, Ore., city employee, won $25,000 today as the "cook of the year" in the seventh annual Pillsbury bake-off.

Mrs. Jorgensen won over 99 other contestants. She baked a simple nut-filled roll named "ring-a-longs." She was handed the prize check by opera singer Helen Traubel at a lunch at the Waldorf Astoria hotel, where the 100 contestants yesterday baked their special recipes.

First Time in Finals

Mrs. Jorgensen, who has entered recipes in the six other Pillsbury bake-offs without ever reaching the finals, is the mother of an 18-year-old son and plans to use her winnings to send him to "a large university."

The recipe, which came from Mrs. Jorgensen's mother, was developed to use an Oregon product, Filbert nuts. Judges of the contest said her recipe demonstrated a simple way for the average housewife to produce a sweet roll with a professional appearance.

Second Prize Winner

Mrs. Claude E. Hughes, Orange Va., won the $7500 second prize and Mrs. Nicholas Suci, Otter Lake, Mich., the $2500 third prize. The four $1000 best of class awards went to Helen Zymalski, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Donald W. Edwards, Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Louise Fansie, Glen Ridge, N.J., and Mrs. Norris Avery, Greybull, Wyo.

In the junior division, 13-year-old Karen Kolkmier, Battle Creek, Mich., baked "pie-burgers" to win the $3000 first prize. LaVonn Jost, 15, Strington, Okla., won the $2000 second prize, and Martha Parkison, 16, Encampment, Wyo., the $1000 third prize.

All contestants won an electric range and electric mixer, and the trip to New York City.

Natural Gas Draws Interest of Industry

Portland—(U.P.)—Many industries are interested in locating in the Pacific Northwest because of the coming of natural gas, the vice-president of the Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corporation said yesterday.

Robert P. Herring, speaking to the Chamber of Commerce, said the promise of natural gas in the region already had resulted in location of some large industries and that many more were interested.

Herring said the recent authority granted to Pacific Northwest Pipeline to buy natural gas from Canada was a break which would open up new fields for industrial development.

Portland Cops Geared For Pre-Holiday Crime

Portland—(U.P.)—Police said today they hoped extra officers now on duty at night would help discourage a pre-Christmas crime wave here.

Officers reported these among offenses committed last night:

Three men attempted to rob Edward L. Jungkeit of a bag of groceries. Three suspects were booked as two patrolmen saw part of the incident.

A clerk in a grocery was robbed of $71. A suspect was arrested within minutes.

James Van Cleave, a cafe proprietor, suffered forehead and wrist cuts when he was attacked with a knife by a man in an argument over a sandwich. A suspect was booked for assault with a deadly weapon.

Other arrests were made for after hours and drunkenness. Police said eight first night relief patrol cars are on duty.

Average American's Diet Said Changed

Madison, Wis.—(U.P.)—The average American eats about the same amount of food as he did 50 years ago, but the kind of food eaten has changed considerably, according to a U.S. Dairy association survey.

Consumption increases were reported in eggs, meats, poultry, fish, citrus fruits, green leafy and yellow vegetables, sweets such as sugar and syrups, and in all dairy products except butter.

The average person today also eats only about half the amount of potatoes, sweet potatoes, flour and cornmeal he did 50 years ago.

The American food supply is eight per cent lower in calories than in the early 1900's and we are currently using more higher priced foods than ever before.

New methods of preservation and shipping have brought a lot of one-season foods to market all year around. Use of fresh, frozen, and canned oranges has more than doubled, and ice cream has become an important part of the diet.

The USDA says that rigid inspection, grading, and sanitary control have led to higher quality products.

30 YEARS LATE

Middlesboro, Ky.—(U.P.)—Sam Rose looked over some real bargains in a mail order house catalogue he received in the mail recently. A handsome "all-brass spotlight" was listed at 88 cents, and Model T radiators were on sale at only $8.20. The 30-year-old auto parts catalogue had lain hidden in the Cumberland Gap Post Office since 1925.

COSTLY HUNTING

Carbondale, Ill.—(U.P.)—Mayor John I. Wright went dove shooting in the Mississippi river bottoms and it proved to be a costly trip. He lost a $30 pair of glasses and an $8 fountain pen and shot off $2 worth of shells. "I got eight doves and they cost me five bucks apiece," grumbled Wright.

Reyes Says Fair Trial Received

Corvallis—(U.P.)—Martin B. Reyes, charged with the first degree murder of James Appelgate, said yesterday as his trial drew to a close that he felt he had received a fair trial.

State and defense completed arguments late yesterday afternoon and Circuit Judge Fred McHenry ordered a recess until this morning so that he could prepare his instructions to the jury.

After the testimony was in, Reyes was asked during a recess if he had any comment on the proceedings. He replied that he felt it had been a fair trial and that "everything was in the record."

The mother of the 23-year-old Seattle man looked on, dabbing at her eyes, as Assistant District Attorney Robert Ringo called for the death penalty. Also looking on in the crowded courtroom was Mrs. Appelgate, widow of the dead man.

Sherry Fong Sentence Scheduled for Friday

Portland—(U.P.)—Sherry Fong, convicted last Friday of second degree murder in the 1954 death of Diane Hank, will be sentenced Friday. The conviction carries a life imprisonment penalty. Mrs. Fong's attorney, Irvin Goodman, said he would seek a new trial.

DEATH MANDATORY — John R. Crocker sits quietly in Santa Monica, Cal., after jury found him guilty of the murder of his onetime employer and sweetheart, Mrs. Norma McCauley. Verdict was without recommendation making death sentence mandatory.

The first World Series was played in 1903, with Boston of the American League winning over Pittsburgh of the National League, five games to three.

Portland, Seattle Subsidies Set Back

Portland—(U.P.)—The battle of Portland and Seattle to obtain subsidized cargo loadings in competition with San Francisco has received a setback, according to an announcement by the Portland Dock Commission yesterday.

The commission learned that Pacific Far East Lines had filed an appeal from a maritime board order directing subsidized lines to halt their rate equalization practice which channeled Northwest products to San Francisco for shipping.

Thomas L. White, attorney for the commission, said the appeal by PFE had the effect of setting aside the maritime board's order. Subsidized lines will be able to continue the practice which the maritime board said weakened the steamship cargo service out of Portland and Seattle by diverting to San Francisco products that would otherwise be shipped from Northwest ports. Fresh fruits and dairy products were exempted from the maritime board's order.

The order, dated Oct. 12, had been hailed as a victory for Portland and Seattle ports.

There are 115,000,000 acres of commercial forest land in the United States that are less than 40 per cent stocked, according to the U.S. Forest Service.

IRKS INDIA—Secy. of State John Foster Dulles shown at news conference in Washington where he has charged that Russia has been trying to get India to use force in its dispute with Portugal over the territory Goa. Dulles defended joint U. S.-Portuguese statement referring to Goa as a "Portuguese province" which has infuriated India.

Persistence Brings 60-Day Jail Term

Denver—(U.P.)—William Homer Hopper began a 60-day jail sentence today for being too persistent in his bid for the affections of Mrs. Irene Giesecker. Police said Hopper drove onto her lawn, raced his engine and honked his horn under her window even though she once took a shot at him.
