Rita Hayworth, Free, Sails for New York Le Havre, France — (U.P.) — Screen star Rita Hayworth sailed unexpectedly for New York today, free and single again.

The actress, who won a Reno divorce yesterday from crooner Dick Haymes, husband No. 4, boarded a liner half an hour before it sailed.

"One thing is certain," she told newsmen before sailing, "I will not meet Dick Haymes in the United States. And I will return to France as soon as possible, probably in three weeks time."

Friends said she decided to go to the United States at the last minute to discuss contracts with Columbia Studios.

Highway Bypass Study May Be Undertaken Salem — (U.P.) — The legislative interim committee on highways may hire the University of Oregon's bureau of municipal research to study how highway bypass affect cities, Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton said today.

The interim committee, headed by Sen. Warren McMinnie of Tillamook, will pay the bureau $3500 for the study.

Olympia — (U.P.) — Plans to open a 14-mile stretch of Highway 99 south of Chehalis on Dec. 22 has been announced by the Washington State Highway Department.

State AFL, CIO Merger To Get Under Way Soon Portland — (U.P.) — Plans to merge the AFL and CIO on a state level in Oregon will get under way in the next few weeks, the Central Labor Council was told last night.

J. D. McDonald, president of the AFL state federation, said the project would be undertaken by state secretaries of the two organizations, James T. Marr and George Brown, and by the committee on political education.
