

McLoughlin Hoop Quints Clip Hedrick

McLoughlin junior high cagers were victors over Hedrick yesterday afternoon in the first court rivalry between the two Medford schools.

Bulldog seventh grade players rambled to a 46 to 24 decision while the eighth managed to spurn the challenge of the Hornets 40 to 33.

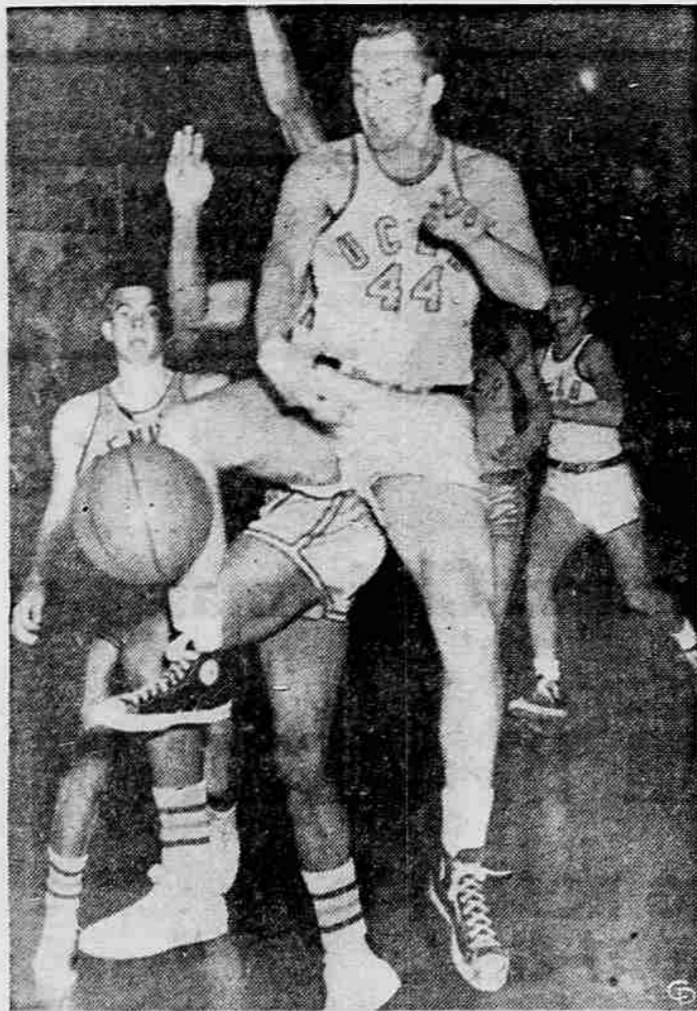

Jerry Anderson of Hedrick was high man for the eighth grade struggle with 20 while Ken Durkee topped McLoughlin efforts with 14. Danny Siegs had 14 for the Hornets seventh and Bob Quinney led the Bulldog crew with 12.

Santee Travels Mile in 4:10.2
 New York—(U.P.)—Wes Santee, who proved he's in shape for top-notch competition by running the fastest flat-floor mile ever seen in this area, says he isn't worried by the AAU's new investigation of his amateur status.

"I'd be heartbroken if not allowed to run for the United States in the Olympics," said the Marine lieutenant last night after clocking 4:10.2 for the mile in a special handicap meet here. "But I'm not worried, because my conscience is clear," Santee said. "I never made demands on meet directors. I have always accepted expenses in good faith and made full reports on them."
 Santee was suspended once by the Missouri Valley AAU on charges he accepted too much expense money for competing in meets in California last summer. The suspension was lifted a short time later.

Medford Independent Basketball League contention has come to a virtual halt until after the holidays.

Only a single hassle is set for next week. Phoenix Merchants will play at Butte Falls on Monday. After that league action rests until January 3.

Christmas season activities and the vacation period make the McLoughlin junior high school gymnasium unavailable. Prospect still rules the roost in the circuit with an unblemished record after narrowly evading defeat at the hands of Hawkins Tire Tread on Wednesday. Y.M.C.A. is just a half game behind still in the thick of consideration.

Grambling Cager Hits 3,000 Mark
 New York—(U.P.)—College basketball today hailed a new all-time high-scoring champion—six-foot, nine-inch center Bob Hopkins of Grambling college of Louisiana.

Hopkins became the first player in history to score more than 3,000 points in his college career during the past week when he scored 18 points in Grambling's 78-58 victory over Wiley college. He tallied 51 points the next night against the same team to run his all-time total to 3,062 points in 103 games.

The Grambling ace already had passed the all-time record of 2,959 points, set by Carl Hartman of Alderson-Broaddus in a four-year career ending last year.

Hopkins' 168 points in five games through Dec. 10 puts him atop this year's small-college race, with an average of 33.6 points per game, in small-college statistics released today by the NCAA. He's closely followed by Chester Webb of Georgia Teachers with 31.8. Al Meyer of Illinois Normal with 31.3, and Joe Girlando of Case Tech with 30.0.

Sports Broadcasts
 Radio stations KYJC and KMED will broadcast the North Bend-Medford high basketball game tonight and the Medford-Marshfield game Saturday at 8 p.m., both days. Station KWIV will carry the Southern Oregon College-Yellow Cab mix tonight and the Ashland-Bend high fray Saturday both at 8 p.m. Television station KBES will present the Washington-Illinois cage tussle at noon on Saturday.

Reese Receives Boost in Salary
 Brooklyn, N. Y.—(U.P.)—The Dodgers may not play in Brooklyn forever, but it's starting to look as if Pee Wee Reese will be the Dodger shortstop that long. Kentucky's "Little Colonel" from Louisville, who found a home in Ebbets Field in 1940, became the first member of the world champions to fall in line for the 1956 season today, and he got a husky raise that boosted him into about $40,000 in salary.

The coming year will be Pee Wee's 14th in the majors, all with Brooklyn, for he spent three seasons in the Navy during World War II. No other National Leaguer has been at his post that long.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE

Commercial League teams had varied fortunes this week. Quality Market, with a 1022 game and a 2756 Series, still took only a 3-1 series from Crater Lake Motormen. Al Henderson was big gun for the Marketeers with a 587 series. Olsen's took a 3-1 series from Morning Fresh Bakery, on aid of McNeel's 636 series topped by 247 game. Al Sacchi had 573 for the Bakery men.

Mail Tribune and Table Rock Lumber had a tie game but the Newsboys had the extra pins to take the series. A 231 game by Forrester Liddell was top for the match. Dad's Hideaway took a 3-1 series from Courtesy despite a 590 series by Doc Wilson of the Chev. men. Bates took their 3-1 this week at expense of A and B Insurance. White City Sales took the first game by 203 pins and held on to take total pins for their 2-2 split with Valentine Cafe.

EVERGREEN LEAGUE
 There was not much change in the top positions of the Evergreen League this week. Big Y Market took a 3-1 series from Hunter and Best sawmill and exchanged spots in the standings with Jackson Creek Lumber which lost series 4-0 to Medford Barbers. Barbers had the only 800 game, or 854.

Domestic Laundry managed 3-1 series against Jorgensen's Dairy. However, Del Schrier rolled a 218 to salvage the third game for the Dairy men. Oddity showed four men on the Laundry squad with two games, each the same score, and 3 of the 4 men were rolling the third game with a possible triplicate score in sight. Two men had 15 and 9 pins too many, and one rolled 2 pins short.

Siegrist, James Nominated for Warner Award

Palo Alto, Calif.—(U.P.)—Thirteen football players from 13 West Coast colleges have been nominated for the seventh annual Glenn S. (Pop) Warner Memorial award.

The winner will be presented with a trophy and wrist watch by the Palo Alto Sports Club next month.

Nominees were Wilbur Gari, Idaho; Ron Siegrist, Oregon State; Orlando Ferrante, Southern California; Julius Dominic, Fresno State; Gene Cronin, College of Pacific; Steve Dimiff, California; Burt Watson, Washington; Bob Davenport, UCLA; Dick James, Oregon; Perry Jeter, Cal Poly; Tony Teresa, San Jose State; Bill Tarr, Stanford, and Vaughan Hitchcock, Washington State.

Les Combs Buys Nashua

Lexington, Ky.—(U.P.)—Nashua's new owner, Leslie Combs II, indicated today he is mapping a busy 1956 racing campaign for the champion colt.

The prominent Kentucky breeder-owner purchased Nashua Thursday for a record price of $1,251,200 from the estate of the late William Woodward Jr.

"Primarily we bought him (Nashua) as a stallion because I wanted his cross in our breeding lines," Combs said. "Of course, he might pay out as a racehorse before we retire him, and we certainly wouldn't object to that."

Combs added that "two or three others went into this thing with me, but I'm not at liberty to say who they are."
