Pastor and Wife Honored By Eastwood Church

An installation service and reception honoring the Rev. Richard M. Jones and Mrs. Jones was held Sunday, December 11, at Eastwood Baptist church. The Rev. Mr. Jones is the new pastor of the church.

Those taking part in the service included the Rev. Thomas McCamant, pastor of First Congregational church, who read scripture, and the Rev. Leroy Fraser, pastor of First Baptist church, Grants Pass, who gave the charge to the minister and the church.

Greetings were extended from the Rogue River American Baptist association by Clem Phillips of Grants Pass and from the Oregon Baptist convention by Miss Sara Louise Walker, general missionary of the Oregon Baptist convention.

Mrs. S. D. Earhart welcomed Mrs. Jones on behalf of the women of the Rogue River Baptist Women's association.

Mrs. E. J. Dolson gave the invocation.

The welcome from Medford Ministerial association was given by Dr. Raymond S. Balcomb, minister of First Methodist church and principal speaker of the afternoon was Dr. Elmer Adams, moderator of Eastwood Baptist church.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson was chairman of the reception committee.

Family Arrives From Camp Gordon

Mr. and Mrs. Herb J. Grey and infant son, Herbie, have arrived in Medford from Camp Gordon, Georgia, where Mr. Grey has been on duty with the Army for the past two years. He has been discharged, and the couple will live here in the future.

For the present they are guests in the home of Mr. Grey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Grey, 42 South Barneburg road.

At Home

Robert D. Heffernan Jr., son of Mrs. Hanley Heffernan, Ross lane, arrived home Saturday from Salem where he is a student in the school of law at Willamette university. He will be here through the holiday season.

Holiday Visitors Arrive Here; Many to Spend Christmas Away

With Christmas yet a week away, holiday visitors are already arriving in the valley. The coming week will also see many persons leaving to spend the Christmas vacation with relatives or friends in other cities and towns.

Mr. and Mrs. George Veidt, Anoka, Minn., arrived Thursday to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Evensen, 620 South Oakdale avenue.

After Christmas day here the group will travel to San Francisco to visit with Mr. Evensen's mother. They will be in the Bay city through New Year's day.

Gary Boshears, student at Yale university, will arrive tomorrow from the east to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miner Boshears, 408 South Grape street. The young man is taking his fifth year of electrical engineering at Yale.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hensley and two children, Jennifer and Jayne, are expected in Medford later this week to spend Christmas with Mrs. Hensley's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, Valley View drive. They will be here a week.

This will be the first holiday season in several years that the Durno family has been together. Miss Kaye Durno, the couple's youngest daughter, will arrive home from the University of Oregon for the Christmas vacation, and Miss Jane Durno, who for the past few years has been taking nurse's training in Boston, Mass., has graduated and is in Medford for the winter. Miss Kaye Durno is a senior at the university and a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leever and children, Billy, Michael and Jeffrey, planned to leave today for Phoenix, Ariz., to visit through the holiday season with Mr. Leever's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever, and his brother and family, the Richard Leever, all former Medford residents. En route they will visit at Orinda, Calif., with Mrs. William Leever's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Brown.

Miss Joyce Bearden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bearden, Lozier lane, will arrive home Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents. She is a student at the University of Oregon, and president of the Alpha Phi sorority chapter.

The Beardens plan to leave December 24 to spend the week end in Reno, Nev., to be with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Skyrman, and family for Christmas. They will

Visitor Leaves

Sam N. Anderson left Thursday for Casa Blanca, French Morocco, by plane after visiting in the valley for about a month. He is a brother of Don Anderson, 803 Pine street, and Karl Anderson, Eagle Point, and spent his time with the brothers and their families.

The visitor is employed by a construction firm and had been in Casa Blanca for three years.

Holiday Party

Rogue Chapter of the Grandmother's club will hold a Christmas party and gift exchange Monday, December 19 at 1:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Clayton Walker.

Parties Honor Barbara Green

Miss Barbara Green, whose wedding to William Berthold Barnum Jr., is set for this afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal church, has been honored at two parties recently.

The first was given December 6 by Miss Jane Durno and Mrs. Peter Trim and was held at the home of Miss Durno's parents, Valley View drive. It was an evening party, with 25 guests attending. Miss Green was presented gifts for her new home.

Hostesses for the second party were Mrs. Fred Wilcox, Mrs. Robert Wilcox and Mrs. Ralph Van Nortwick, with guests being invited to the home of Mrs. Fred Wilcox on Camp Baker road. The honored guest was also showered with gifts at this event.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Green, 1410 Euclid avenue, and Mr. Barnum is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Berthold Barnum, South Pacific highway.

Today's ceremony will be followed by a reception at Rogue Valley Country club.

er training at Merrill-Palmer school at Detroit. She also has completed work at Oregon State college which she attended before going east last fall. Miss Boone will be here through the holidays with her parents and expects to remain for a more extended visit.

Miss Patricia Sether, who is with the Alaskan division of the Geological survey at Menlo Park, Calif., plans to be home for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sether, 1007 Queen Anne avenue. She expects to be here December 24 and will leave again the first of the week.

Miss Cynthia Jackson is to arrive home Christmas eve by car from San Francisco to visit until after New Year's day. She is vacationing from her work at the Aluminum Corporation of America in the Bay city.

Miss Jackson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson, Greenway circle.

Holiday Season Fills Calendar With Gay Parties

The holiday season is the most popular time of the year for entertaining, and many parties, both large and small, are on the social calendar.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Nye and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden were hosts for a party, entertaining at the Nye home on West Tenth street. Guests were invited for cocktails and supper, one group calling between five and seven o'clock and the second between seven and nine o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Winton, Long Mountain road, Eagle Point, entertained Tuesday evening at a formal dinner and dance at Mon Desir Dining inn, Central Point.

The Crossmans, who spend a part of their time in the summer home here, came up from San Francisco just previously to the party.

A cocktail hour preceded the dinner when organ music provided entertainment in the lounge and after dinner an orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Deuel, 1100 South Oakdale avenue, are entertaining this evening at a cocktail supper party at their home at 1100 South Oakdale avenue. About 30 guests will attend including several from Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Harold

Santa to Attend Children's Party At Country Club

Santa Claus will attend the annual children's Christmas party of the Rogue Valley Country club to be held Tuesday, December 20, at 3 o'clock, the committee in charge states.

Group singing, refreshments and a movie are being planned by the committee headed by Mrs. Dick House and Mrs. Emmett Bullard.

Children attending are asked to take a gift wrapped and marked "boy" or "girl" for the Lady Lions Christmas project.

Bertrams Arrive From Texas City

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald G. Bertram, who has just been discharged from the United States Air Force with the rank of staff sergeant, has been stationed in Amarillo, Tex., in recent months. He served four years.

The Bertrams lived in Medford before he entered the USAF.

Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and Mrs. I. Condit.

Col. and Mrs. H. J. Meiring, 2460 Hillcrest road, entertained at a pre-holiday cocktail party at their home last Sunday. About 40 persons attended. The party is one of a series planned by the couple, the next to be held in early January.
