

Student Elected To Honor Society

Jim Lattie, senior at Oregon State college, has been initiated into Alpha Zeta, honor society for students in agriculture. Young Lattie is enrolled in agricultural economics at the college, with a minor in journalism. The student is a member of two other honor groups, these being Sigma Delta Chi, for men students of journalism, and Blue Key, service society for men at OSC. He is also editor of the college rally, The Barometer. Young Lattie will arrive the latter part of the week to spend

Women of Moose Initiate Member

Mrs. Francois Patterson was initiated into Women of the Moose at a meeting held Wednesday, December 14 at the Moose hall, 11 Newtown street. Mrs. Frank Fairweather, spoke to the chapter on the founding and the work of the Red Cross, stressing the need for voluntary workers in the Red Cross. Three accordion numbers were on the program, which

Mrs. Roy Stein Hostess for Party

A Christmas party was held for Exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Roy Stein. Games were directed by Mrs. K. A. Hayes and Miss Anna May, with prizes going to Mrs. William Hartman and Mrs. Nick DeWitt. "Traveling" prizes were won by Mrs. John S. Nelson, and Miss May. Each member brought a contribution for Fairview home. Last regular meeting of the group was held December 7 at the home of Mrs. Hayes, with Mrs. Russel Budrau assisting. A program was given by Mrs. J. Edgar Moir, and Mrs. William Hartman on the subject of our "Foreign Neighbors." Refreshments were in keeping with the foreign theme, and holiday foods from several nations were served.

Staff Holds Party At Jackson Hotel

Another one of the numerous holiday staff breakfasts was one held Friday morning for members of Robinson Brothers store employees. Ten persons attended the event held in the director's room at the Jackson hotel. An exchange of gifts was conducted.
