

Several Appear In District Court

Robert L. McCulloch, 20, Klamath Falls, was held in Jackson county jail yesterday following his arraignment in district court on charges of forgery.

McCulloch was arrested by state police Saturday just north of the California state line. He is charged with forging a $143 check drawn on the United States National bank, Medford branch. He was bound over to grand jury.

Norman D. Cox, 20, Klamath Falls, who was arrested with McCulloch, was held in jail on a vagrancy charge. State police said Cox is wanted in California for obtaining property under false pretenses. Police said Cox and McCulloch had in their possession tires which were purchased with a stolen credit card.

Also arraigned in district court was Stephen W. Agee, 49, 839 Wabash st., who was arrested by state police Saturday on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Judge Rawles Moore set trial for February 14 after Agee pleaded not guilty.

Edwin Donnelly, 43, of 325 Wimer st., Ashland, was released on $300 bail Saturday following arraignment in district court on a charge of disorderly conduct. He is to enter a plea Friday, Dec. 23.

Donnelly is charged with entering the Gleason Crowell residence on Table Rock road Friday night.

David C. Hill, 42, Medford, who was arrested with Donnelly, was fined $30 on a charge of being drunk on a public highway.

Feeding the Family

HOME-MADE CANDIES—Please one, please all with home-made candies. They're so easy to make and to decorate smartly in ways pictured here and talked about in today's food columns. Good last minute packaging ideas, too.

Festive, Easy to Make Candies Sure Hit for Last-Minute Gifts

With Christmas practically upon us a candy-making session may well be the answer to the last-minute gift situation. A perfect neighbor-to-neighbor holiday gesture would be a variety of home-made candies packaged in attractive usable containers such as vases, bowls, refrigerator dishes, canisters or casseroles. However, any box or can with lid will take on Yuletide glamor when covered with easy to handle metal foil. Tape on a sprig of holly or tie with a large bow in contrasting color to add that certain something for a gift of "taste" and beauty.

Cherry Nut Fudge
3½ tablespoons (½ package) cherry-flavored gelatin
1¾ cups sugar
¼ teaspoon soda
¾ cup milk
2 tablespoons butter
¾ cup chopped candied cherries
¼ cup chopped walnuts

Combine gelatin, sugar, soda and milk in saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until the gelatin and sugar are dissolved. Continue boiling, without stirring, until a small amount of mixture forms a soft ball in cold water (or to a temperature of 232 degrees, if you've a candy thermometer.) Remove from heat; add butter. Cool to lukewarm (about 120 degrees). Then beat until mixture thickens and loses its gloss. Quickly stir in chopped candied cherries and chopped walnuts. Turn at once into greased 8x8 inch pan. When firm cut into squares. Top with walnut halves or bits of green or red maraschino cherries.

Chocolate-Dipped Nuts
Ideal for Christmas giving, if the family doesn't get to them first. Use Brazil nuts or almonds and candy-making chocolate. For dipping it is best to have room temperature between 60 and 70 degrees.

Heat candy-making chocolate over hot water until partly melted. Remove from heat and stir rapidly until entirely melted. When chocolate feels cool to the touch or when cooled to 83 degrees by candy thermometer, dip one end of each nut in the chocolate. Then place on waxed paper until chocolate hardens. Of course you can dip it all in, but half-done looks fancier and doesn't get chocolate on your hands.

If any chocolate is left over, pour it into a pan lined with waxed paper and keep in cool place (not in refrigerator) to use for future dipping. Or better still add chopped nuts and/or raisins, then form into clusters. Place on waxed paper to harden.

Foolproof Fudge
Just what the holidays ordered is a foolproof fudge recipe. Fudge failures such as too soft or crystalline texture, or rock-like hardness are things of the past with this tested easy recipe. The children will enjoy making this.

2 packages (2 cups semi-sweet chocolate morsels)
¾ cup sweetened condensed milk (not evaporated)
Melt chocolate morsels over hot, not boiling water in top of double boiler. Remove from heat. Stir in milk and mix until well blended. Pour into an 8x8 inch buttered pan, or shape as desired. Allow to stand several hours. Makes approximately 1¼ pounds. For thicker pieces double recipe.

Variations: Pour mixture into pan then cut into squares. Press whole almonds, walnut or pecan halves in each square, or shape into three-fourths inch balls, then roll in chopped peanuts or chopped coconut.

Fudge Decoration Idea. For a plaid design on any fudge, use red and green frosting put through a pastry tube. Pretty and different.

Tinted Coconut is just right for decorating, candies, cookies or cakes. Place one teaspoon milk or water in a bowl. Add a few drops of vegetable coloring and mix well. Add 1½ cups shredded coconut and toss with fork until coconut is tinted throughout. Spread on waxed paper or brown paper and allow to dry before using.

Scrambled Eggs With Cheese For Special Breakfast Pleasure

Christmas morning is the time to concentrate on a particularly good breakfast. . . . As part of the festive spirit and as a good nutritional foundation for perhaps too many sweets later in the day. Broiled grapefruit with its tart appetite-appealing flavor would be a nice starter. Follow with these scrambled eggs and . . . aybe a not-too-sweet muffin or coffee cake. Lots of steaming hot coffee for the grown-ups.

8 eggs
½ cup milk
¾ teaspoon salt
Pepper
4 tablespoons butter
¾ to 1 cup diced cheddar cheese

Beat the eggs well; add salt and dash of pepper and the milk. Melt butter in heavy skillet. Pour eggs into pan and place over low heat. Stir as the mixture begins to thicken. When eggs are partially cooked, add cheese. Served on toast or perhaps with some hot cranberry muffins and butter. Be sure not to overcook. Eight servings.

Cranberry Muffins
This fine recipe was garnered from the foods editors conference a while back. It depends on raw coarsely chopped cranberries and wheat germ for distinction. If you plan on using these for breakfast you can speed things up by sifting dry ingredients and combining with shortening the night before.

1 cup raw, coarsely chopped cranberries
1/3 cup sugar
1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup sugar
¾ cup wheat germ
¾ cup shortening
1 egg, beaten
½ cup milk

Combine chopped cranberries and one-third cup sugar. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and one-cup sugar into mixing bowl. Stir in wheat germ. Cut in shortening until mixture is fine. Blend together egg and milk. Add all at once to wheat germ mixture and stir until dry ingredients are just dampened. Fold in cranberries lightly. Spoon batter into 12 well greased muffin cups. Bake at 400 degrees 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot with lots of good butter.

Turkey Timbales With Mushroom Sauce
Most of us are always on the lookout for distinctive ways to make the most of turkey, so here is a recipe that does just that. Chicken or tuna may replace the turkey with equally delicious results.

6 tablespoons butter or margarine
6 tablespoons flour
1½ cups rich milk (light cream)
1 cup turkey stock or canned or bouillon-cube chicken broth
¼ cup Sauterne or other white table wine
2 cups ground, cooked turkey (include gizzard and heart, if you like)
¾ cup firmly packed soft bread crumbs
2 eggs, slightly beaten
Salt and pepper
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1 (2-ounce) can mushroom stems and pieces

Melt butter and stir in flour; add milk, stock and wine; cook stirring constantly, until mixture is thickened and smooth; season to taste with salt and pepper. To one cup of sauce add turkey, bread crumbs and eggs. Blend well. Spoon mixture into six well greased custard cups. Set in shallow pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes or until firm. Meantime, add parsley and mushrooms, including liquor, to remaining sauce. Heat thoroughly over boiling water or very low flame. Unmold baked timbales, garnish with parsley and serve at once with sauce. Six servings.

Sweetbreads and Chips
A delightfully different meat dish. Cranberry sauce or other tart relish goes especially well with this. Add a buttered green vegetable, hot rolls and dinner is ready.

1 pound sweetbreads
1 egg
¼ cup orange juice
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups crushed potato chips
1 tablespoon butter

Place sweetbreads in boiling salted water. Lower flame and simmer gently for 25 minutes. Cool. Remove thin outer membrane, then cut in half lengths. Combine egg, orange juice and salt. Dip sweetbreads into mixture and then into crushed potato chips. Arrange in a small baking pan. Pour remainder of egg mixture over top and cover with remaining potato chips. Dot with butter and bake in moderate (350 degree) oven for 20 minutes.
