

Mrs. William Berthold Barnum Jr., is the former Barbara Lee Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Green, 1410 Euclid avenue. The Barnum-Green marriage ceremony was held December 18 at St. Mark's Episcopal church, with 350 guests attending. The reception followed at Rogue Valley Country club, and Mr. and Mrs. Barnum are shown (below) cutting their wedding cake. (Landis-Shangle photo).

Many Parties Mark Calendar; Annual Dance Planned at Club

Many holiday parties enlivened the social calendar last week, and others are planned for the coming week.

Largest of the coming parties will be the annual New Year's eve formal dinner and dance at the Rogue Valley Country club. Departing from the usual holiday theme, the dance will have a nautical motif, suggesting a "bon voyage" into 1956 for the club members.

Hours will be from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. and is for members and out-of-town guests only. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Milne and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barrell are co-chairmen of the event.

Tomorrow afternoon Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lagson, Glen Oak Court, will hold open house for their daughters, Mrs. James Vranizan and Miss Margo Lagson, Mr. Vranizan and Miss Lagson's fiancé, Robert Reverman. All four came down from Portland for the holidays. Friends of the young people have been invited to call between two and four o'clock.

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Thieroff were hosts for a small holiday cocktail party. They invited friends to their home, 91 Black Oak drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers Jones were hosts December 17 for an open house, held at their home, 813 Minnesota avenue. Friends were invited to call between five and 7 o'clock in the evening. The house was decorated with the traditional holly and candles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Denning, Camp White, entertained a small group of friends Tuesday evening at a dinner party. Guests saw pictures taken by Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Ricker during a trip this year to Japan.

Mr. Ricker is manager of the Camp White domiciliary.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley, Old Stage road, will be the scene of one of the many nohest New Year's eve events. A small group of friends will gather there for a watch-party.

Mr. and Mrs. James Keeble, Jacksonville-Phoenix road, entertained Christmas eve for numerous friends and their children. The Keebles, who formerly lived on Black Oak drive, have traditionally entertained on Christmas eve for neighbors and their families. Durg the past year they moved to the former Kenly home in the country south of Medford.

Family Here

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davis and children, Marcia, Dennis and Helen, Oakland, Calif., all former residents, were breakfast guests Friday at the home of Mrs. May Brown, 2580 Stewart avenue. The family was en route to visit through the holidays with Mrs. Davis' parents, near Selma, Ore.

In Coquille

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kennedy, 1033 Court street, are in Coquille today to visit a sister of Mrs. Kennedy. They will return Monday.

Barnum-Green Rites Held At Episcopal Church Here

One of the season's largest weddings was that of Miss Barbara Lee Green to William Berthold Barnum Jr., held Sunday, December 18, at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Green, 1410 Euclid avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Berthold Barnum, South Pacific highway.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster performed the marriage ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon, with 350 guests attending. The reception followed at Rogue Valley Country club.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown of imported Chantilly lace and pleated nylon tulle over satin, was designed with long sleeves and skirt ending in a cathedral length train. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a jeweled headpiece and she carried a bridal bouquet of orchids.

Mrs. Russell Jamison, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Durno, Miss Jean Runtz, Miss Leora Andrews and Miss Joan Dean. They wore ballerina-style frocks of white lace fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and portrait necklines. Their headdresses were of white feathers with short veils and they carried bouquets of poinsettias.

Small Anne Donahue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donahue, was flower girl and Steven Note, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Note, was ring bearer. Anne wore a frock of peau de soie with feathered headress and carried a basket of flowers.

Three brothers of the bride, George S. Green Jr., Gerald Green and Donald Green, were ushers, and additional ushers were Russell Jamison, Richard Runyard and Charles Sams.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad was the church organ and vocal soloist was Allen Lehl.

Poinsettias and tapers decorated the church, and the ceremony was read by candlelight.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Thomas Donahue, Mrs. Robert Gaines, Mrs. William Singler, Mrs. Peter Trim, Mrs. Harold Skinner, Mrs. Robert DeVoe, Mrs. Herbert Wilson and Mrs. Roger Note.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Barnum, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Altadena, Calif.; Mrs. Joan Beston Gammill, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Weeks, Lafayette, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hilton, Grants Pass.

The bride's table was appointed in white and silver and a large ring of holly encircled the cake, which was decorated with sprigs of holly.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of beige-pink lace over taffeta. Her corsage was an orchid of deep lavender color. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of dark green velvet with fur stole and orchid corsage.

The newlyweds are spending a honeymoon at Palm Springs, Calif., and will live in Eugene where both will enroll for the winter term at the University of Oregon. The bride, who has been a stewardess for United Airlines, formerly attended the university and is a member of Alpha Phi sorority. The bridegroom served with the United States Air Force as a lieutenant and has returned to the university to complete his studies. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Green were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Saturday night, entertaining at their home, and following the wedding Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Barnum were hosts for a buffet supper at their home.

Newlyweds Visit Here; Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miksche, who were married in New York City December 13, are in Medford as guests of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Miksche, and other relatives.

The bride is the former Elaine Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pasenz, Brooklyn, N. Y. She engages in public relations work in New York City, and the bridegroom is a commercial artist.

The wedding ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents. The bride wore a gown of ivory brocade with headdress of mistletoe and holly and her old-fashioned bouquet was of white roses, mistletoe and holly.

A reception and champagne supper for 150 guests followed the wedding ceremony.

Mr. Miksche and his bride were honored last Sunday at a cocktail party given by his parents and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miksche at the latter's home, 2216 East Siskiyou boulevard.

They will remain in Medford until after New Year's day and will then spend some time in San Francisco. Returning to the east coast, they will be at home at 359 East Fiftieth street in New York City.

Also visiting in Medford are the Miksches' other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Miksche, Prineville. Mr. Miksche is with Radio Station KRCO in Prineville.

Church Service In Eagle Point To Marry Couple

Lake Creek — Friends and relatives of Miss Maxine Walch, Lake Creek, and Edmond Alfred Peile, Eagle Point, are invited to attend the couple's wedding, which will be held Thursday, December 29 at 8 p.m., in the Eagle Point Community church.

Both are 1954 Eagle Point high school graduates. The bride-elect has made her home with Mrs. Emma Messal at Lake Creek and her fiancé is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peile, Eagle Point. He has been studying diesel engineering at Oregon Technical institute and the couple will live in Klamath Falls.

Recent Bride Joins Husband At Texas Fort

Mrs. Larry K. Shepherd, the former Miss Nadine Helen Cook, left recently for Ft. Hood, Tex., to join her husband, who is stationed there with the United States Army. The couple was married October 19 at the Latter Day Saints' temple in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cook, 912 South Holly street and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bartley R. Shepherd, 2780 Lone Pine road.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds returned to Medford where a reception was held in their honor at the Latter Day Saints' church on South Ivy street October 24.

The bride's wedding gown was of white satin and lace and her corsage was a large orchid. Baskets of chrysanthemums decorated the reception hall.

The couple visited with relatives and friends until the bridegroom left for his station at Ft. Hood.

The bride attended Medford Junior and Senior High school and the bridegroom is a 1953 graduate of the latter school.

Daughter Here

Miss Elizabeth Collins has arrived from Eugene where she is doing post graduate work at the University of Oregon. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins, 2224 East Main street.

Ulrichs Arrive

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ulrich and daughters, Susan and Catherine, are here from Palo Alto, Calif., to spend Christmas with Mr. Ulrich's mother, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, 839 Minnesota avenue.

Among Pre-nuptial Events Held in Miss Walch's Honor was a Bridal Shower at the Home of Mrs. Messal.

To Leave

Miss Myrta Otterdale, chief operator for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, plans to leave here Thursday, December 29 for San Francisco to spend the New Year's week end.

She will visit friends and attend the East-West game.

White Bridesmaids Wore White Ballerina Length Gown

The four bridesmaids wore white ballerina length gown with white velvet bolero jacket and carried a white fur muff. Her headress was trimmed with rhinestones.

The tiered wedding cake was in the form of a cross and holly was used to decorate the base of the cake and the bride's table. Mrs. Isobel Ross and Mrs. J. R. Compagnoni served the cake and pouring punch were Mrs. Lilla Pomposo, Mrs. Frank Verderame and Mrs. James Pomposo.

Out-of-town Relatives at the Wedding

Out-of-town relatives at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Molotti, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Carter, a brother and sister-in-law and family, from Los Angeles; Mrs. Angelina Verderame, an aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Jack Pomposo, another aunt, and Mr. and Mrs. James Pomposo, an uncle and an aunt, and family, all from San Francisco.

The Bride Attended Crater High School

The bride attended Crater High school and is employed at the La Casita cafe. The bridegroom, who is employed at the Rogue River Valley Creamery, attended Central Point high school.

The couple made their wedding trip to San Francisco and they will live in Central Point at 415 Front street at Cedar street.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cellura

(Brainerd photo)

Cellura-Bishop Ceremony Held in Methodist Church

Central Point—Miss Darlene Victoria Bishop became the bride of Leonard Cellura in a ceremony read December 10 at 7 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. The Rev. E. Balcomb officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bishop, Central Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Jerome Cellura, also of Central Point, and the late Mr. Cellura.

The bride's gown was of chantilly type lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was trimmed with sequins and the full skirt was designed with cathedral train. A crown of sequins and seed pearls held her circular veil of imported silk illusion.

The bride's bouquet was of white roses and red carnations. Mr. Bishop gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. James Hall was here from Sacramento, Calif., to be the honor attendant. Sisters of the bride, Miss Sylvia Bishop, Miss Margie Bishop, and Miss Lona Bishop and a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Virginia Cellura, all of Central Point, were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Hall wore a red net ballerina length gown with white velvet bolero jacket and carried a white fur muff. Her headress was trimmed with rhinestones.

The four bridesmaids wore white ballerina length gown with red roses. Their velvet bolero jackets were red and their headpieces were outlined with rhinestone trim. They also carried white fur muffs.

Diana Davis was flower girl and David Saxbury carried the rings. Candelighters were Miss Toni Compagnoni, Medford, and Jimmy Evernden.

The flower girl wore a gown designed and made the same as that of the bride's gown and she carried a basket of white carnations with holly. Miss Compagnoni's dress was ballerina length red net and her headpiece was covered with rhinestones. Her bolero was of white velvet and she also carried a white muff.

Ted McCoy was best man. Ushers were Paul Willingham, Jack Burns, Danny Durant and Tommy Rupp.

White chrysanthemums and red carnations with holly decorated the altar. White bells with satin streamers marked the peak ends.

The bride's mother wore a beige colored lace dress with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a lace and net dress of dusty rose color with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Richard Schuchard played the wedding marches and Mrs. C. L. Robinson accompanied Larry Brunette and Amos Bishop, vocal soloists.

At the reception Mrs. Earl Fichtner played the organ.

Miss Anice Hobbs took charge of the wedding book at the reception held in the church rooms. About 300 guests attended the wedding and about 200 were at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cellura (Brainerd photo)

Cellura-Bishop Ceremony Held in Methodist Church

Central Point—Miss Darlene Victoria Bishop became the bride of Leonard Cellura in a ceremony read December 10 at 7 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. The Rev. E. Balcomb officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bishop, Central Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Jerome Cellura, also of Central Point, and the late Mr. Cellura.

The bride's gown was of chantilly type lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was trimmed with sequins and the full skirt was designed with cathedral train. A crown of sequins and seed pearls held her circular veil of imported silk illusion.

The bride's bouquet was of white roses and red carnations. Mr. Bishop gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. James Hall was here from Sacramento, Calif., to be the honor attendant. Sisters of the bride, Miss Sylvia Bishop, Miss Margie Bishop, and Miss Lona Bishop and a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Virginia Cellura, all of Central Point, were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Hall wore a red net ballerina length gown with white velvet bolero jacket and carried a white fur muff. Her headress was trimmed with rhinestones.

The four bridesmaids wore white ballerina length gown with red roses. Their velvet bolero jackets were red and their headpieces were outlined with rhinestone trim. They also carried white fur muffs.

Diana Davis was flower girl and David Saxbury carried the rings. Candelighters were Miss Toni Compagnoni, Medford, and Jimmy Evernden.

The flower girl wore a gown designed and made the same as that of the bride's gown and she carried a basket of white carnations with holly. Miss Compagnoni's dress was ballerina length red net and her headpiece was covered with rhinestones. Her bolero was of white velvet and she also carried a white muff.

Ted McCoy was best man. Ushers were Paul Willingham, Jack Burns, Danny Durant and Tommy Rupp.

White chrysanthemums and red carnations with holly decorated the altar. White bells with satin streamers marked the peak ends.

The bride's mother wore a beige colored lace dress with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a lace and net dress of dusty rose color with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Richard Schuchard played the wedding marches and Mrs. C. L. Robinson accompanied Larry Brunette and Amos Bishop, vocal soloists.

At the reception Mrs. Earl Fichtner played the organ.

Miss Anice Hobbs took charge of the wedding book at the reception held in the church rooms. About 300 guests attended the wedding and about 200 were at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cellura

(Brainerd photo)

Cellura-Bishop Ceremony Held in Methodist Church

Central Point—Miss Darlene Victoria Bishop became the bride of Leonard Cellura in a ceremony read December 10 at 7 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. The Rev. E. Balcomb officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bishop, Central Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Jerome Cellura, also of Central Point, and the late Mr. Cellura.

The bride's gown was of chantilly type lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was trimmed with sequins and the full skirt was designed with cathedral train. A crown of sequins and seed pearls held her circular veil of imported silk illusion.

The bride's bouquet was of white roses and red carnations. Mr. Bishop gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. James Hall was here from Sacramento, Calif., to be the honor attendant. Sisters of the bride, Miss Sylvia Bishop, Miss Margie Bishop, and Miss Lona Bishop and a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Virginia Cellura, all of Central Point, were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Hall wore a red net ballerina length gown with white velvet bolero jacket and carried a white fur muff. Her headress was trimmed with rhinestones.

The four bridesmaids wore white ballerina length gown with red roses. Their velvet bolero jackets were red and their headpieces were outlined with rhinestone trim. They also carried white fur muffs.

Diana Davis was flower girl and David Saxbury carried the rings. Candelighters were Miss Toni Compagnoni, Medford, and Jimmy Evernden.

The flower girl wore a gown designed and made the same as that of the bride's gown and she carried a basket of white carnations with holly. Miss Compagnoni's dress was ballerina length red net and her headpiece was covered with rhinestones. Her bolero was of white velvet and she also carried a white muff.

Ted McCoy was best man. Ushers were Paul Willingham, Jack Burns, Danny Durant and Tommy Rupp.

White chrysanthemums and red carnations with holly decorated the altar. White bells with satin streamers marked the peak ends.

The bride's mother wore a beige colored lace dress with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a lace and net dress of dusty rose color with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Richard Schuchard played the wedding marches and Mrs. C. L. Robinson accompanied Larry Brunette and Amos Bishop, vocal soloists.

At the reception Mrs. Earl Fichtner played the organ.

Miss Anice Hobbs took charge of the wedding book at the reception held in the church rooms. About 300 guests attended the wedding and about 200 were at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cellura

(Brainerd photo)

Cellura-Bishop Ceremony Held in Methodist Church

Central Point—Miss Darlene Victoria Bishop became the bride of Leonard Cellura in a ceremony read December 10 at 7 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. The Rev. E. Balcomb officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bishop, Central Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Jerome Cellura, also of Central Point, and the late Mr. Cellura.

The bride's gown was of chantilly type lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was trimmed with sequins and the full skirt was designed with cathedral train. A crown of sequins and seed pearls held her circular veil of imported silk illusion.

The bride's bouquet was of white roses and red carnations. Mr. Bishop gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. James Hall was here from Sacramento, Calif., to be the honor attendant. Sisters of the bride, Miss Sylvia Bishop, Miss Margie Bishop, and Miss Lona Bishop and a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Virginia Cellura, all of Central Point, were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Hall wore a red net ballerina length gown with white velvet bolero jacket and carried a white fur muff. Her headress was trimmed with rhinestones.

The four bridesmaids wore white ballerina length gown with red roses. Their velvet bolero jackets were red and their headpieces were outlined with rhinestone trim. They also carried white fur muffs.

Diana Davis was flower girl and David Saxbury carried the rings. Candelighters were Miss Toni Compagnoni, Medford, and Jimmy Evernden.

The flower girl wore a gown designed and made the same as that of the bride's gown and she carried a basket of white carnations with holly. Miss Compagnoni's dress was ballerina length red net and her headpiece was covered with rhinestones. Her bolero was of white velvet and she also carried a white muff.

Ted McCoy was best man. Ushers were Paul Willingham, Jack Burns, Danny Durant and Tommy Rupp.

White chrysanthemums and red carnations with holly decorated the altar. White bells with satin streamers marked the peak ends.

The bride's mother wore a beige colored lace dress with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a lace and net dress of dusty rose color with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Richard Schuchard played the wedding marches and Mrs. C. L. Robinson accompanied Larry Brunette and Amos Bishop, vocal soloists.

At the reception Mrs. Earl Fichtner played the organ.

Miss Anice Hobbs took charge of the wedding book at the reception held in the church rooms. About 300 guests attended the wedding and about 200 were at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cellura

(Brainerd photo)

Cellura-Bishop Ceremony Held in Methodist Church

Central Point—Miss Darlene Victoria Bishop became the bride of Leonard Cellura in a ceremony read December 10 at 7 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. The Rev. E. Balcomb officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bishop, Central Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Jerome Cellura, also of Central Point, and the late Mr. Cellura.

The bride's gown was of chantilly type lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was trimmed with sequins and the full skirt was designed with cathedral train. A crown of sequins and seed pearls held her circular veil of imported silk illusion.

The bride's bouquet was of white roses and red carnations. Mr. Bishop gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. James Hall was here from Sacramento, Calif., to be the honor attendant. Sisters of the bride, Miss Sylvia Bishop, Miss Margie Bishop, and Miss Lona Bishop and a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Virginia Cellura, all of Central Point, were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Hall wore a red net ballerina length gown with white velvet bolero jacket and carried a white fur muff. Her headress was trimmed with rhinestones.

The four bridesmaids wore white ballerina length gown with red roses. Their velvet bolero jackets were red and their headpieces were outlined with rhinestone trim. They also carried white fur muffs.

Diana Davis was flower girl and David Saxbury carried the rings. Candelighters were Miss Toni Compagnoni, Medford, and Jimmy Evernden.

The flower girl wore a gown designed and made the same as that of the bride's gown and she carried a basket of white carnations with holly. Miss Compagnoni's dress was ballerina length red net and her headpiece was covered with rhinestones. Her bolero was of white velvet and she also carried a white muff.

Ted McCoy was best man. Ushers were Paul Willingham, Jack Burns, Danny Durant and Tommy Rupp.

White chrysanthemums and red carnations with holly decorated the altar. White bells with satin streamers marked the peak ends.

The bride's mother wore a beige colored lace dress with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a lace and net dress of dusty rose color with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Richard Schuchard played the wedding marches and Mrs. C. L. Robinson accompanied Larry Brunette and Amos Bishop, vocal soloists.

At the reception Mrs. Earl Fichtner played the organ.

Miss Anice Hobbs took charge of the wedding book at the reception held in the church rooms. About 300 guests attended the wedding and about 200 were at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cellura

(Brainerd photo)

Cellura-Bishop Ceremony Held in Methodist Church

Central Point—Miss Darlene Victoria Bishop became the bride of Leonard Cellura in a ceremony read December 10 at 7 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. The Rev. E. Balcomb officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bishop, Central Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Jerome Cellura, also of Central Point, and the late Mr. Cellura.

The bride's gown was of chantilly type lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was trimmed with sequins and the full skirt was designed with cathedral train. A crown of sequins and seed pearls held her circular veil of imported silk illusion.

The bride's bouquet was of white roses and red carnations. Mr. Bishop gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. James Hall was here from Sacramento, Calif., to be the honor attendant. Sisters of the bride, Miss Sylvia Bishop, Miss Margie Bishop, and Miss Lona Bishop and a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Virginia Cellura, all of Central Point, were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Hall wore a red net ballerina length gown with white velvet bolero jacket and carried a white fur muff. Her headress was trimmed with rhinestones.

The four bridesmaids wore white ballerina length gown with red roses. Their velvet bolero jackets were red and their headpieces were outlined with rhinestone trim. They also carried white fur muffs.

Diana Davis was flower girl and David Saxbury carried the rings. Candelighters were Miss Toni Compagnoni, Medford, and Jimmy Evernden.

The flower girl wore a gown designed and made the same as that of the bride's gown and she carried a basket of white carnations with holly. Miss Compagnoni's dress was ballerina length red net and her headpiece was covered with rhinestones. Her bolero was of white velvet and she also carried a white muff.

Ted McCoy was best man. Ushers were Paul Willingham, Jack Burns, Danny Durant and Tommy Rupp.

White chrysanthemums and red carnations with holly decorated the altar. White bells with satin streamers marked the peak ends.

The bride's mother wore a beige colored lace dress with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a lace and net dress of dusty rose color with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Richard Schuchard played the wedding marches and Mrs. C. L. Robinson accompanied Larry Brunette and Amos Bishop, vocal soloists.

At the reception Mrs. Earl Fichtner played the organ.

Miss Anice Hobbs took charge of the wedding book at the reception held in the church rooms. About 300 guests attended the wedding and about 200 were at the reception.

Medford Families To Hold Christmas Dinners Today

Many happy family gatherings will be held in Medford and Rogue valley homes today in celebration of Christmas. Presents will be unwrapped, friends will call and groups will gather around daily decorated tables for the traditional Christmas dinner of turkey, ham or goose.

Four generations will be together today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McLaughlin, Old Military road.

Mrs. Robert Baber, Los Angeles, is visiting here with the McLaughlins. Mrs. McLaughlin being her daughter. Mrs. Baber's other daughter, Mrs. John White, Springfield, a former Medford resident, will attend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Esp. Eagle Point will be Mrs. White's other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mayfield, Springfield, former resident, with their children, Marsha and Grant.

The McLaughlins' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ardyn McLaughlin, and children, Ardyn Jr., Ronald, Eileen, Patrick and Colleen, will be at the dinner from Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg will be hosts for a family dinner at their home, 1206 East Main street. Attending will be Mr. Hedberg's sister, Mrs. Agnes Henning and her son, Philip, Ashland; Mrs. Elwood B. Hedberg, their daughter-in-law, and three children, and Mr. Hedberg's mother, Mrs. Sarah Hedberg, who makes her home with her son and daughter-in-law.

The host's son, Elwood B. Hedberg, is one of the engineers of The California-Oregon Power company on duty at Toketee Falls today helping to repair damage caused by the recent heavy rains and floods.

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McKibben, route 2, box 865, Central Point, will be hosts today for a dinner at their home. This morning they will be guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin C. McKibben at route 2, box 863, Central Point, for breakfast and the opening of gifts.

To be at the dinner at the C. H. McKibbens will be their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Max Berry, Boise, Ida., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, Gold Ray dam. The Berrys are visiting during the holidays at the home of the Wards. The women are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, will enter a dinner at their home.

Merry Christmas

To All Our Friends

FLOWERS

Mattress & Upholstery Shop

405 East 4th St.

Closed Dec. 26 thru Jan. 1

Christmas Greetings

— from —

Elsie - Arnold - Bob - Ann

LAWRENCE'S

130 EAST MAIN Est. 1908

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

To every home . . . to every heart . . . we're sending a sleigh-load of Christmas wishes. May Santa fulfill your brightest expectations, and may the warm glow of the holiday season remain to brighten your memories through many a month to come. Merry Christmas, everybody!

Marrin's MEDFORD