Saudi Arabia Names Commander-in-Chief

Cairo, Egypt—(U.P.)—Saudi Arabia today announced appointment of an Egyptian general as commander-in-chief of its armed forces in a move welding the military might of Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Syria.

Maj. Gen. Abdel Hakim Amer, Egypt's minister of war and commander-in-chief, becomes head of the joint Egyptian-Saudi Arabian armed forces under the two nations' new Mutual Defense Pact.

The appointment was announced from Riyadh, royal capital of Saudi Arabia.

Amer already is commander-in-chief of Egyptian-Syrian armed forces under a similar agreement signed in answer to the Baghdad Pact. Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Syria and chief Arab opponents of the pro-western Baghdad alliance.

East Germany, Red China Signs Treaty

Tokyo—(U.P.)—Peiping Radio announced today that Communist East Germany and Red China had signed a treaty of friendship.

The two Communist nations issued a joint communique attacking what they called the United States' "bankrupt policy of strength."

The treaty was signed by Communist Chinese Premier Chou En lai and East German Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl. Their statement called for the "liberation" of Formosa and a United Nations seat for Peiping.

Norblad Agrees On No Tax Cuts

Washington—(U.P.)—Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.), chairman of the powerful House Appropriations committee, has joined a growing list of congressional leaders who see little chance of a tax cut next year.

Cannon said in an interview that there "positively" must be no tax cut unless the budget is balanced. He said it would be fiscal "suicide" to reduce taxes before there is a budget surplus.

Another congressman, Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.), agreed. He said in a statement that not only should the budget be balanced but substantial payments should also be made on the national debt before a tax reduction is considered.

"If in this time of record employment and general prosperity we can't start making the very necessary payments on our huge national debt," Norblad said. "I don't know when we ever will."

Oregon Highway Situation Listed

Portland—(U.P.)—Here is a rundown on the highway travel situation in Oregon today:

Highway 101—Closed north and south of Coquille.

Highway 99—Closed at Walker, three miles north of Cottage Grove; open by convoy only eight miles north of Roseburg; closed at Myrtle Creek by high water and slides.

Highway 42—Closed by high water and slides.

Highway 38—Closed by slides between Reedsport and Drain.

Highway 36—Open for one-way traffic between Eugene and Florence.

State police reported all other major routes were open to traffic, although it was snowing in the mountains and chains were advised for motorists traveling those roads.

Early pennies minted in the United States were large-size coins.
