

Dr. and Mrs. Donald G. McKay
(Classic Studios)

Church Ceremony Marries Cynthia Hunt, Donald McKay

Miss Cynthia Lee Hunt is a holiday bride, her wedding to Dr. Donald G. McKay having been an event of December 19. The marriage vows were read by the Rev. C. W. Frost at Apostolic Faith church at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Two hundred guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed in the church reception hall.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur R. Hunt, 802 Crater Lake avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McKay, 1010 Sunset avenue.

The bride's wedding gown was of heavy slipper satin trimmed with sequins and pearls and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses centered with a white ruby-throated orchid.

Mrs. Dwane Lehman of Eagle Point, the bridegroom's sister, was honor attendant. She wore a frock of yellow embossed taffeta with net overskirt and carried white chrysanthemums. Her headband was also of chrysanthemums and net.

Miss Kathleen McCollum and Miss Sharon Hunt, the bride's sister, were bridesmaids. Miss McCollum wore pink and Miss Hunt blue embossed taffeta, ballerina length. Their bouquets and headbands also were of white chrysanthemums and net.

Jan Brown, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her frock was of orchid-colored taffeta with net overskirt. Miss Connie Hunt, the bride's sister, and Miss Carol Brown, her cousin, lighted the candles. Miss Hunt wore blue and Miss Brown a yellow frock and their headbands were of white chrysanthemums and net.

Dwane Lehman, Eagle Point, was best man for his brother-in-law and seating the guests was Paul Brown, cousin of the bride, and Nolan Roby, Bob Brown, cousin of the bride, and Efton Jones were groomsmen.

Miss Grace Iverson played the wedding music and Don Wolfe was soloist for the ceremony. Baskets filled with chrysanthemums and candles decorated the church.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hunt wore a dark brown two-piece gabardine dress with blue and brown accessories and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece dress of mauve with deep pink and navy blue accessories and white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Bob Brown and Mrs. Merle Vance poured for the reception, and the Misses Joan and Ellen Brown cut the wedding cake.

The bride, who was graduated from Medford High school with the class of 1955, is on the staff of the Medford Public library. Dr. McKay, who was graduated from Medford schools, attended Southern Oregon college and later was graduated from Logan Basic College of Chiropractic in St. Louis, Mo. He later did graduate work at Western States College of Chiropractic, Portland, and is now serving with the medical corps of the United States Army. He left Medford December 27 for Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., for further training.

Among the wedding guests was Mrs. Hazel Barnum, grandmother of the bride from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Anderson, 244 North Ivy street, entertained December 28 at a smorgasbord supper at their home.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brittan, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Voelker, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hubler, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Diepenbrock, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schempp, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hiebert, Mrs. Mary Hofbeck, Mrs. Dorothy Grossman and John Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Cordon and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hercher entertained New Year's eve at the Cordon home, 311 Portland avenue at an evening of cards. Two other couples attended and a buffet supper was served.

John Frohnmayer entertained last evening at a New Year's party for about 25 young persons, all eighth grade students, some from McLoughlin junior high school, and others from Lone Pine school and Hedrick Junior high school. The most of the group are members of a dancing class at the Rogue Valley Country club and dancing was the main diversion of the evening. A buffet supper was served at 11 p.m.

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chamberlain were hosts New Year's eve for a dinner and watch night party, at the Vaughan home at High Meadows ranch.

From a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chamberlain who are visiting in the valley for the holidays from California.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hoefft and Mrs. Hoefft's mother, Mrs. Thomas Grainger who is visiting for the winter from England; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Palm, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tweedie, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Johnson and Mrs. Maxine Berryman.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen R. Mosher, 332 Ardmore avenue, were hosts for a Tom and Jerry party Friday night at their home. Fourteen couples attended. Holiday guests of the Moshers were Mr. Mosher's mother, Mrs. G. B. Schmid, and Mr. Schmid, Westport, Wash. They left Wednesday.

Among parties for the young set during the holidays was an afternoon open house and "platter" party held by Miss Jacqueline Colton at the home of her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Sam Colton, 1619 East Main street. The event was no-host and was attended by classmates of the Junior class at the Medford Senior high school.

Another event was arranged by Miss Sandra Califf who invited 14 high school girls to assemble at her home before attending a no-host dinner Tuesday evening at Mary's casa. The next morning at 7 a.m., the same 15 girls were guests at a "come as you are" breakfast party at the home of Miss Wendy Wood, who was assisted by Miss Marlene Barclay. Miss Wood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, 107 Black Oak drive.

Also entertaining during the holidays were Dr. and Mrs. Russell G. Barnes. The Barnes were hosts for a cocktail party at their home, 2210 Hillcrest road, December 21.

Last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Dimbar Carpenter and three children gave a holiday party, inviting friends and their families to their home on Foothills

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Russell Larsen
(Landis-Shangle photo)

Larsen-Harmon Wedding Held at Methodist Church

Holiday weddings included that of Miss Shirley Jean Harmon to Carl Russell Larsen on December 20 at First Methodist church. About 100 guests attended the double-ring ceremony, read at eight o'clock in the evening by Dr. R. E. Balcomb.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harmon, 509 West Jackson street, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller, 1234 North Riverside avenue in this city.

Herbert Daniels was soloist for the ceremony. Sprays of cedar and holly with white chrysanthemums decorated the church, which was lighted by white candles decorated with holly sprigs.

The bride wore a street length gown of eggshell brocade satin fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums. Her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift and she also wore a pearl ring which is an heirloom in the bridegroom's family.

Miss Mary Lou Murphy was maid-of-honor. Her frock was of lavender net and taffeta, ballerina length, and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums which matched her headpiece.

Mrs. Howard L. Lehman was matron-of-honor for her sister, Mrs. Ronald Bean was bridesmatron and Miss Norma Granger, bridesmaid. They wore ballerina frocks of blue taffeta and net and their bouquets and headpieces were of yellow chrysanthemums.

Nancy and Debbie Lehman, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. Their matching frocks were of lavender organza and net worn with matching headbands and white nylon gloves.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Harmon were an afternoon dress of navy blue crepe trimmed with pink and her accessories were pink and navy blue. Her corsage was of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an afternoon dress of smoke grey taffeta with grey and white accessories and her corsage also was of white carnations.

Mr. Harmon gave his daughter in marriage and Leonard Shreeve as best man for Mr. Larsen. Ushers were Lloyd Shreeve and Thomas Boyd.

The reception which followed the ceremony was held in the church recreation hall. It was decorated with cedar, holly and white chrysanthemums. Miss June Lehman had baked and decorated the wedding cake, and also served it during the reception. Mrs. Wesley Parton and Mrs. George Russell, sister and aunt of the bridegroom, assisted Miss Lehman. Mrs. Jim Miller, cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

Honored guests at the wedding were the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harmon, Grants Pass, who presented the newlyweds with their family Bible.

The couple made a brief wedding trip and the bridegroom has returned to duty on the USS Hornet, Navy carrier. He is to be released from the service February 1. The bride, a graduate of Medford High school with the 1955 class, is a stenographer for Goldy and Henselman. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Medford High school.

California Couple Visits in Medford; Honored at Party

Mr. and Mrs. I. Norman Downer, San Jose, Calif., are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Berg Marten, Evelyn Apartments. The Martens formerly lived at San Jose. The visitors arrived Wednesday by plane and plan to be here a week.

Mrs. Marten entertained Friday at a bridge luncheon at the Rogue Valley Country club honoring Mrs. Downer, and the two couples formed a foursome at the New Year's eve dance last night at the club.

Visitor Arrives

Mrs. Walter Hoppe, a former resident, arrived Thursday to visit for several days in the valley. She is a houseguest of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, 222 Valley View drive.

New Year Parties Close Holiday Season in Valley

Numerous festive parties last week and this week end are bringing the holiday season to a close in Medford and the Rogue valley.

One of the traditional New Year parties will be held this afternoon at the Colony club. Open house is planned from five to eight o'clock for members and their guests. Mrs. A. S. Cummins is president.

Last evening, Mrs. Sprague Riegel was hostess for a small New Year's eve party at her home, Eden Valley orchard. Guests were invited to dinner and to watch the old year out. The party is an annual event.

Another New Year's eve party was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Wilton White and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Mohr at the latter's home, 39 Glen Oak court. Friends were invited for cocktails.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Vilas were hosts last week for a buffet supper, inviting friends of their daughter, Miss Cathy Vilas, and their son, Edward P. Vilas Jr., to the Vilas home in the country. Today Miss Vilas will return to her work as a teacher in the schools of Bakersfield, Calif., after spending the holiday vacation here. Her brother returned home some time ago from El Paso, Tex., where he was assigned to duty with the armed forces.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson gave a holiday party for their daughter, Miss Cynthia Jackson, who came up from San Francisco to spend the holidays with her parents. The event was an open house Thursday evening from four to seven o'clock and about 40 guests attended. Miss Jackson will return to California tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Denning, Camp White, were honored Friday evening at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shearin, Eagle Point.

The Dennings and their children, Marilyn and Dick, are leaving this month for Iowa City, Ia.

Stuart-Morgan Marriage Rites Held in Medford

Eagle Point — Miss Darleen Joyce Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Morgan, Butte Falls Star Route, Eagle Point, and Donald G. Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Stuart, Route 1, Eagle Point, were married December 21 at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster performed the double ring ceremony at 6:45 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Janet Stuart, a sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and Bill Littlefield of Shady Cove served as best man.

Mr. Morgan gave his daughter in marriage. Her taffeta dress was blue and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Stuart also wore a blue dress with white accessories. About 20 persons attended the wedding rites and 15 were at the reception held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple is living at Ocean-side, Calif. The bridegroom is serving with the infantry of the Marine corps.

The bride attended both Medford and Eagle Point high schools and was graduated in 1955 from the latter.

The bridegroom attended Medford high school. He also attended the United States Armed Forces institute.

road. The party was from four to seven o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Anderson, 244 North Ivy street, entertained December 28 at a smorgasbord supper at their home.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brittan, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Voelker, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hubler, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Diepenbrock, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schempp, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hiebert, Mrs. Mary Hofbeck, Mrs. Dorothy Grossman and John Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Cordon and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hercher entertained New Year's eve at the Cordon home, 311 Portland avenue at an evening of cards. Two other couples attended and a buffet supper was served.

John Frohnmayer entertained last evening at a New Year's party for about 25 young persons, all eighth grade students, some from McLoughlin junior high school, and others from Lone Pine school and Hedrick Junior high school. The most of the group are members of a dancing class at the Rogue Valley Country club and dancing was the main diversion of the evening. A buffet supper was served at 11 p.m.

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chamberlain were hosts New Year's eve for a dinner and watch night party, at the Vaughan home at High Meadows ranch.

From a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chamberlain who are visiting in the valley for the holidays from California.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hoefft and Mrs. Hoefft's mother, Mrs. Thomas Grainger who is visiting for the winter from England; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Palm, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tweedie, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Johnson and Mrs. Maxine Berryman.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen R. Mosher, 332 Ardmore avenue, were hosts for a Tom and Jerry party Friday night at their home. Fourteen couples attended. Holiday guests of the Moshers were Mr. Mosher's mother, Mrs. G. B. Schmid, and Mr. Schmid, Westport, Wash. They left Wednesday.

Among parties for the young set during the holidays was an afternoon open house and "platter" party held by Miss Jacqueline Colton at the home of her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Sam Colton, 1619 East Main street. The event was no-host and was attended by classmates of the Junior class at the Medford Senior high school.

Another event was arranged by Miss Sandra Califf who invited 14 high school girls to assemble at her home before attending a no-host dinner Tuesday evening at Mary's casa. The next morning at 7 a.m., the same 15 girls were guests at a "come as you are" breakfast party at the home of Miss Wendy Wood, who was assisted by Miss Marlene Barclay. Miss Wood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, 107 Black Oak drive.

Also entertaining during the holidays were Dr. and Mrs. Russell G. Barnes. The Barnes were hosts for a cocktail party at their home, 2210 Hillcrest road, December 21.

Last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Dimbar Carpenter and three children gave a holiday party, inviting friends and their families to their home on Foothills

Wicksten-Smith Wedding Service Held in Tennessee

Jacksonville—News of the wedding of Miss Nancy Ann Smith and Sgt. Leonard Wicksten, December 10 at Clarksville, Tenn., has been received by relatives of the bridegroom.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Marvin E. Smith, Clarksville, Tenn., and the late Mr. Smith. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wicksten, Jacksonville.

The Rev. Marvin E. Hines read the ceremony at the New Providence Baptist church.

Miss Ellen Atkins, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Leroy Clay, Jacksonville, was best man.

The bride has been employed in the comptroller's office of the civil service at Ft. Campbell, Ky., where the bridegroom is stationed. He is attached to the 188th air borne regimental combat team with the 11th airborne unit. He attended Jacksonville high school and was graduated in 1953.

The bride attended Clarksville, Tenn., schools.

Medford Masons In Portland for Degree Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lue arrived home Friday evening from Portland where they had been since Saturday. Mr. Lue was invited to participate in conferring 33rd degree offices to candidates in the Scottish Rite masonry. The ceremonies took place in the Portland Scottish Rite temple. J. J. Kennedy, Medford, was one of the group to receive the degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy went on from Portland to Bridal Veil to visit her sister for the New Year holidays.

Murphys Return From Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Murphy, Ross lane, arrived home by plane the first of the week from Berkeley, Calif. There they spent Christmas eve with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hamlin at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ina Hamlin. Christmas day the group was at the Warren Hamlins' for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy also visited in Placerville, Calif., their former home, before arriving at Berkeley.

Second Concert Set For Friday

Second in the series of this season's Civic Music association concerts will be given Friday, January 6 at the Medford Senior High school auditorium. Performing will be the Zurich Little symphony, conducted by Edmond de Stoutz.

Comprised of 27 young musicians the symphony, since its inception in 1952, has appeared repeatedly in Germany, Italy, France and Spain, as well as in its native Switzerland and city.

The first foreign concert for the symphony was in Paris in March, 1953 and as a result the group was engaged to perform at the Menton festival. Also as a result of the Paris concert they were invited to make an extensive tour of France and Spain on the following season.

Concert time is 8 p.m.

Holts Celebrate 54th Anniversary

Dr. and Mrs. William W. P. Holt, 11 Corning court, observed their 54th wedding anniversary December 28 at dinner at the Mon Desir dining inn, Central Point. With them was their daughter, Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson. Their only other child, Mrs. Joseph T. Boulet, telephoned her parents earlier that day.

Dinner Party Given for Choir

Members of Sacred Heart church women's choir met Tuesday evening for a dinner party at the Wooden Shoe dining room, Holland hotel. The Very Rev. Nicholas Dies arranged for the event.

Bruno Pellegrini directs the choir and plays organ accompaniment and the Rev. Robert Tomisser is the clerical adviser.

At the dinner event were Mr. and Mrs. Earl DeLisle, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Kauger, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mauroni, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scherzinger, Mr. and Mrs. Pellegrini, Father Tomisser, Mr. and Mrs. James Rouhier, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wickman, Miss Barbara Ford, Miss Frances Thurn, Mrs. Pearl Walker, Miss Loretta Zeleznik and Miss Simone Petard.

Earlier during the holidays the women's choir met at the Pellegrini home. The choir presented Mr. Pellegrini a gift and also conducted a gift exchange.

Holiday Reunion Held by Family

For the first time in several years the family of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, 608 South Ivy street, was together for the Christmas holidays.

Here for the occasion from Klamath Falls were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gordon and children, Rebecca and Joe; from Bly, Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton and son, David; and from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schultz and children, Keith, Lynda and Dianna, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wood, and Mrs. Lena Prickett, formerly of Klamath Falls.

Daughter Leaves

Ashland—Miss Lucille Peruzzi, Los Angeles, left yesterday after a holiday visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Louise Peruzzi, Grant street. She is with the Los Angeles county health department, and was formerly with the United States public health service in Cairo, Egypt.

January 3 WINTER TERM January 3
NEW CLASSES ARE NOW BEING ORGANIZED
 For People Who Want to Make a Fresh Start in the New Year
 Modern Facilities Are Available

DAY SCHOOL 9:00 to 4:00 Mon. thru Fri.	NIGHT SCHOOL 7:00 to 10:00 Mon. and Thurs.
---	---

Robertson School of Business
 40 N. Riverside Medford, Oregon Ph. 3-4264
 DECIDE NOW TO KNOW HOW

HAPPY NEW YEAR
 MILK PRODUCERS LEAGUE
 of
 JACKSON COUNTY