

A hospital cart now makes the rounds in Community hospital every day with magazines and books for patients and coffee and doughnuts for hospital visitors. Members of Rogue Valley Memorial Hospital auxiliary purchased the cart and operate it for the convenience of patients, their relatives and others in the hospital building. Pictured here are Mrs. C. H. Barrell (at left) and Mrs. Fred Morlan serving coffee to the Rev. Paul W. Barnett of Highland Avenue Friends church, Salem. Mrs. Barnett is a patient in the hospital, and her husband is a guest of Mrs. Barnett's aunt, Mrs. Alice Roberts of Central Point, during his wife's hospital stay. Mrs. Martin Sands is chairman of the cart service and Mrs. Claude E. McIntyre is co-chairman.

Diet, Fashions, Recipes In New Year's Resolutions

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY United Press Correspondent
New York—(U.P.)—For a few smug hours at this time of year every woman's future seems to grow more serene, filled with worthwhile projects and wondrous accomplishments.

The disciplined days ahead are forecast in a few neat lines headed "New Year's Resolutions."

Figures are better, dispositions are sunnier, homes are run more smoothly, husbands are happier and wardrobes are dreamier.

The dreams of glory aren't entirely foolish, psychologists say. Just putting them down on paper is a step toward accomplishing them.

The following resolutions are made not only in recognition of strictly personal put-off-till-tomorrow projects of 1955, but also with an eye to what the year 1956 will require of all women. I hereby resolve to:

beauty regimen that all women could copy.

5—Look with less admiration at those pointed-toed Italian pumps and more realism at my feet. The barefoot sandals they are designing for next summer require straight, unblemished toes.

Remember the Men
6—Pay more attention to men's clothes and remember to compliment them when their suits or neckties deserve it. It is amazing what a big kick the most sophisticated man gets out of having his taste in clothes complimented.

7—Become an expert at something before those contestants on the multi-thousand dollar quiz contests completely shatter my ego. Pick a category that will be practical in real life as well as on TV, though, like "Outstanding Bachelors" or "Money and How To Save It."

8—Try one new recipe a week. With all these new cookbooks and TV instruction in cooking it seems a shame to keep serving my guests pork chops creole.

9—Find out exactly how models outline their eyes so expertly with eyebrow pencil for that oriental-eyed look. It's going to be more important in makeup than ever this spring.

10—Find out if it's really true that men prefer long hair on women. A lot of us have been making a serious cutting mistake if it is true.

Open House Celebrates Couples Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. James E. McCue held open house December 18 at the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. The McCues live on Vashti way.

Attending were the couple's five children and their families: Mr. and Mrs. James Henry McCue, Jerry and Harold, Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. John K. McCue, Patrick and Jeanne, Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. McCue, Steven and Timothy, Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Compton, David, Michael and Susan Claire, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Crosby, Jimmie and Katherine, all of Medford.

Their two daughters, Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Crosby, poured punch, assisted by their daughters-in-law, Mrs. Marvin McCue and Mrs. John McCue. Mrs. James Henry McCue, another daughter-in-law, assisted. Mrs. Mintie Harris, Ukiah, Calif., who had been maid of honor for Mrs. McCue at the wedding in 1905, also served punch.

Others who assisted were Mrs. John Sutton, who cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Art Matson, Sacramento, Calif., a sister of the bride, who registered the guests and Mrs. Clifford Crosby who arranged the decorations.

A large golden ball, bearing the lettering, 1905-1955 was suspended from the ceiling above the wedding cake. An arch of gold poinsettias was placed over the piano, a Christmas scene framed with gold poinsettias decorated the entrance to the room, and a lighted Christmas tree completed room decorations.

The tea table was set with a silver tea and coffee service and on either side of the cake were pink candles. The punch table was decorated with a golden sleigh and reindeer holding pink candles.

Mr. McCue presented his wife with a diamond set wrist

Turkey and Waffles Good for Leftovers

Carbondale, Ill.—(U.P.)—The inevitable turkey leftover from the holiday dinner provides the basis for an informal, buffet type meal just as fitting for guests as for the family.

Let one member of the family "man" the chafing dish or electric saucpan and another the waffle iron to prepare this creamed turkey and mushroom combination suggested by home economists at Southern Illinois University.

Make enough batter to twice fill a large, four-section electric waffle-grill. In the chafing dish, put 4 tablespoons butter; 4 tablespoons of flour, and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Pepper, if desired. Add 2 cups of milk and have close by containers with 2 cups of diced cooked turkey and 1 cup sliced mushrooms.

Cook the sauce until it thickens, add the turkey and mushrooms and heat thoroughly. Serve hot, as sauce for each waffle as it's done.

CHURCH-GOING CAT

Rosiclare, Ill.—(U.P.)—Some of the members of the First Baptist church here may have missed a recent Sunday night service but a cat didn't. The tabby walked onto the platform, looked the place over and stayed through the sermon.

ALARMING ESSAY

Methuen, Mass.—(U.P.)—Because she sounded a false fire alarm, a 10-year-old school girl was ordered by the fire chief to write an essay entitled "The Hazards of False Alarms."

Extension Units to Study Care of Synthetic Fabrics

Several valley home extension units have announced meetings for the week.

The Reese Creek unit will meet at the home of Mrs. J. L. Duncan, Tuesday, January 3 at 10:30 a.m. The lesson will be on "The Art of Pressing New Fabrics," and will be given by Mrs. C. J. Kelley and Mrs. Ken Dufour. Lunch will be served by the hostess and table service will be required.

Anyone in that neighborhood who is interested is invited. Child care will be provided at the home of Mrs. Merle McGraw.

Upper Applegate—"Identification and Care of New Fabrics," will be the topic for Upper Applegate unit members when they meet Wednesday, January 4 at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Gail Buffington will be hostess to the group at her home. The meeting will continue until 3 p.m.

Mrs. Joanne Weatherford, county home extension agent, will demonstrate the subject. All women of the vicinity are invited.

Luncheon will be served by a committee made up of Mrs. Lee Wells, Mrs. Linn Valentine, Mrs. Harry Helems and Mrs. Otis Buck.

Those who attend should take table service, a soup bowl and a tray.

Griffin Creek—The Griffin Creek unit will meet Friday, January 6 at 11 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Glen V. Allen, 981 South Stage road. The lesson on "The Art of Pressing" will be given by Mrs. Wayne Christlieb and Mrs. James Davidson.

West Side—The West Side unit will meet Thursday, January 5, at the home of Mrs. Eston Humphrey. The meeting will begin at 1 p.m. with a short business session. The remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to program planning led by Mrs. Robert Russell. Coffee and cookies will be served.

Lake Creek—Lake Creek unit will meet Wednesday, January 4, at the home of Mrs. Foster Swigert, Antelope Road, at 10:30 a.m.

The lesson is "Art of Pressing New Fabrics" and project leaders are Mrs. W. Lemmon and Mrs. Swigert.

Some of the recipes given in the December lesson will be used in the January luncheon menu.

An invitation luncheon is extended to all women in the community to attend the meeting, and gain information on the new fabrics.

Past Commanders To Hold Meeting
Past Commanders club of the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary will meet Monday, January 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Bert Hickman, 539 North Holly street.
