

Kefauver Favors Small Exemption In Tax to 'Voters'

Washington — (U.P.) — Democratic presidential candidate Estes Kefauver says he wants election-year tax cuts for the "voters."

The Tennessee senator said although he is against any "great" tax reduction: "We ought to give a small additional exemption to voters" if a tax cut is feasible.

He said part of the revenue loss could be regained from higher taxes on stockholders.

Kefauver also said he is seriously considering entering the Florida and Minnesota primaries against Adlai E. Stevenson.

Field of Issues

Kefauver said there is "quite a field" of issues on which Democrats will differ with Republicans in the election-year session of the 84th Congress, which began today.

Kefauver said he favors a "substantial" increase in foreign economic aid this year. Asked whether this might rule out a tax cut, he said, "that may be the situation."

"But if it is possible to make a reduction, he said, then he thinks voters should be given a small increase in their $600 income tax exemption. He proposed repealing the special tax dividend credit granted stockholders by the Republican controlled 83rd Congress.

All Ought To Vote
Kefauver was asked whether he meant to include "non-voters" as well as "voters" in his proposed tax cut. He said that everybody "ought to be a voter" and he has heard it argued that "if they don't vote maybe they ought to pay a little more tax."

However, an aide said later that Kefauver meant the proposed cut to apply to all taxpayers and not just to those exercising their voting privilege.

He listed the top issues in Congress as farm, housing, resource development, social security, education, school construction, and "the way our foreign policy is being carried out." He said the conduct of foreign affairs will be a major issue in the presidential election campaign.

Reds Claiming Slogan, Vatican Organ Asserts
Vatican City — (U.P.) — The Vatican organ Osservatore Romano said today the Communists are trying to claim as their own the century-old Christian slogan, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

Osservatore noted that the Reds claimed even Pope Pius XII's Christmas call for a ban on atomic weapons as "a beautiful victory for us."
"It is the usual, recurring attempt to take over the heritage of others and exploit it for Communism's ends . . ." the church organ said.

OPERATION FOCUS

Hits Red regimes; Truth Dollars back it

MUNICH — Capitalizing on the insecurity and softness of the Hungarian Communist Party, Radio Free Europe and Free Europe Press have struck behind the Iron Curtain with the powerful Operation "Focus." It concentrates on 12 basic demands for the "National Opposition Movement."

Balloon-borne leaflets and round-the-clock radio announcements poured into Hungary. Within hours the 12 demands were known everywhere. The Communists began agitated protests. But the campaign continues with telling effect. You can help it spread!

Radio Free Europe broadcasts up to 20 hours of truth a day from 29 powerful transmitters. Free Europe Press sends its truth through the air by balloon—even distributing a regularly scheduled newspaper.

The Reds fear this truth. It builds hope and continued resistance. Each dollar sponsors a minute of truth. Send your truth dollars to: CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM, c/o Local Postmaster.
