Tornado Defeats Ashland 79-48 Klamath Falls Subdues Cavemen

Ashland Leads In First Quarto

Torrid shooting from the field and control of the backboards over most of the evening and its usual hard-running, driving game carried the Medford high Black Tornado to a 79 to 48 triumph over the Ashland Grizzlies on Friday night at Ashland in the Southern Oregon Conference maplecourt opener for both schools.

While the Tornado was roaring, Klamath Falls came through in another SO circuit 1956 inaugural at Grants Pass, subduing the Cavemen 68 to 57.

Medford's potent crew characteristically got off to a slow start. It was cold in its shooting during the first quarter and Ashland controlled the play in the early moments.

Quarterly bulges, all with Medford in front, were 12 to 9, 32 to 17 and 52 to 33. A spread of 79 to 46, a 33-point advantage was the widest of the night.

Dick McLaughlin and Bob Tisdell with seven and six field buckets, respectively, and with 16 points apiece, provided most of the fire power, and big Neil Plumley was the rebound tower of strength with 16 plucks in the Tornado assault.

Missing a number of good shots and harried by the spirited but eventually outbattled Lithians, the Black Tornado found the twine for only five field goals in 18 attempts in the first quarter and it took nine for 12 shooting in the second panel to bring the average up to 50 per cent which was maintained in the second half.

The Medfordites trailed only once in the fracas. But the bounce of the ball, an Ashland edge in fighting for it and Grizzly ability to be in the right place at the right time delayed the Tornado bid to get ahead and stay.

Ashland took opening lead in the game on a goal by Baker but Medford went ahead 5 to 2 on field and free shots by Dick Cople and a driver bucket by Tisdell. Stuart Baker dunked a singleton and Phil Sword dived from the gift line for a 5-all deadlock. Cople's pusher made it 7 to 5 to Medford but a longie by Lance Locke tied the game again. McLaughlin hit it close for 9 to 7 with 6 1/2 minutes played, and Medford kept the lead after that.

The Grizzlies were game and restrained the Tornado at various stages of the tussle but the Medford quint was able by streaks and bursts to build up its margin. And those surges came by six, eight and 10 points while the Tornado was blanking the Ashlanders.

Medford had a gap of 24 to 13 in the second quarter. Ashland cut it to nine points at 26 to 17 but a pair of goals, long and short, by McLaughlin and a corner cast by Lloyd Cearley brought the 32 to 17 midway count. In the third quarter the Medford advantage alternated at 13 and 15 markers until Tisdell and Cople connected in succession and McLaughlin scored twice in close for a 21-point 46 to 25 spread.

That edge slipped to 19 points but Tisdell and Cearley scored from that field and McLaughlin got a pair from the free line for a 25-tally, 60 to 35, Medford command. A full quint of Ashland reserves at this point hustled to cut the gap to 60 to 41. After that big try ended, Medford fought up to 66 to 44. A complete group of Tornado non-starters was running away from Ashland at the finish. Cople, playing with his back taped because of muscle ailments, was second high in Medford backboard work with seven plucks. Tisdell had six. The two and Cearley led the Tornado in ballhawking. Baker and Gene Parent each had nine retrieves for Ashland and Parent headed his team in scoring with 11. He was the only Grizzly to get more than two field goals.

KF Leads Whole Way

Ashland bettered Medford in one department making 18 out of 27 free shot tries to the Tornado's 15 out of 38.

At Grants Pass the KF Pelicans went in front at the start and kept there. Klamath led 16 to 11 at the quarter and after going to 20 to 11 never had its margin trimmed to less than six points. Margins were as wide as 13 to 16 points. Halftime score was 35 to 27. The Pels worked to 49 to 33 in the third panel but the score at the end 13 of the stanza represented just an eight point difference, 55 to 47. Edge was just 55 to 49 shortly after the fourth quarter began.

Klamath had the rebounding edge, but not a lopsided one, 37 to 29. Earl Tichenor, 6-5, recovered 17 for the Pels and Glenn Moore, 6-6, got nine.

Medford plays at Klamath Falls next Friday and Saturday.

Y, Prospect Contend in MIBL Hassle

A Monday night battle between the top two aggregations of the circuit is a feature this week as Medford Independent Basketball Leaguers barge full scale in to the second half of their regular race.

Eight games are on tap for the week with three on Monday. The big one tomorrow matches Prospect, unbeaten loop leader, and Medford YMCA, in second place with a lone loss at the hands of Prospect on the Prospect high court.

Two other games Monday will be at McLaughlin junior high here. Company A of the National Guard takes on Moose lodge at 7 p.m. Phoenix Merchants and Butte Falls are 8:30 p.m. rivals.

A pair of contests are set for Tuesday at the junior high. YMCA opposes Moose in the early one and Headquarters Company of the National Guard and Phoenix go at it in the second.

Prospect plays Company A and Hawkinson's meet Moose on Wednesday at the junior high while Headquarters travels to Butte Falls.

Bobby Brocato Wins San Pasqual Handicap

Arcadia, Calif. (U.P.)—Smooth-striding Bobby Brocato showed his heels by some four lengths Saturday to a small field of handicap performers as he captured the $27,800 San Pasqual handicap at Santa Anita.

After forcing the early pace of History Book for the first half mile, Bobby Brocato took the lead going into the turn and quickly opened up lengths of ground between him and the other six in the mile and a sixteenth race. Nagpuni got up for second and Prince Hill was third.

Mangrum Leads LA Golf Tourney

Los Angeles (U.P.)—Undismayed by a 63 fired earlier in the day by red-hot Tommy Bolt, veteran Lloyd Mangrum of Los Angeles carved out his second straight 66 Saturday to take the lead at the half-way mark in the $30,000 Los Angeles Open golf tournament with a 132 score.

Starting late in the day and not half way through his round when he heard that Bolt had shot a record-shattering 63 to go with an earlier 71, Mangrum put together nines of 33-33 for his mark.

Ten Under Par

That brought his record for 36 holes to 10 under on the Rancho course which has a par of 71 and which veteran professionals claim is one of the toughest municipal layouts they have had the pleasure of playing in recent years.

It started to appear that this would develop into a two-man feud. Mangrum led the field by six strokes. Bolt was in front by four.

Despite Mangrum's spectacularly steady golf Bolt stole the show today. Alternately cursing, smiling, throwing his clubs or dancing a jig, the terrible-tempered Texan, now playing out of Chattanooga, Tenn., shot eight birdies during the round and had no bogies. He had a 71 yesterday and a 36-hole total of 134.

He was out in three-under-par 33 with a two-stroke out-of-bounds penalty, mind you, back in an even 30 on a course that has a par of 36-37-71.

OSC QUINT DRONES 59-40 OVER WASHINGTON STATERS

Pullman, Wash. (U.P.)—Oregon State droned its way to a 59-40 victory over Washington State Friday night in the Pacific Coast conference basketball opener for both teams.

Oregon State stumbled to an early lead and was never headed, but only because WSC was even colder than the slightly cool Beavers.

Last year's Northern division champs led 25-12 at the end of the first half in which the Cougars scored just two field goals—one with nine minutes gone and one with a minute and a half to play.

WSC hit only 7.4 per cent from the floor during the first period while Oregon State was hitting 30 per cent. Big Center Dave Gambee scored nearly half of Oregon State's points with 23 while forward Larry Beck led the Cougars with 12, eight of them on free throws.

Oregon State controlled the backboards in the slow moving game and had a slight height advantage. The two teams meet here again tonight.

Lloyd Hoffine Headed Red Raider Scorers in Pre-Conference Play

Ashland—Lloyd Hoffine paced the Southern Oregon college basketball scorers through their eight pre-conference contests, according to tabulations prepared by Len Weber, Red Raider statistician.

Hoffine led the club in field goals with 127, total points with 145 and in average per game with 18.1. He also was top man in free shot average with an .820 record.

Close on Hoffine's heels in total scoring was Bill Hollingsworth with 141. Hollingsworth also was second in per game average with 17.6. He shot from the field at an even .500 clip for the best mark among those who played most and he was first in number of free shots made with 61.

In rebound retrieving Hoffine was also leader with 75. Dale Bates plucked 73 and Hollingsworth 70.

The Raiders outscored foes 530 to 511 or 66.2 points to 63.8 per game.
