

Miss Baker Wed To Jack Dugger

Trail—Miss Darlyn Jean Suedell Baker became the bride of Jack Joe Dugger in 6 o'clock evening rites read December 27 by the Rev. J. Thomas Dixon at First Methodist church, Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Baker, Trail, parents of the bride attended the couple. Mr. Baker also gave his daughter in marriage.

For her wedding the bride wore a brown suit.

She formerly lived in Yucaipa, Calif., and has attended Sacred Heart school at Redlands, Calif., St. Mary's school, Medford, and was enrolled as a sophomore at Prospect high school.

The bridegroom lived for 13 years at Trail and now is employed as a logger at Bridgeville, Calif. He attended Trail school and Prospect high school and served for four years in the Army.

Nurses To Hear State Officials

The meeting date for the local chapter, Oregon State Nurses association, has been changed so that members may have the privilege of meeting two officials in their profession, Mrs. Genevieve Tachella, president of OSNA, and Mrs. Nova Young, civil defense nurse consultant.

The meeting is set now for Wednesday, January 11 at 8 p.m., and will be held in Sacred Heart hospital recreation room.

All registered nurses of the vicinity who are interested are invited.

A review of a speech made by Dr. Richard Steiner, pastor of the Portland Unitarian church, at a convention of OSNA last fall, will be given by Miss Dorothy Collard.

Schmidts Travel East and South

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schmidt, South Pacific highway, returned last week after a trip east and to southern California. The Schmidts left here in October.

The couple visited their son, Lt. Rodney Schmidt of the United States Navy, Mrs. Schmidt and two children in Charleston, S. C. over the Thanksgiving holiday. The officer has been assigned to duty in London, England, and his family will accompany him to the new post.

Enroute west, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt stopped in New Orleans, La., and after arriving in California spent some time in Ontario, Calif., where they formerly lived. They were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trask, San Diego, for Christmas, and also visited another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stockdale and a brother of Mrs. Schmidt in Los Angeles.

A third daughter of the couple, Mrs. Jack Draper, and Mr. Draper are the parents of a son born December 17 in Alband, Ore. This is the fifth child born to the Drapers.

Lanford-Ferguson Rites Held in Methodist Church

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vaughn Lanford, who were married December 31 in First Methodist church, Medford, will make their home in Hillsboro, Ore. Mrs. Lanford is the former Carma Helen Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ferguson, 888 Second avenue, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Nancy Lanford, 214 Willamette avenue, Medford.

The double ring ceremony was read at one o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. J. Thomas Dixon, and about 100 guests were present. Mrs. D. G. MacDougall was soloist, and Mrs. Richard Schuchard was at the organ.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon velvet which she had designed herself. It was trimmed with seed pearls and worn with a pearl-trimmed Juliet cap, which held her finger-tip length veil. The bride carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white lace-covered Bible. The Bible belonged to the bride's maternal grandmother and was a wedding gift.

Miss Betty Miller, Portland, was honor attendant and also attending the bride were Mrs. Wayne Shaw, and Miss Nancy Reine, both Eugene. They wore red chiffon velvet frocks with matching headbands and all carried sprays of cedar centered with white lighted candles and decorated around the base with red and silver Christmas balls. The bouquets, which were sprayed with white snow, were designed by the bride.

Marilyn Mae Ferguson, niece of the bride from Idaho Falls, Idaho, was flower girl. Her frock was also of red chiffon velvet worn with matching headband and slippers.

Mr. Ferguson gave his daughter in marriage and Jerry Rotert, The Dalles, Ore., was

Simpson Family Home From Trip; Visits in Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Simpson, 801 King street, arrived home Friday evening after a three-week trip to southwest states and Mexico.

They were accompanied by their four children, Ferris, Martha, Susan and Sally.

At Mexicali, Baja, Mexico, they visited Mrs. Simpson's uncle, Lloyd Loudon, and his family. Mr. Loudon, vice-president and general manager of the Mexicali Industrial Power company, conducted the group on a trip further into old Mexico.

They returned to the states by way of San Luis to Yuma, Ariz., and at San Diego, Calif., they spent the New Year holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McMullin and family, until last October, residents of Medford. Mr. McMullin, a Boy Scout executive, was transferred to the California city from here.

In the Los Angeles area they spent some time at Disneyland and were guests at Disneyland hotel. The family also visited at Santa Barbara.

En route south they went by way of San Francisco and Palm Springs.

They reported exceptionally good weather conditions on their entire trip, and remarked on the cotton industry which has grown to large proportions around Mexicali; on begonias, poinsettias and gladiolus in blossom on New Year's day and the harvest of tomatoes in fields north of San Diego.

New Board Elected For Duplicate Club

Board members for the new year were elected by Medford Duplicate club members January 3 during a master point play. They are Howard Boyd, Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, Miss Isobel Stuart, Mrs. Richard Milestone, George Choate, Jack C. Harris and George Rode.

Winners in the north-south positions during the play were Miss Stuart and John Solheim, 117 points; Don Reverman and Jack Harris, 110½; Mrs. William Kennedy and Roy Pruitt, 104½; and Mrs. Paul McDuffee and Mrs. George McIntyre, 91.

The east-west positions were won by Mrs. W. W. Stevenson and Mr. Kennedy, 97½ points; Mrs. Al Gilhouse and Mr. Rode, 90½; Mr. and Mrs. Choate, 89½, and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sander-son, 87.

Mrs. McDuffee and Mrs. C. L. Howard were hostesses for the occasion.

Two Couples Give New Year Party At Emery Home

Mr. and Mrs. Don Emery and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCulley were hosts New Year's eve at a party at the Emery home, 112 Summit avenue. Games and dancing provided entertainment and balloons and other articles appropriate for the occasion decorated the rooms.

At the event were Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Jack, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Keith, Talent; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Balfour, Riddle; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Fixsen, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Raie, Mrs. Vera Funk and Mrs. Dean Mayfield, all of Medford.

Hogans Attend East-West Game

Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Siskiyou court, arrived home the first of the week after being in San Francisco for the New Year week end. They were accompanied south by their daughter, Miss Sharon Hogan, a junior at the University of Arizona, who had been here for the holidays.

In the Bay city they met their son, Pfc. Michael Hogan, who is stationed at Lake Mead base, near Las Vegas, with the Marine corps. They also met there Miss Hogan's roommate from the university and the two students continued to Tucson the first of the week.

The group attended the East-West football game and New Year's even the stage comedy, "Anniversary Waltz."

Medford Family Home from South

Returning this week from Los Angeles after a two-week visit were Mrs. Dean Stacy, her son Robert Stacy, and the latter's children, Bobby, Kathy and Laurie, 215 Vancouver avenue.

The group visited Mr. Stacy's aunt, Mrs. Opal Cromwell and his grandmother, Mrs. Charles B. Stacy. The elder Mrs. Stacy, formerly a long-time Medford resident, observed her 85th birthday Nov. 28.

California Couple Married In Church Service at Yreka

Hornbrook, Calif.—Miss Marilyn Burns of Hornbrook became the bride Saturday, December 24 of Leland Eugene Stickney of Hilt, in a 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony at the First Methodist church in Yreka. The Rev. Harold Coleman performed the rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burns, and their home at Hornbrook was scene of the reception.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Victor van de Weghe of Hilt, and Edwin Stickney of Sacramento. He recently returned from Okinawa where he was stationed for the past six months with the Navy. He was born and lived for some time at Central Point, Ore., and was employed by the Southern Pacific Railway company at Medford before entering the service.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of rosepoint imported lace styled with fitted bodice and queen anne collar, and full skirt of net worn over tulle. Her Juliet cap, of lace to match her gown, was trimmed with emoroidery and shells of pearl, and held her fingertip length veil. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and white carnations in a circle of ice-blue net.

The bride also carried a lace handkerchief which originally belonged to her maternal grandmother. For "something borrowed," she wore a pair of pearl earrings and a pearl necklace.

Mrs. Alfred King, matron of honor, wore a rose colored taffeta gown styled identically to that worn by the bride.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jo-Ann Burns, a cousin of the bride, Miss Ines Michelon, Miss Carol Phillips and Miss Marilyn Cummins. The latter three were roommates of the bride at Chico State college. Their matching gowns were of ice-blue taffeta, also with fitted bodices, off-the-shoulder necklines, and floor-length full skirts.

All the bride's attendants wore wristlets of white gardenias and blue forget-me-nots.

Holiday Visitors Leave for South; Wedding Day Set

Miss Irene Ann Williams and her brother, George K. Williams, have returned to San Jose, Calif., after visiting through the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Williams, 121 Ashland avenue. They were accompanied by Miss Williams' fiancé, Harold D. Bruner, also of San Jose. The couple's wedding is set for January 28 at First Methodist church, Medford.

George K. Williams is a student at San Jose Junior college and Miss Williams attends San Jose State college part time and also is employed as a secretary at a doctors' clinic.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wagner, 112 Cottage street, have returned home after spending the holidays visiting with their sons and daughters in Santa Monica, San Diego and Los Angeles, Calif.

Parents Observe 77th Anniversary

Mrs. Joe Clark and son, Gail Jensen, 229 North Ivy street, returned home the first of the week from Fairview, Utah, where they attended the 77th wedding anniversary observance December 11 of Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson. It is believed, Mrs. Clark related, that her parents have been married the longest time of any couple in this country.

While in Fairview they also celebrated Mrs. Peterson's 95th birthday anniversary which was December 28. Mr. Peterson was 95 last September.

They also attended the wedding of another son of Mrs. Clark, Kent Jensen, to Miss Lucy Nelson. The bride is a student majoring in children's work at the agricultural college at Manhattan, Kan. The bridegroom is a pre-dental student at Brigham Young university at Provo, Utah.
