

Church and Stage Again Merged by Bishop Company

The English theater, as most people know, was born before the altar of the church. The long years of separation between church and stage is being brought to an end by The Bishop's Company, first modern company to reunite the forces of religion and theater.

The First Presbyterian and First Methodist churches of Medford will give local residents a chance to share in this exciting reunion.

Alan Paton's "Cry, the Beloved Country" will be presented at the First Presbyterian church Thursday, January 12, at 8 p.m. It will star Hollywood's Hal Bokar, in person, and James Wheaton, with a distinguished cast including Merle Harbach, Bill Wahl, Elizabeth Wolfe, Minna Caldwell, Joseph Bellesi, Carl Farrer, Jon Baisch, Phyllis Goodmiller and Craig Beardsley.

Return Friday
The following night, Friday, at 8 o'clock, "The Devil and Daniel Webster," by Stephen Vincent Benet, will be presented at the First Methodist church. The group will return to the Presbyterian church Saturday evening, January 14 to present Christopher Fry's "The Boy with a

Club Presidents To Be Honored At Temple Session

A no-hostess luncheon at 12:30 p.m. will precede the stated session of Zuleima temple. Daughters of the Nile scheduled for 2 o'clock at the Masonic temple, Grants Pass, Saturday, January 14. The 13 Zuleima Nile clubs and their presidents will be honored at the luncheon.

Mrs. H. S. Bullock, Grants Pass, is luncheon chairman. Those from Medford who plan to attend are asked to make reservations with Mrs. E. R. Hoppe, telephone 2-9265, by noon Wednesday, January 11. The business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Raymond Reter, temple queen.

Cart," which also starts at 8 p.m.

The Bishop's company includes six plays in its repertoire and has been in continuous production since 1952. It has concluded two national tours and is currently on a third which will again be coast-to-coast and extended to 15 months.

Adaptation of Paton's novel was made by Phyllis Beardsley, founder of the Bishop's company and former staff member of the Oregon Shakespearean festival at Ashland.—B.P.

Brothers Meet After 33 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ludwig, 511 Austin street, have been hosts recently to a number of visitors.

Among those here were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ludwig, Bayfield, Colo., Mr. Ludwig's brother and sister-in-law. It was the first time in 33 years that the two brothers had been together.

Here during the holidays were the Ludwig's granddaughter, Mrs. Don Stoner, Mr. Stoner and their three sons, Donnie, Bryan and Pat, Torrance, Calif. The couple also visited Mrs. Stoner's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Matheny, Jacksonville, and other relatives.

Here for the New Year week end were the Ludwig's son and daughter-in-law, Cmdr. and Mrs. Wallace Ludwig and daughters, Sheri and Sandra. The commander is stationed at Treasure Island.

The Ludwigs also were guests of Mrs. Ludwig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence, Euclid avenue, while here.

Health Education To Be PTA Topic

Lone Pine Parent Teacher association members will discuss health education at their meeting Tuesday, January 10 at 8 p.m., in the school gymnasium.
