Actress Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier III of Monaco announced their engagement at Philadelphia last week. The 25-year-old beauty, who has had some of the best roles Hollywood has to offer, met the prince in Monte Carlo last year when she made a movie there.

Actress, Prince Parted; Pair Attends Formal Ball

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
 United Press Correspondent
 New York—(U.P.)—The romance of actress Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier III of Monaco turned into a long distance betrothal last night when the two left for opposite ends of the United States.
 Miss Kelly left New York late yesterday for Hollywood and the sovereignty of the tiny principality of Monaco, on the French Riviera, leaves for a few weeks of deep sea fishing in Florida.
 The two, who announced their engagement Thursday in Philadelphia, probably will have to whisper their sweet nothings over the long distance telephone lines until some time next month when Rainier makes a tour of the West.
Films To Finish
 "Her Grace," as she already is known in the film world, must finish a movie, "The Swan," and do another film, "High Society" before she can marry the heir to the house of Grimaldi, probably in April.

Monaco Citizens Want Grace Kelly To Continue Career

Monte Carlo—(U.P.)—Monaco citizens said today they want Grace Kelly to go on making pictures when she becomes their Princess—but after she has had some babies.
 The Monegasques made it plain they want Miss Kelly both in person and on the screen following her marriage to Prince Rainier III of this tiny principality.
 It was different with Rainier's grandfather, Prince Louis II, who married a Parisian actress. The Monegasques never quite accepted her.
 "Acting is so artistic," said Mrs. Sylvie Romangani. "I should be very unhappy to think she was giving up so great a career on our account."
 "Let her marry our Prince, and then perhaps, after she has had some babies, maybe she can make another film."
 Another Monegasque, Mrs. Marie-Louise Castellanu, was asked what the people of Monaco would think of seeing Princess Grace on the screen in the arms of, say Clark Gable.
 "It's art, after all," said Mrs. Castellanu. "Everybody knows it's just acting. I hope she goes on making films."
 An official spokesman, meanwhile, branded "absurd" a report that Miss Kelly's movies should be banned here to avoid any possible embarrassment arising from scenes showing the Prince's bride-to-be in the arms of another man.
Forester To Talk For Next Session Of Phoenix Group
 Phoenix—Lewis L. Simpson, forester of the Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association, will speak and show films on conservation at a meeting of the Phoenix Garden club, Friday, January 13. The meeting will open at 6:30 p.m., in the Community club building.
 A business session will be held at the conclusion of a covered dish dinner for members and their families. The slides will be shown after the meeting.
 Those who attend should take table service.
