A Nichol's Worth of... Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Feature Writer

Washington — (U.P.) — What's new in Washington: Edward E. Mansur Jr., reading clerk of the Senate, admitted he was a little fidgety when he stood before the microphone to read President Eisenhower's message last week. After Ed finished without hardly any bobbles he said in the Senate snack bar: "I was scared because I knew if I got a frog in my throat it would show up in every paper in the country."

Sen. Johnson, who knocked over a buck himself, had the whole lot dressed up into what he likes to call "deer meat sausage." It's ground up and mixed with pork. Pretty nice eating, too.

Rep. Joel T. Broyhill, the Virginia Republican, is a sworn enemy of brevity. In the last congressional directory, it took him 57 lines to tell all about himself. That was a record then. So is it in the new directory, for the House, at least. The same 57 lines.

In the Senate, last year's autobiographical champ was Strom Thurmond with 60 lines. The senator edited that down to 22 lines this time.

A couple of funny things happened when the press gals held a dinner for Congress, Republican Sen. William F. Knowland of California arose and allowed that in the coming year the "boys are going to take their hair down—those who can." Seated next to the man from the West was a man from Texas, Speaker Sam Rayburn, the Democrat, who wears hardly a fringe, much less a full crop. The gentleman from the Southwest was a good sport about it.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson, the majority leader, is proud that he is able after a heart seizure to stalk steer. The other day he saw some wheels down to Central Texas, and most of them did all right. Sen. George Smathers (D-Fla.) got one deer. Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) almost set a record by downing a 10-pointer.

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The Air Force and Civil Air Patrol said they have called off the search for the wreckage of a Piper Tri-Pacer, which disappeared off the Van Duzen river near Fortuna, Calif., with two Southern California men aboard.

The two services said they decided Monday that any further press of the search would be futile.

The CAP said an aircraft wheel and tire found floating in the river 20 miles southeast of Fortuna apparently did not belong to the missing plane.

The Tri-Pacer, which vanished on a flight from Red Bluff to Eureka, was piloted by W. F. Bagwell, Redlands, Calif., and carried a passenger, Roy Harman, Redlands.

Major Supplier of Canned Laughter Says Video Producers Abusing Its Use

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Correspondent

New York — (U.P.) — Thomas Valentino, one of the two major suppliers of canned laughter, declared today that TV producers were abusing the use of phony guffaws and giggles in filmed comedies.

"It may sound strange since I make a living by selling the stuff," said Valentino, "but it's getting to the point where you can't enjoy a TV show anymore. The way they're using laughter it sounds as phony as a two-cent piece. I'm in favor of cutting it out of programs altogether—I don't have to be told when to laugh."

Valentino, who has been selling sound effects records for 23 years, markets the bulk of his noisome products to the networks and independent film producers. His slogan is: "From a cat's meow to a lion's roar. From a pistol shot to a world war."

Spinning one of his laugh records on a turntable, Valentino demonstrated how it was possible to build up a variety of laugh effects just by maneuvering the controls.

He said that many of these records are used by TV producers to fill in gaps between scenes or to make a scene seem longer than it is. He said that some of the records are used to make a scene seem funnier than it is.

Valentino said that he had been in the business for 23 years and that he had seen the industry change a great deal. He said that he had seen the industry go from a time when producers used to pay for their own laughter to a time when they would use canned laughter.

He said that he had seen the industry go from a time when producers used to pay for their own laughter to a time when they would use canned laughter.
