

Bathing Suit Pictures Blamed For Attack on California Beauty

Santa Ana, Calif. — (U.P.) — A 25-year-old father confessed today that bathing suit pictures of beauty contest winner Donna May Schurr, 18, drove him to kidnap and rape her a second time even though he had a hunch he would be caught.

Sheriff's deputies said Jack James Walker, married and the father of a child, readily admitted he had twice attacked the blue-eyed, brown-haired beauty by threatening her with a knife.

Identifies Assailant

Walker was identified as her assailant by Miss Schurr, who was a runner-up in the Miss USA contest and placed fourth as Miss California of 1955 in the Miss Universe international beauty pageant.

Walker, an upholsterer, was captured Tuesday night by Miss Schurr's fiancé in a 100-mile-an-hour chase shortly after the second attack.

Walker told deputies, "I had a feeling I'd get caught." Deputies said he seemed unperturbed by the charges against him. He was booked on suspicion of kidnaping, burglary and criminal attack.

Developed 'Yen' for Girl

Walker said he developed "a yen" for Miss Schurr when she posed for an advertising firm for which he works. The suspect told deputies he first attacked Miss Schurr last March 26 when she worked in a drive-in theater.

The second attack was described by the hysterical beauty. She told deputies she heard a noise in her home Tuesday night. "I saw him (Walker) coming down the hall," the beauty told officers. "He had a knife in his hand. I grabbed for the knife and it cut me across the palm of my left hand."

The beauty said "we drove to an unoccupied housing tract" near her home. Walker, she said, forced her into a partly-completed house and criminally assaulted her.

Squad Car Joins Chase

The fiancé, Lloyd Brett, 21, arrived at Miss Schurr's home just as the kidnaper was released.

ing her. Brett drove in pursuit of Walker's car in a high-speed, wild race through dark and narrow back streets. A California Highway Patrol squad car noticed the chase and joined in.

Orange County Sheriff James Musick said he would ask the death penalty for Walker under California's "Little Lindbergh Law," which allows a death sentence in kidnap cases in which the victim is harmed or injured.

Woman's Gun Spree Puzzle To Husband

Fowler, Calif. — (U.P.) — A 5-year-old Patrick, were discovered yesterday in the McNamara home, 11 miles south of Fresno, Calif. "It's about the worst thing that ever happened here," Winslow said.

Mrs. McNamara had been under treatment for a "nervous condition" about six months ago, Winslow said.

"McNamara told me that the doctors said she could get upset easily, that anything could get to her."

Bodies Found in Home

Police Chief Elden Winslow said the bodies of Mrs. Vidella C. McNamara, 32, and her sons, 3-year-old James Randolph and 5-year-old Patrick, were discovered yesterday in the McNamara home, 11 miles south of Fresno, Calif. "It's about the worst thing that ever happened here," Winslow said.

Mrs. McNamara had been under treatment for a "nervous condition" about six months ago, Winslow said.

"McNamara told me that the doctors said she could get upset easily, that anything could get to her."

Winslow said the youngest child was shot as he was asleep in his tiny bed.

Missed First Shot

"The other youngster evidently tried to escape. You could see he started to run. Evidently the woman shot at him once and missed him. Then she shot at him again. She got him in the hip and the boy fell on the floor."

"Then she stood over him and shot him in the back. The bullet went through his lungs and heart just the way it did with the other child."

"Maybe it was my fault. Maybe it was hers," McNamara told the police. "We've had some trouble. But I can't understand why she killed the kids."

Watchdogs

The best watchdogs are females. When it comes to driving away evil doers, the female of the species is much deadlier than the male. The male watchdog often falls for a friendly approach. He can also be tempted with a bone. The female can neither be fooled nor tempted. Experienced burglars know this and avoid trying to break into a house guarded by a female dog.

How long before an expected birth should a career woman give up working at the office? How long after the birth should she return to the job? In Uruguay the law is that a working mother must give up her position for a month before her child's birth, and rest for a month after. Her position is held for her. She is given half pay for the period. It is also a law in Uruguay that every employed woman must work seated. No standing up on the job is allowed for females. In Uruguay they still think the female is the weaker sex.

So They Say

The lucky day for Pisceans (Feb. 21-Mar. 20) is Friday. Their lucky numbers are one and two . . . Gemini (May 21-June 21) women usually have several husbands. That's because they dislike monotony and living with the same man too long bores them. Or, so say the stargazers. (Note—The Duchess of Windsor was born under Gemini.)

Horses and Women

Say, young fellow, are you trying to win the affectionate regard of a glamorous young female? What technique are you employing? Are you using psychology in your campaign to win the lady's heart and hand? According to some psychologists, a very effective way to advance your interests with a young woman is to give her a pet nickname. Call her "precious," "Bobo," "Lovey," "Honeybunch" or something along those lines. If she is redhaired, be certain to get something connected with her hair coloring in your pet name. Call her "Rusty," "Brick-top" or something similar.
