

Dons Go Out To Deadlock Win Record

By HENRY RIEGER
San Francisco—(U.P.)—Only a miracle—in the form of a major upset tonight—can keep the nation's number one University of San Francisco basketball team from becoming the third team in collegiate history to ring up 39 consecutive victories.

Potential victim 39 is Fresno State, a team with a 6-3 record compiled against opposition generally inferior to that which the Dons have upended in winning their first 12 games this season.

If San Francisco whips Fresno State at Fresno tonight, and even the staunchest Fresno fan doubts that the Dons will drop this one, it jointly will share honors with the 1937 Long Island team along with the 1937 Long Island university club and the 1942 Seton Hall five.

And the Dons reckon to accomplish this feat in two seasons whereas their predecessor pair The Dons stand to become the first to make it 40.

Two weeks from tomorrow night, following a two week lay-off for mid-year exams, San Francisco resumes the torrid pace in what could be the toughest game of them all, that with the vastly improved University of California quint.

The game will be played in Cal's gym where the Bears seldom lose even in an off year.

Caveman Grapplers Defeat Medford High Team 36-23

Grants Pass high defeated Medford 36 to 23 here last night in a wrestling engagement.

Medford's Tornado crew took five of the counting matches and Grants Pass eight. Cavemen won six of their tussles by pins and Medfordites three by that method. The Tornado gained one decision and took one match by forfeit.

Fred Baker, 122-pounder, Gordon Owsley, 129, Ron Lingren, 140, Mel Morgan, 191, of Medford, beat GP foes and Mel Tubert took the forfeit in the unlimited class.

In one of the top matches Ray Hilton, Medford, lost in points 4 to 2 to Dave Flipse, Grants Pass, who was a Kansas state champ last year.

Baker won by a fall from Taylor, Owsley pinned Whiting and Morgan took a fall over Bastian. Lingren decided Schufeldt by a wide 8 to 0 margin.

Charles Finch pinned DeArmond, Grants Pass, to win one of seven exhibitions for the Tornado.

Medford grapplers go to Klamath Falls next Thursday.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE

SPORTS

TORNADO, PELS MIX TONIGHT, SATURDAY

Klamath Falls, rated in pre-season the team to beat, is host to Medford high, the defending champion, tonight and Saturday night in Southern Oregon Conference basketball and the series could indicate well how the rest of the January and February campaign could go—whether it looms as a tight race or whether one team will command it.

If either team can sweep the series, it will take a two-game lead in the conference. If the Black Tornado and Pelicans divide, they will remain knotted for the leadership.

Klamath's greater height and the fact that it is playing at home gives it the favored position. But there were reports this morning that the Tornado is in full health, mentally up and dead set on bringing home a pair of victories.

The Pelicans have added incentive in ambitions to stop a six-game Medford winning string over them. In 1954 Klamath won the first two games of league conflict and Medford the final two. Last year Medford swept all four from the Pels.

Statewide Interest
Rivalry at Klamath Falls takes on state wide interest also because the two adversaries are ranked among the top 10 in the Associated Press poll. Medford

Hedrick 8th Raps Ashland

Hedrick junior high eighth grade hoopmen drubbed Ashland 56 to 20 here yesterday.

The Hornet crew turned in a fine ball game as a team and controlled the backboards fiercely. Quarterly advantages all favored Hedrick 14 to 1, 4 to 7 and 46 to 40.

Coach Berny Averill used 16 Hornet players.

Hedrick also won the seventh grade game 31 to 12 with Dan Sieg and Stan Dowson leading the scoring.

has No. 4 billing and Klamath Falls No. 7. While the Tornado is rated ahead of Klamath in the statewide view, opinion within the conference, itself, gives the nod to the Pelicans. It will take this series to tell the tale.

Coach Frank Roelandt of the Tornado as usual has not narrowed his selections for starting five. He'll pick again from six, Dick Cople, Dick McLaughlin, Neil Plumley, Bob Tisdell, Lloyd Cearley and John Foust.

Coach Don Peterson may call on Earle Tichenor, Glenn Moore, Dave Pepple, Donn Taucher and Butch Klampton. Moore is 6-6 and Tichenor 6-5 while Plumley is the tallest Medfordite at a listed 6-4.

Junior varsity teams of the two schools will be foes both nights in the preliminaries. McLoughlin ninth grade of Medford will play a 4:30 p.m. hassle with the Klamath freshman on Saturday.

PAL Boxers Slate Bouts

Medford Police Athletic league will have its next boxing card on Saturday, February 11, and PAL boxers are scheduled to appear on a number of cards and in several tournaments between now and April.

The Medford ring presentation will be at St. Mary's gym.

Among the events in which Medford glove tossers will vie are the Tacoma Golden Gloves tourney on January 20 and 21, the Portland PAL Fight for Lives polio benefit card on February 4, the Seattle Golden Gloves meet on February 21 and 22, the Golden Gloves tournament on March 23 and 24 and the state AAU tourney in Portland in April.

Local boxers will also be on cards on January 27 at Eugene and on January 28 at Klamath Falls.

Larry Lewis, Oregon AAU flyweight champ, and Loren Christian will be Medford scrappers at Tacoma. Lewis has been rated favorite in his weight. On the Fight for Lives card he will face Dan Morgan, Pan-American games finalist. Christian and Pucias also will be on the Portland show. Ten men Oregon and Washington teams will compete.

Grade Quintets Have First Frays

The Jeff-SM fray went overtime.

Musial, Schoendienst Sign Card Contracts

By UNITED PRESS
Slugging Stan Musial of the Cardinals has signed his sixth straight contract for $80,000, and as ruts go, that's a mighty fine one to fall into.

At the same time, Musial's room mate and sidekick, Al (Red) Schoendienst, signed a $40,000 pact for the third straight year, and that can't exactly be called a bad habit, either.

SKI TOURNEY SET

Spout Springs, Ore.—(U.P.)—The annual Whitman college invitational ski meet will be held here this weekend. The University of Idaho Vandals are favored to win the meet against teams from Washington, Washington State College, Wenatchee J.C., University of British Columbia, Portland University, College of Puget Sound, Whitman and the University of Alaska.

Frank Albert Embarks on Coaching Job

By DON THACKERY

San Francisco—(U.P.)—Frankie Albert, who used the prerogative of a left-hander to change his mind about his future, today embarked on his new career as head coach of the San Francisco Forty-Niners professional football team.

Albert, who had often said he was not interested in a coaching job, was given the position as field boss of the Forty-Niners yesterday.

"I've always been unpredictable—just a left-hander," said the former All-American quarterback from Stanford who also put in an outstanding career as T-formation QB for the team he will head.

Albert succeeds Norman (Red) Strader at the Forty-Niner helm and becomes the youngest head coach in the professional ranks. The original college T-formation quarterback with Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford teams is 35—a year older than Paul Brown was in 1946 when he took over control of the Cleveland Browns.

Co-owner of the Forty-Niners Tony Morabito, made the announcement of Albert's appointment at a news conference yesterday and hailed Frankie as an "inspirational leader" who has been connected with the Forty Niners since their beginning days.

Albert, who threw many a left-handed pass and punted many a football with his left foot while directing the club, becomes the third San Francisco coach in as many years.

MIBL Chase Bit Tighter

MIBL STANDINGS:

Phoenix 7 3 778
Hawkinson Tire Tread 6 3 667
Company A (NG) 4 5 444
Butte Falls 3 6 333
Headquarters Co. (NG) 2 8 200
Moose Lodge 0 10 000

Race along the leaders of the Medford Independent Basketball League tightened up a bit this week as the Phoenix Merchants recorded a pair of victories and Company A of the National Guard came up with the upset of the season.

The week saw Prospect suffer its first loss but there was little shuffling in actual positions in the standings.

Company A roused up from its second division spot to spill the Prospectors but the upper Rogue quintet maintained a one-game lead over second place YMCA by nicking that aggregation. Phoenix with its triumphs pulled into a tie with the Y in the standings. Hawkinson Tire Tread was a game behind in fourth spot after a win over Moose Lodge.

Guard Presses, Runs
Two wins in the week by Company A enabled it to take fifth place alone.

MIBL action resumes next week.

The Guardsmen in nipping Prospect utilized a full court press, control of the backboards and a fast break to overcome a 23 to 47 deficit and get a 58 to 57 final edge. While the Guard defense was keeping the Prospect club from getting good shots, Joe Nolan was the kingpin in getting NG control of the ball with his rebounding.

The fast break gave Company A numerous close in shots. Vern Parent led the scoring with 26 points and came through with some vital steals.
