

No Gridiron Rule Changes Suggested

Long Beach, Calif. — (U.P.) — Everyone in the whole, wide nation liked the way college football was played in 1955.

At least that's the impression gained by the Football Rules committee as it went into its second day of the winter session here today.

The good news came about when the subcommittee on rule changes, headed by Coach Lou Little of Columbia university, failed to suggest a single change in the rules. It was the first time in the 50-year history of the committee that some coach hadn't suggested a change in the rules.

TV Something Else

But while the rules appear to be set for 1956, the television situation is something else again.

The NCAA council wound up its sessions Thursday by appointing Howard Grubbs, executive secretary of the Southwest Athletic conference, as chairman of the TV committee—and among the things on the agenda was a suggestion that the group look into the possibilities of pay-as-you-go television.

GP, Ashland Have Scraps

Ashland—Ashland High Grizzlies will meet the Grants Pass Cavemen on the local court Saturday night, January 14, after a fray tonight at the Climate city.

It will be a battle for the basement, or to keep out of the basement, of the Southern Oregon conference as both teams have no wins two losses records.

On paper the two teams should play a very close game. In the Jamboree at Klamath Falls the Grizzlies topped the Cavemen but since the Grizzlies have lost five straight games and the Cavemen showed strength by downing the Cleveland high team of Portland, the Grizzlies came to fight against Medford and although they lost by 14 points on the Tornado floor, they showed the makings of a good team.

Grizzlies

Coach Al Simpson has been juggling his squad somewhat but it appears that the following boys will trot out on the Ashland court this Saturday night for the starting lineup: Gene Parent, Stuart Baker, forwards; Phil Sword, center; and Harry Johnson and Lance Locke, guards. Mark Fitch, Jack Tobiasson, Dave Woods and Richard Green have been looking very good this week and may crowd out the starters.

The Ashland high school flag girls and pep band will put on a half time show for the entertainment of the fans.

PLAYERS NOW ACTIVE

New York — (U.P.) — Dick McGuire and Bob Peterson have been restored to the active player list by the New York Knickerbockers, while Sweetwater Clifton and Dr. Ernie Vandeweghe have been dropped, Clifton only temporarily.

UO, OSC Contend in PCC; Red Raiders To Play OCE

Portland — (U.P.) — California's Golden Bears meet Oregon's Ducks at Eugene tonight and Saturday night in the leading basketball series of a busy college weekend that finds action on all fronts.

It is the first Pacific Coast conference action of the season for Coach Bill Borchers' improving Oregon quintet. The Ducks will have their work cut out for them against California which split with USC last week-end after going through a pre-season schedule impressively.

Oregon State's Beavers are in Los Angeles for a pair with Southern Cal, including a televised game tomorrow afternoon. Other PCC action finds Idaho at Stanford and UCLA at Washington State.

College of Idaho invades the Willamette valley for Friday and Saturday games against Lewis and Clark and a Monday game against Pacific. Whitman also is on tour, meeting Pacific Friday and Saturday and Lewis and Clark Monday. Linfield and Willamette play at Salem Saturday.

Eastern Oregon's high-powered team plays host to underdog Oregon Tech at La Grande and Southern Oregon invades Monmouth to battle OCE in a pair of Oregon Collegiate conference series.

Portland's Pilots are in Seattle to meet the strong Seattle university team in a pair. Portland State also is invading Washington, to meet St. Martin's tonight and Seattle-Pacific Saturday night.

Yellow Cabbies To Enjoy Advantage in Height for Saturday's OCE JV Clash

Jimmy Vernon's Yellow Cab basketball team will enjoy a distinct height advantage when they jump into the local hoop spotlight tomorrow night against Oregon College of Education JVs. The game will be played at St. Mary's gym, starting at 8 o'clock.

Three of the Cabbies' starting lineup are well over six feet tall. Chuck Stacey, at center and a veteran of local independent basketball, soars six feet, 7½ inches; Dale Newton a four-year veteran of Southern Oregon college ball, towers six feet, six inches, and Gary Effenback, a Shasta junior college star, goes up to six feet, five inches. The OCE JVs average just a shade over six feet in height.

Others on Vernon's roster of potential starters are Don Wendt, a former Jacksonville star; Bill Werner, of Medford high fame; Don Reese, from Grants Pass high and Gonzaga University; Tiger Smith, now coach of the SOC JVs, and Dick Knutsen, former St. Mary's star. The Cabbies evened their season's play at three victories and three defeats last night by taking the measure of Wimer by a 74 to 63 score. The game, in which Stacey cached 24 points, was a tuneup for tomorrow night's clash with the Baby

Wolves, which the Cabbies expect to be by far their toughest assignment to date.

They face another toughie when they take on YMCA of the Medford Independent league on Thursday, Jan. 26, at Crater high gym at Central Point. It will be a preliminary to the Harlem Globetrotters - House of David game.

Team Shoot On Sunday

It'll be a "fun" shoot but the desire to win will still be there Sunday when the annual Red and Blue team competition is scheduled at Medford Gun club.

All shooters on the grounds who have paid dues for 1956 will be eligible to shoot and club officials are stressing the old adage of "the more the merrier." Wilton White and Paul Culbertson, for the Blues and Reds, respectively, will choose up sides. Activities will start at 10 a.m. Losing team members will serve the dinner at the annual meeting at the club on Wednesday, January 18, the dinner is scheduled for 7 p.m. with a social hour starting at 6 p.m. The Red team won last year.

Sports Broadcasts

Radio stations KYJC and KMED will broadcast the Medford high-Klamath Falls basketball games and station KWIN the Ashland-Grants Pass games at 8:15 p.m. today and Saturday. Television station KBES will carry the Purdue-Michigan State university hoop fray at noon Saturday and the Oregon State college-University of Southern California tussle at 2 p.m.

Morehead, Dons Pace Statistics

New York — (U.P.) — Morehead State of Kentucky shared the center of basketball's statistics stage, with national champion San Francisco as the two teams paced the nation in offense and defense, respectively.

Morehead is firing points through the hoop faster than any major college team in history, except last year's record-setting Furman squad, official NCAA figures disclosed today. The statistics include games through Jan. 10.

The Kentuckians, who have lost three of their 12 games, show an average of 97.8 points per game. At this time last year, Furman was flirting with the 100-mark before winding up the season at 95.3.

Morehead opened its largest lead this week in the three weeks it has headed the point-production race. Marshall college stands second with 93 points per game.

Unbeaten San Francisco has allowed its 12 foes only 52.2 points per game, but is being pressed for the defense lead by perennial defense champion Oklahoma A&M in 13 games, the Aggies have allowed only 53.8 points per game and Stanford is a close third at 54.6.
