Have Surgery—Edd Colpitts, 217 East Pine st., Central Point, and Mrs. Clara Pruitt, 725 Narregan st., are convalescing at Osteopathic hospital after having surgery there Wednesday, attendants reported today.

Completes Course—Cecil Cannon, 2827 Buckshot rd., Medford, has completed a course in practical and theoretical radio and television at National Radio institute in Washington, D.C.

Safety Council—The Medford Safety Council will meet at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 20, in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel. State Senator Mark Hatfield will be principal speaker, and individual and industrial awards for outstanding safety achievements during 1955 will be presented. New officers for 1956 will be installed.

To Tournament—Mr. and Mrs. George Vilas plan to attend the Thunderbird Golf tournament at Palm Springs, Calif., and later will visit in Las Vegas, Nev., and Phoenix, Ariz.

On Business—Clyde Webb, salesman for Peck Brothers, is in Portland at company offices on business for the firm. He was accompanied north by Mrs. Peck who will visit relatives in the area.

Receives Cut—Bernard Dillon, 14, of route 1, box 307, Foots Creek, was admitted to Sacred Heart hospital about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday with a cut on his right leg. State police were stopped near the Rock Point bridge on Highway 99 by the boy's mother, Mrs. Arthur Dillon, who was taking him to the hospital, for assistance. The boy apparently cut his leg on a power saw while cutting wood at home, police said.

Hurt in Fall—E. A. Moore, 243 South Holly st., was admitted to Community hospital last evening as the result of injuries he received in a fall Tuesday at his home. Moore, who is 85, has been in failing health for some time. Mrs. Moore explained today. His condition was reported as "good" at the hospital this morning. It has not yet been determined whether he received fractures.

To Benefit Fund—The scholarship fund of the local chapter, Oregon State Nurses association, will receive proceeds from a baked good sale by the unit Saturday, Jan. 21, beginning at 9 a.m., in Home Appliance store.

Appointed Chairman—Bob Jones, son of Walter H. Jones, 151 Gresham st., Ashland, has been appointed chairman of the annual spring convalesce of Lewis and Clark college's League of Young Republican federation of Oregon. Jones lives at 345 South Central ave., Medford.

Opens Studio—Carl Loveland, former southern Oregon resident who recently returned from California, has opened a studio for instruction in band instruments at the J. H. Lusk Piano house, 333 South Riverside ave. Loveland directed the Ashland city band in 1917. In 1926 he moved to California where for 25 years he has instructed band music at San Luis Obispo. His band there was the first, he explained, to be invited to play at annual East-West games and has continued to appear at the games for the past 18 years. Loveland has now retired after 30 years with the California public school systems. His mother, Mrs. C. C. Robertson, lives at Ashland, and Loveland lives at Talent.

Dance Postponed—Prospect Lumberjacks and Jills Square dance club members have postponed a dance which was scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 21 and will attend the Firemen's ball at Shady Cove instead, Mrs. Helen Hubbard, secretary, announced.

Swingin' Bees—A square dance will be held Saturday, Jan. 21, from 8:30 p.m. to midnight at 40 North Riverside ave., by the Swingin' Bees Square dance club. Mrs. Minnie Robertson will call and all square dancers interested are welcome. Refreshments will be potluck.

To Funeral—Medford relatives of Robert Bartlett, who drowned in the Christmas flood at Yuba City, Calif., left today for Marysville to attend funeral services. His body was recovered Tuesday. Those who will attend services from here are an aunt, Mrs. Ralph Harris, and cousins, Mrs. Russell Hanson and Wayne Harris. Mrs. Ralph Harris returned last week from Marysville after going there when Mrs. Vera Johnson, Medford resident, was reported missing in the flood. Mrs. Johnson's body was recovered earlier this month.

Wins Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Curt Butterfield, 1010 Stewart ave., plan to leave Friday for Las Vegas, Nev., for an all-expense paid trip as the result of Butterfield winning a district contest for Charles Pfizer Pharmaceutical house, for which he is a representative. They will go to San Francisco to meet others from the company and will stay at the Flamingo hotel in Las Vegas. The Butterfields lived here about two years ago from The Dalles where he was an athletic coach in the public schools. He has worked for the pharmaceutical company for about two years. Next month the Butterfields will leave for New York City on another expense-paid company trip. Butterfield won that trip as the company's "man-of-the-month" last May, the only man on the west coast who works for the company who has won the monthly award.

Hazards Found—City Fire Marshal Truman Nelson inspected three business occupancies and a public garage yesterday and issued five orders for correction of fire hazards.

From Market—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pickell of Pick's apparel returned today from San Francisco where they attended merchandise shows and purchased for their store.

Dance Postponed—Prospect Lumberjacks and Jills Square dance club members have postponed a dance which was scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 21 and will attend the Firemen's ball at Shady Cove instead, Mrs. Helen Hubbard, secretary, announced.

Swingin' Bees—A square dance will be held Saturday, Jan. 21, from 8:30 p.m. to midnight at 40 North Riverside ave., by the Swingin' Bees Square dance club. Mrs. Minnie Robertson will call and all square dancers interested are welcome. Refreshments will be potluck.

At Community—Lynne Smith, 625 Oakdale dr., is a surgery patient at Community hospital, attendants reported today. Also there are William D. Singler, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Singler, 1626 Woodlawn ave., and Lonnie Hayward, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hayward, route 2, box 36, Central Point, who had tonsillectomies.

Coins Taken—Theft of approximately $150 from five coin-operated machines in the Greyhound bus depot, 212 North Bartlett st., was reported to city police yesterday by Stephen G. Crippen. Also reported was theft of about 10 gallons of gasoline from a truck owned by Roland R. Holmes, 20 Washington st., while it was parked at 334 East McAndrews rd.

To Portland—County School Superintendent Alf Mekvold left today for Portland to attend school meetings. He will meet tonight with the metropolitan study group, which is concerned with financing of schools in areas adjacent to the Portland district. Tomorrow he will attend meetings of the executive and legislative committees of the County School Superintendents association and Saturday will meet with superintendents of first class districts.

In Accidents—Helen M. Morales, 804 North Riverside ave., was cited for failure to leave information at scene of an accident yesterday after the car she was operating struck a sedan parked on North Riverside ave., according to a city police report. Owner of the parked car was Carl R. Bolan, Glenn L. Linn, 119 Washington st., was cited for failure to yield right of way after a collision at Fifth and Holly sts., involving his sedan and a car driven by Daniel L. Snook, route 2, Central Point.
