London Cartoon Takes Jibes at Officials

London (U.P.)—The London Daily Express today printed a nine-panel cartoon captioned "Let's try union with the USA—just to end those Dulles versus Europe bickerings."

One picture showed Prime Minister Anthony Eden boarding a gangplank marked "U.S. Citizens Only" and wearing a sport coat, bow tie and wide-brimmed hat. The caption read: "Senator Eden, representing England state, leaves to take his place in Congress."

Another panel showed Hollywood movie star Marilyn Monroe sitting on the lap of Lord Privy Seal R. A. Butler, whose bald pate is marked with a bold splash of lipstick.

Still another panel showed seven men crowded together on one seat in the Senate chamber. The tagline read: "The senator for the state of France takes his seat."

Suspect Arrested In Linn Robbery

Albany (U.P.)—Sheriff George Miller and a deputy left here today for Coos Bay to pick up Robert Lee Roberts, 33, a suspect in Tuesday's robbery at the Linn county courthouse in which $8,000 was taken.

Roberts was arrested in Coos Bay on a drunk charge after a heavy spending spree. Sheriff Miller, who flew to Coos Bay yesterday to talk to Roberts, said he was convinced that physical evidence linked Roberts with the Albany holdup.

Police in Coos Bay said Roberts told them he was in Eugene Tuesday and that a stranger approached him and asked him to drive a rented car back to Reno.

In the holdup, County Treasurer Raymond Tomlinson was slugged by a bandit who fled with the money.

Compared with pre-war figures, the number of passengers carried on British Railways annually has risen 32 per cent and the ton miles of freight 40 per cent, while the total of passengers transported is over one billion.
