Cardinals Need Pitchers, Right-Hand Power Hitters

(This is another in a series of interviews by United Press staffers with the major league managers on their prospects for 1956.)

By CHARLES TAYLOR
Bradenton Beach, Fla.—(U.P.)—Fred Hutchinson, new manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, is spending his winter trying to scout new pitching power.

Hutchinson hasn't made any deals so far, but he and Cardinal General Manager Frank Lane may get together soon to cook up some trades.

"Pitching is our biggest weakness," Hutchinson said, "but we also need some right-handed power hitters to help us out."

The Cardinal manager pointed to his pitchers' earned-run average of 4.56 for last season, worst in the National league, as testimony to the need for improvement and new blood.

"What we need is two or three 20-game winners, then we'd be in good shape," he said.

Hutchinson, however, didn't discredit the present Cardinal mound staff and said he expects his pitchers to be stronger in 1956.

Possible Comeback
Harvey Haddix and Wilmer Mizell are two of the hurlers Hutchinson will be counting on most heavily. Haddix, he said, "had a pretty bad year" last season, but should make a comeback.

Mizell, who recently got out of the service, has been the big star on the Cuban winter circuit and has set a strikeout record for the loop.

Willard Schmidt and Larry Jackson, both with just a year of experience under their belts, could become "real stars," Hutchinson said. He's also counting heavily on Tom Poholsky, who wasn't used much until the last part of the season last year.

When it comes to hitting, Hutchinson has heavy left handed strength in Stan (The Man) Musial, Wally Moon, Bill Virden and switcher Red Schoendienst, who also bats right-handed.

What Hutchinson wants is a good right-handed power hitter. He expects some improvement from third baseman Ken Boyer and shortstop Alex Grammas, both of whom have potential power.

Promising Rookies
In the infield, Hutchinson will be watching Don Blasingame closely in spring training. The Omaha rookie could step into Schoendienst's shoes at second, or may take over at shortstop if he "comes along" fast enough. Dick Schofield, a bonus kid, is another shortstop the Cards figure to be prominent in the lineup in the future.

"I'll be working with 11 players who have been up from the minors just one year, and five who have been up for only two years. Any of these boys are potential stars and we're looking for them to develop," he said.

"This year, I think St. Louis will be a much better team. We may not win the pennant—Brooklyn's the team we'll have to beat to do that—but we'll wind up a lot better than seventh where we finished last season."

Lewis, Christian Fight in Tacoma

Two Medford Police Athletic league boxers, Larry Lewis and Loren Christian, left last night to participate in the Tacoma, Wash., Golden Gloves tourney.

They were accompanied by two PAL representatives, Police Sgt. Lyle Perkins and Coach Hugh Jennings.

The tourney is today and Saturday, an Oregon AAU champ, was marked the favorite in his weight for the Tacoma event.

Lincoln, Jackson Remain Unbeaten

Lincoln and Jackson kept unbeaten in city elementary school basketball play yesterday.

Lincoln clubbed Roosevelt 30 to 8, Jackson bounced Jefferson 29 to 17 and Washington rapped St. Mary's 27 to 14.

Jackson and Lincoln are tied for league lead with two wins each. St. Mary's fifth and sixth graders are playing a complete schedule against the public school clubs but its games do not count in the league.

SIT-UP CHAMP

Alhambra, Calif.—(U.P.)—Dave Davob, a 17-year-old star athlete at Alhambra high school, claimed a new record of 5,600 sit-ups today, surpassing what is believed to be the old unofficial mark of 5,555 set by a naval seaman during the war at the Great Lakes Training center. Davob lost eight pounds during the three and one-half hours it took him to accomplish the feat, witnessed by the school's gymnastic coach, Chuck McPate.

TO HONOR BRENNAN

New York—(U.P.)—Terry Brennan, Notre Dame football coach, will be honored at the fifth annual awards dinner of the sports lodge of B'nai B'rith Saturday night. Brennan will be presented with a plaque for "high principle and achievement in sports." The presentation will be made by Jim Crowley, one of the famed "Four Horsemen" and presently chairman of the Pennsylvania State Boxing commission.

Floyd Holds NCAA Score Leadership

New York—(U.P.)—Rivals Darrell Floyd of Furman and Robin Freeman of Ohio State now are only a basket and a free throw apart in their blazing battle for the major college basketball scoring championship, latest official NCAA statistics disclosed.

Floyd, the defending champ, had 370 points and Freeman 367, according to the figures, which include games through Jan. 14.

Since each has played 11 games, they're even closer on a basis of average points per game—Floyd on top, of course, with 33.6 points per game and Freeman next with 33.4. They're the only players over the 30-mark, Dan Swartz of Morehead State holding third at 29.3 points per game.

Pop-shooting Floyd rang up the season's highest performance on Saturday when he tallied 62 points against the Citadel, but actually Freeman gained ground since last week. Floyd had score 35, 32 and 18 in three earlier games last week for a 34.5 average for those four games while Freeman averaged 35.5 for two games.

Team Offense Leader
Swartz's shooting led Morehead in retaining the lead in team offense with an average of 96.5 points per game. San Francisco retained the defense leadership with an average of 52.0 points.

In the individual competition, Tom Heinsohn of Holy Cross has averaged 26.0 points per game to rank fourth nationally and Bill Ebben of Detroit has a 25.4 mark to round out the top five.

Bob Burrow of Kentucky also feature the past week with a 50-point spree Saturday against Louisiana State, a total exceeded only by Floyd's 62-point performance, but does not rank among the top 50 scorers.

Joe Holup of George Washington took over as the nation's best basket marksmen, sinking 635 of his shots from the floor. Hal Gree of Marshall, last week's leader, dropped to second at 622.

Free Throw Leader
Roger Newman of Western Michigan became the new leader in free throw marksmanship with a .932 average as Bill Von Weyhe of Rhode Island dropped all the way to ninth place.

Morehead State has averaged 96.5 points through Jan. 17 for a husky lead over second-place Marshall, W.V., at 91.0. Memphis State holds third with 90.8 and Illinois is fourth at 90.5. Floyd leads Furman to the fifth rank at 90.0.

Oklahoma A&M, the perennial defense champion, again is second to the Dons with 53.1, followed by San Jose State at 54.5, Stanford at 55.7, and New Mexico A&M at 56.0.

A Nichol's Worth of . . . Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Feature Writer

Washington—(U.P.)—My friend and informant at U.S. Army headquarters in Europe, Maj. James W. Campbell, forwards this one. It concerns Capt. Dale J. (Jack) Crittenger of Anderson, Ind., and his pretty wife "Pooky," who calls San Antonio, Tex., home. Jack is the son of the retiring Lt. Gen. Willis Crittenger, now the president of the Greater New York Fund.

Anyhow, Jack thought he would use up some leave by taking his wife to Garmisch, the famed ski resort in Southern Bavaria. They checked into a hotel and after dinner decided they would go to a hockey game at the ice stadium in the town.

One team in blue uniforms, the other in red. Relaxing there in the open air with the thermometer a "comfortable" 20 above, the couple cared not which team was which. Hockey is hockey.

Blue scored first. The crowd roared. Blue scored again, and there came another roar.

Real quick, it should be stated that Crittenger, like his pappy, is a tank man and therefore often outnumbered. He started to holler like mad for the underdog.

Cheers Underdog
"Come on Red," he screamed in German, "Let's make a hockey game of this. Give 'em the business."

The crowd, which outnumbered the captain and Pooky 8000 to two, booed and hissed the couple by that very percentage.

Straight of the "Red" team scored. The team of Crittenger and Crittenger collaborated in a howl of approval.

The partisan crowd, in favor of the "Blue" team, turned on the visitors, via oral insults. German words our friends didn't savvy.

Jack turned to the Bavarian sitting next to him and wanted to know what was the matter with the crowd. Don't they like underdogs?

The Bavarian asked a rather sensible question. Said he: "Do you folks want an escort out of here?"

Then Jack and Pooky's neighbor explained that the "Blue" team was local and that the "Red" team came from Prague, Czechoslovakia, under the thumb of the Communists.

Jack came alert and he and his bride began yelling their heads off for the outfit done up in blue. The sensible thing to do under the circumstances.

"Come on Blue!"
Slight cheer

The Crittengers escaped and when Pooky said "Murder the bums!" a small polite cheer trickled from the throng.

That wasn't the only mistake the couple made on the little
