House of David Will Have Fast Quint To Face Globetrotters

Basketball's interesting House of David quintet from the Israelite cult at Benton Harbor, Mich., has its strongest lineup in years on tour this season as fans will see when the noted club performs at Crater high school gym at Central Point on Thursday, Jan. 26, against the Harlem Globetrotters.

Tallest player is six foot seven inch Bob Moroski, a veteran, who came direct to the team from East Catholic high school in Philadelphia. Jerry Schumacher, from Carthage college, is 6-5, an inch taller than Jim Sinkdell, formerly of the University of Nebraska.

Don Tamulis, who has starred with the Davidites for several seasons, is 6-3 and a standout from Milton college in Wisconsin.

Rounding out the team are a flock of talented new men—John Bodine of Eastern Illinois college, Homer Garner, Louisiana State University; Bob Mauel, Loras college, and Al Ingber, who starred in Military college.

Rifles Shock Fans At Tijuana Tourney

Tijuana, Mex.—(U.P.)—Short shots:

U. S. visitors at the $12,500 Caliente Open golf tournament get a slight shock when they near the Tijuana Country Club course. It is being guarded by uniformed soldiers carrying loaded rifles. We are told this is to discourage gate crashers.

In the United States it would discourage all attendance.

The Phoenix Pirates with a flash of the best ball fundamentally they have shown all season zipped to 24 to 8 bulge over IV in the first quarter. But the main forces of the Pirates had the advantage up to 40 to 25 by halftime and Phoenix had a 62 to 33 lead at the close of the third quarter.

Crater exhibited sharper shooting than the Eagles who had a lot of shots ring the rim and pop out in a rough engagement. The Comets held intermission leads of 12 to 10, 30 to 22 and 45 to 35.

Jack Grebb of Eagle Point took scoring honors with 19 points. John Shama swished in 18 for Crater. Twenty-two fouls were whistled against the Eagles and 19 against Crater and Wayne Christian and Ron Veach of the Eagles were dismissed for too many infractions.

Bill Madden and Jim Korth with 18 points each were the chief point-getters for Phoenix. Korth, who got all his points on nine field shots, and Charles Wall, with 14 points, had improved performances over play of the last week or so. The two and Madden rebounded well.

The same clubs met last night, completing the first half of their loop slates. Phoenix is host to Rogue River in non-league play on Tuesday.

Southern Oregonians Rap Portland State

By UNITED PRESS

Southern Oregon College of Education defeated Portland State, 87-70, and Eastern Oregon College of Education, 85-84, in Oregon College conference basketball action Friday night.

Bill Hollingsworth and Lloyd Hoffine scored 45 points between them to lead the Red Raiders to victory over the Portlanders at Ashland. Hollingsworth got 24 points and Hoffine 21 as Southern Oregon took a quick lead and never relinquished it. The Raiders held a 20-point leads several times and were ahead 42-34 at the half.

The Red Raiders, shooting a torrid .617, utilized fine rebounding by Hal Titus and Hollingsworth and a fast breaking attack led by Chuck Crandall and Dale Bates in their victory. They were able to work around and through the Viking man-to-man defense for a lot of close-in shots.

Portland State was the victim of its own cold shooting and good SOC defense, connecting for only 26 field goals on 95 tries for a .274 average. The Raiders put in 29 out of 47 attempts from the field.

At La Grande, Eastern Oregon kept its conference slate clean at 5-0, but it took a desperation tip-in by Bill West in the final six seconds to do it. The Wolves from Monmouth haven't won a conference game in four outings but they threw a mighty big scare into the Mountaineers last night.

Only three points separated the teams most of the way with Eastern Oregon holding a 46-42 halftime edge. The Wolves Cecil Miller and Ken Westenskow for Eastern Oregon tied for high point honors with 22 each.

In the preliminary Southern Oregon college junior varsity, loser in an earlier overtime fray with the Bend club, nicked Central Oregon Community college 69 to 67 in regulation playing time. Central Oregon boasts a fine record against jayvee clubs through the northwest. Punk Biddington, who scored 20 points, Jim Carlile who got 16, and Guy Munsell, who got nine, spurred the junior Raiders. It was the eighth win in nine games for the Jayvees.
